EU rejects [1 1 German 1] call to boycott [2 2 British 2] lamb . Peter Blackburn [3 3 BRUSSELS 3] 1996-08-22 The [4 4 European Commission 4] said on Thursday it disagreed with [5 5 German 5] advice to consumers to shun [6 6 British 6] lamb until scientists determine whether mad cow disease can be transmitted to sheep . [7 7 Germany 7] 's representative to the [8 8 European Union 8] 's veterinary committee Werner Zwingmann said on Wednesday consumers should buy sheepmeat from countries other than [9 9 Britain 9] until the scientific advice was clearer . " We do n't support any such recommendation because we do n't see any grounds for it , " the [10 10 Commission 10] 's chief spokesman Nikolaus van der Pas told a news briefing . He said further scientific study was required and if it was found that action was needed it should be taken by the [11 11 European Union 11] . He said a proposal last month by EU Farm Commissioner [12 12 Franz Fischler 12] to ban sheep brains , spleens and spinal cords from the human and animal food chains was a highly specific and precautionary move to protect human health . Fischler proposed EU-wide measures after reports from [13 13 Britain 13] and [14 14 France 14] that under laboratory conditions sheep could contract Bovine Spongiform Encephalopathy ([15 15 BSE 15]) -- mad cow disease . But Fischler agreed to review his proposal after the EU 's standing veterinary committee , national animal health officials , questioned if such action was justified as there was only a slight risk to human health . [16 16 Spanish 16] Farm Minister [17 17 Loyola de Palacio 17] had earlier accused Fischler at an EU farm ministers ' meeting of causing unjustified alarm through " dangerous generalisation . " . Only [18 18 France 18] and [19 19 Britain 19] backed Fischler 's proposal . The EU 's scientific veterinary and multidisciplinary committees are due to re-examine the issue early next month and make recommendations to the senior veterinary officials . Sheep have long been known to contract scrapie , a brain-wasting disease similar to [20 20 BSE 20] which is believed to have been transferred to cattle through feed containing animal waste . [21 21 British 21] farmers denied on Thursday there was any danger to human health from their sheep , but expressed concern that [22 22 German 22] government advice to consumers to avoid [23 23 British 23] lamb might influence consumers across [24 24 Europe 24] . " What we have to be extremely careful of is how other countries are going to take [25 25 Germany 25] 's lead , " Welsh National Farmers ' Union (NFU) chairman John Lloyd Jones said on BBC radio . [26 26 B on [26] has led efforts to protect public health after consumer confidence collapsed in March after a [27 27 British [27] report suggested humans could contract an illness similar to mad cow disease by eating contaminated beef . [28 28 Germany [28] imported 47,600 sheep from [29 29 Britain [29] last year , nearly half of total imports . It brought in 4,275 tonnes of [30 30 British [30] mutton , some 10 percent of overall imports .

Rare [1 1 Jimi Hendrix 1] song draft sells for almost $ 17,000 . [2 2 LONDON 2] 1996-08-22 A rare early handwritten draft of a song by [3 3 U.S. 3] guitar legend [4 4 Jimi Hendrix 4] was sold for almost $ 17,000 on Thursday at an auction of some of the late musician 's favourite possessions . A Florida restaurant paid 10,925 pounds ($ 16,935) for the draft of " Ai n't no telling " , which [5 5 Hendrix 5] penned on a piece of [6 6 London 6] hotel stationery in late 1966 . At the end of a January 1967 concert in the [7 7 English 7] city of [8 8 Nottingham 8] he threw the sheet of paper into the audience , where it was retrieved by a fan . Buyers also snapped up 16 other items that were put up for auction by [9 9 Hendrix 9] 's former girlfriend Kathy Etchingham , who lived with him from 1966 to 1969 . They included a black lacquer and mother of pearl inlaid box used by [10 10 Hendrix 10] to store his drugs , which an anonymous [11 11 Australian 11] purchaser bought for 5,060 pounds ($ 7,845) . The guitarist died of a drugs overdose in 1970 aged 27 .

[1 1 China 1] says [2 2 Taiwan 2] spoils atmosphere for talks . [3 3 BEIJING 3] 1996-08-22 [4 4 China 4] on Thursday accused [5 5 Taipei 5] of spoiling the atmosphere for a resumption of talks across the [6 6 Taiwan Strait 6] with a visit to [7 7 Ukraine 7] by [8 8 Taiwanese 8] Vice President [9 9 Lien Chan 9] this week that infuriated [10 10 Beijing 10] . Speaking only hours after [11 11 Chinese 11] state media said the time was right to engage in political talks with [12 12 Taiwan 12] , [13 13 Foreign Ministry 13] spokesman Shen Guofang told [1 Reuters 1] : " The necessary atmosphere for the opening of the talks has been disrupted by the [14 14 Taiwan 14] authorities . " State media quoted [15 15 China 15] 's top negotiator with [16 16 Taipei 16] , Tang Shubei , as telling a visiting group from [17 17 Taiwan 17] on Wednesday that it was time for the rivals to hold political talks . " Now is the time for the two sides to engage in political talks ... that is to end the state of hostility , " Thursday 's overseas edition of the People 's Daily quoted Tang as saying . The foreign ministry 's Shen told [18 18 Reuters Television 18] in an interview he had read reports of Tang 's comments but gave no details of why the negotiator had considered the time right for talks with [19 19 Taiwan 19] , which [20 20 Beijing 20] considers a renegade province . [21 21 China 21] , which has long opposed all [22 22 Taipei 22] efforts to gain greater international recognition , was infuriated by a visit to [23 23 Ukraine 23] this week by [24 24 Taiwanese 24] Vice President Lien .

[1 1 German 1] July car registrations up 14.2 pct yr / yr . [2 2 FRANKFURT 2] 1996-08-22 [3 3 German 3] first-time registrations of motor vehicles jumped 14.2 percent in July this year from the year-earlier period , the Federal office for motor vehicles said on Thursday . The office said 356,725 new cars were registered in July 1996 -- 304,850 passenger cars and 15,613 trucks . The figures represent a 13.6 percent increase for passenger cars and a 2.2 percent decline for trucks from July 1995 . Motor-bike registration rose 32.7 percent in the period . The growth was partly due to an increased number of [4 4 Germans 4] buying [5 5 German 5] cars abroad , while manufacturers said that domestic demand was weak , the federal office said . Almost all [6 6 German 6] car manufacturers posted gains in registration numbers in the period . [7 7 Volkswagen AG 7] won 77,719 registrations , slightly more than a quarter of the total . [8 8 Opel AG 8] together with [9 9 General Motors 9] came in second place with 49,269 registrations , 16.4 percent of the overall figure . Third was [10 10 Ford 10] with 35,563 registrations , or 11.7 percent . Only Seat and [11 11 Porsche 11] had fewer registrations in July 1996 compared to last year 's July . Seat posted 3,420 registrations compared with 5522 registrations in July a year earlier . [12 12 Porsche 12] 's registrations fell to 554 from 643 .

[1 1 Israel 1] plays down fears of war with [2 2 Syria 2] . Colleen Siegel [3 3 JERUSALEM 3] 1996-08-22 [4 4 Israel 4] 's outgoing peace negotiator with [5 5 Syria 5] said on Thursday current tensions between the two countries appeared to be a storm in a teacup . [6 6 Itamar Rabinovich 6] , who as [7 7 Israel 7] 's ambassador to [8 8 Washington 8] conducted unfruitful negotiations with [9 9 Syria 9] , told [10 10 Israel Radio 10] it looked like [11 11 Damascus 11] wanted to talk rather than fight . " It appears to me the [12 12 Syrian 12] priority is still to negotiate . The [13 13 Syrians 13] are confused , they are definitely tense , but the general assessment here in [14 14 Washington 14] is that this is essentially a storm in a teacup , " he said . [15 15 Rabinovich 15] is winding up his term as ambassador . He will be replaced by [16 16 Eliahu Ben-Elissar 16] , a former [17 17 Israeli 17] envoy to [18 18 Egypt 18] and right-wing [19 19 Likud 19] party politician . [20 20 Israel 20] on Wednesday sent [21 21 Syria 21] a message , via 1 Washington , saying it was committed to peace and wanted to open negotiations without preconditions . But it slammed [22 22 Damascus 22] for creating what it called a dangerous atmosphere . [23 23 Syria 23] accused [24 24 Israel 24] on Wednesday of launching a hysterical campaign against it after [25 25 Israeli 25] television reported that [26 26 Damascus 26] had recently test fired a missile . It said its arms purchases were for defensive purposes . " The message that we sent to ([27 27 Syrian 27] President Hafez al-) [1 2 Assad 1] is that [28 28 Israel 28] is ready at any time without preconditions to enter peace negotiations , " [29 29 Israeli 29] Foreign Minister [30 30 David Levy 30] told [31 31 Israel Radio 31] in an interview . Tension has mounted since [32 32 Israeli 32] Prime Minister [33 33 Benjamin Netanyahu 33] took office in June vowing to retain the [34 34 Golan Heights 34] [35 35 Israel 35] captured from [36 36 Syria 36] in the 1967 [37 37 Middle East 37] war . Israeli-Syrian peace talks have been deadlocked over the [38 38 Golan 38] since 1991 despite the previous government 's willingness to make [39 39 Golan 39] concessions . Peace talks between the two sides were last held in February . " The voices coming out of [40 40 Damascus 40] are bad , not good . The media ... are full of expressions and declarations that must be worrying ... this artificial atmosphere is very dangerous because those who spread it could become its prisoners , " Levy said . " We expect from [41 41 Syria 41] , if its face is to peace , that it will answer [42 42 Israel 42] 's message to enter peace negotiations because that is our goal , " he said . " We do not want a war , [43 43 God 43] forbid . No one benefits from wars . " [44 44 Israel 44] 's [45 45 Channel Two 45] television said [46 46 Damascus 46] had sent a " calming signal " to [47 47 Israel 47] . It gave no source for the report . [48 48 Netanyahu 48] and Levy 's spokesmen said they could not confirm it . The television also said that [49 49 Netanyahu 49] had sent messages to reassure [50 50 Syria 50] via Cairo , the [51 51 United States 51] and 3 Moscow .

[1 1 Afghan 1] [2 2 UAE 2] embassy says [3 3 Taliban 3] guards going home . Hilary Gush [4 4 DUBAI 4] 1996-08-22 Three [5 5 Afghan 5] guards brought to the [6 6 United Arab Em irates 6] last week by [7 7 Russian 7] hostages who escaped from the [8 8 Taliban 8] militia will return to [9 9 Afghanis tan 9] in a few days , the [10 10 Afghan 10] embassy in [11 11 Abu Dhabi 11] said on Thursday . " Our ambassador is in touch with the [12 12 UAE 12] foreign ministry . Their return to [13 13 Afghanistan 13] will take place in two or three days , " an embassy official said . " The embassy is issuing them travel documents for their return to their homeland . There is no objection to their travel , " he added . The three Islamic Taliban guards were overpowered by seven [14 14 Russian 14] aircrew who escaped to [15 15 UAE 15] state [16 16 Sharjah 16] last Friday on board their own aircraft after a year in the captivity of [17 17 Taliban 17] militia in [18 18 Kandahar 18] in southern [19 19 Afghanistan 19] . The [20 20 UAE 20] said on Monday it would hand over the three to the International Red Crescent , possibly last Tuesday . It has since been silent on the issue . When asked whether the three guards would travel back to [21 21 Kandahar 21] or the [22 22 Afghan 22] capital [23 23 Kabul 23] , the embassy official said : " That has not been decided , but possibly [24 24 Kandahar 24] . " [25 25 Kandahar 25] is the headquarters of the opposition [26 26 Taliban 26] militia . [27 27 Kabul 27] is controlled by President [28 28 Burhanuddin Rabbani 28] 's government , which [29 29 Taliban 29] is fighting to overthrow . The embassy official said the three men , believed to be in their 20s , were currently in [1 1 Abu Dhabi 1] . He did not elaborate . The [30 30 Russians 30] , working for the Aerostan firm in the [31 31 Russian 31] republic of [32 32 Tatarstan 32] , were taken hostage after a [33 33 Taliban 33] MiG-19 fighter forced their cargo plane to land in August 1995 . [34 34 Taliban 34] said its shipment of ammunition from [35 35 Albania 35] was evidence of [36 36 Russian 36] military support for [37 37 Rabbani 37] 's government . 2 Moscow said the crew 's nationality was coincidental . Numerous diplomatic attempts to free the seven failed . The [38 38 Russians 38] , who said they overpowered the guards -- two armed with Kalashnikov automatic rifles -- while doing regular maintenance work on their Ilyushin 76 cargo plane last Friday , left the [39 39 UAE 39] capital [40 40 Abu Dhabi 40] for home on Sunday .

[1 1 German 1] farm ministry tells consumers to avoid [2 2 Br itish 2] mutton . [3 3 BONN 3] 1996-08-22 [4 4 Germany 4] 's Agriculture Ministry suggested on Wednesday that consumers avoid eating meat from [5 5 British 5] sheep until scientists determine whether mad cow disease can be transmitted to the animals . " Until this is cleared up by the [6 6 European Uni on 6] 's scientific panels -- and we have asked this to be done as quickly as possible -- ( consumers ) should if at all possible give preference to sheepmeat from other countries ,
" ministry official Werner Zwingmann told [7 7 ZDF 7] television . " I do not want to say that there is a concrete danger for consumers , " he added . " There are too many holes in what we know , and these must be filled very quickly . " Bonn has led efforts to ensure consumer protection tops the list of priorities in dealing with the mad cow crisis , which erupted in March when [8 8 Britain 8] acknowledged humans could contract a similar illness by eating contaminated beef . The [9 9 European Commission 9] agreed this month to rethink a proposal to ban the use of suspect sheep tissue after some EU veterinary experts questioned whether it was justified . EU Farm Commissioner [10 10 Franz Fischler 10] had proposed banning sheep brains , spleens and spinal cords from the human and animal food chains after reports from [11 11 Britain 11] and [12 12 France 12] that under laboratory conditions sheep could contract Bovine Spongiform Encephalopathy ( [13 13 BSE 13] ) -- mad cow disease . But some members of the EU 's standing veterinary committee questioned whether the action was necessary given the slight risk to human health . The question is being studied separately by two EU scientific committees . Sheep have long been known to contract scrapie , a similar brain-wasting disease to [14 14 BSE 14] which is believed to have been transferred to cattle through feed containing animal waste . [15 15 British 15] officials say sheep meat is perfectly safe to eat . [16 16 ZDF 16] said [17 17 Germany 17] imported 47,600 sheep from [18 18 Britain 18] last year , nearly half of total imports . It brought in 4,275 tonnes of [19 19 British 19] mutton , some 10 percent of overall imports . After the [20 20 British 20] government admitted a possible link between mad cow disease and its fatal human equivalent , the EU imposed a worldwide ban on [21 21 British 21] beef exports . EU leaders agreed at a summit in June to a progressive lifting of the ban as [22 22 Britain 22] takes parallel measures to eradicate the disease .

years as a trainer when his top sprinter Pivotal , a 100-30 chance , won the [4 4 Nunthorpe Stakes 4] on Thursday . The three-year-old , partnered by veteran [5 5 George Duffield 5] , snatched a short head verdict in the last stride to deny Eveningperformance (16-1) , trained by Henry Candy and ridden by Chris Rutter . Hever Golf Rose (11-4) , last year 's Prix de l ' Abbaye winner at [6 6 Longchamp 6] , finished third , a further one and a quarter lengths away with the 7-4 favourite Mind Games in fourth . Pivotal , a [7 7 Royal Ascot 7] winner in June , may now be aimed at this season 's Abbaye , [8 8 Europe 8] 's top sprint race . Prescott , reluctant to go into the winner 's enclosure until the result of the photo-finish was announced , said : " Twenty-five years and I have never been there so I thought I had better wait a bit longer . " He added : " It 's very sad to beat Henry Candy because I am godfather to his daughter . " Like Prescott , Jack Berry , trainer of Mind Games , had gone into Thursday 's race in search of a first group one success after many years around the top of his profession . Berry said : " I `m disappointed but I do n't feel suicidal . He (Mind Games) was going as well as any of them one and a half furlongs (300 metres) out but he just did n't quicken . "

SOCCKER - [1 1 DALGLISH 1] SAD OVER [2 2 BLACKBURN 2]
PARTING . [3 3 LONDON 3] 1996-08-22 [4 4 Kenny Dalglish 4] spoke on Thursday of his sadness at leaving [5 5 Blackburn 5]
, the club he led to the [6 6 English 6] premier league title in 1994-95 . [7 7 Blackburn 7] announced on Wednesday they and [8 8 Dalglish 8] had parted by mutual consent . But the ex-manager confessed on Thursday to being " sad " at leaving after taking [9 9 Blackburn 9] from the second division to the premier league title inside three and a half years . In a telephone call to a local newspaper from his holiday home in [ 10 10 Spain 10] , [11 11 Dalglish 11] said : " We came to the same opinion , albeit the club came to it a little bit earlier than me . " He added : " If no one asked , I never opened my mouth . I have stayed out of the way and let them get on with the job . The club thought it (the job) had run its course and I came to the same conclusion . " [12 12 Dalg ish 12] had been with [13 13 Blackburn 13] for nearly five years , first as manager and then , for the past 15 months , as director of football .

TENNIS - [1 1 NEWCOMBE 1] PONDERS HIS [2 2 DAVIS CUP 2]
FUTURE . [3 3 SYDNEY 3] 1996-08-22 [4 4 Australian 4] [5 5 Da vis Cup 5] captain [6 6 John Newcombe 6] on Thursday signalled his possible resignation if his team loses an away tie against [7 7 Croatia 7] next month . The former [8 8 Wimb ledon 8] champion said the immediate future of [9 9 Australia 9] 's [10 10 Davis Cup 10] coach [11 11 Tony Roche 11] could also be determined by events in [12 12 Split 12] . " If we lose this one , [13 13 Tony 13] and I will have to have a good look at giving someone else a go , " [14 14 Newcombe 14] was quoted as saying in [15 15 Sydney 15] 's [16 16 Daily Tel egraph 16] newspaper . [17 17 Australia 17] face [18 18 Croat ia 18] in the world group qualifying tie on clay from September 20-22 . Under [19 19 Newcombe 19] 's leadership , [2 0 20 Australia 20] were relegated from the elite world group last year , the first time the 26-time [21 21 Davis Cup 21] winners had slipped from the top rank . Since taking over as captain from [22 22 Neale Fraser 22] in 1994 , [23 23 Newcombe 23] 's record in tandem with [24 24 Roche 24] , his former doubles partner , has been three wins and three losses . [25 2 5 Newcombe 25] has selected [26 26 Wimbledon 26] semifinalist [27 27 Jason Stoltenberg 27] , [28 28 Patrick Rafter 28] , [29 29 Mark Philippoussis 29] , and [30 30 Olympic 30] doubles champions [31 31 Todd Woodbridge 31] and [32 32 Mark Woodforde 32] to face the Croatians . The home side boasts world number six [33 33 Goran Ivanisevic 33] , and [34 34 Newcombe 34] conceded his players would be hard-pressed to beat the Croatian number one . " We are ready to fight to our last breath -- [35 35 Australia 35] must play at its absolute best to win , " said [36 36 Newcombe 36] , who described the tie as the toughest he has faced as captain . [37 37 Australia 37] last won the [38 38 Davis Cup 38] in 1986 , but they were beaten finalists against [39 39 Germany 39] three years ago under [40 40 Fraser 40] 's guidance .

ATHLETICS - IT 'S A RECORD - 40,000 BEERS ON THE HOUSE . [1 1
BRUSSELS 1] 1996-08-22 Spectators at Friday 's [2 2 Brussels 2 ] grand prix meeting have an extra incentive to cheer on the athletes to world record performances -- a free glass of beer . A [3 3 Belgian 3] brewery has offered to pay for a free round of drinks for all of the 40,000 crowd if a world record goes at the meeting , organisers said on Thursday . It could be one of the most expensive rounds of drinks ever .
The meeting is sold out already . Two world records are in serious danger of being broken at the meeting -- the women 's 1,000 metres and the men 's 3,000 metres .

Garlic pills do n't lower cholesterol , study finds . [1 1 L0 NDON 1] 1996-08-22 Garlic pills may not lower blood cholesterol and studies that show they do may be flawed , [2 2 British 2] researchers have reported . A study by a team of doctors at [3 3 Oxford University 3] has found people with high blood cholesterol do not benefit significantly from taking garlic tablets . The study involved 115 people with high blood cholesterol levels . They were given 900 milligrams a day of dried garlic powder or placebo tablets .
" There were no significant differences between the groups receiving garlic and placebo , " they wrote in the Journal of the Royal College of Physicians . Those taking part were told to eat a low-fat diet for six weeks before they started taking the pills , and their blood cholesterol measured before and after the six-week period . The researchers said this would make their findings more accurate . Several studies have found garlic pills can lower blood pressure and blood cholesterol . But the [4 4 Oxford 4] team disputed these findings and said either previous trials may have been interpreted incorrectly , those taking part were not given special diets beforehand or the duration of the studies may have been too short . The six-month trial was funded by the [5 5 British Heart Foundation 5] and Lichtwer Pharma GmbH , which makes Kwai brand garlic tablets . The study did not address whether whole garlic could affect cholesterol . -- London Newsroom +44 171 542 7950

Tennis - [1 1 Philippoussis 1] looms for [2 2 Sampras 2] in [3 3 U.S. Open 3] . Bill Berkrot [4 4 NEW YORK 4] 1996-08-22 World number one [5 5 Pete Sampras 5] , seeking his first [6 6 Grand Slam 6] title of the year , and women 's top seed [7 7 Steffi Graf 7] , aiming for her third , should be able to ease into the year 's final major , which begins on Monday . [8 8 Sampras 8] opens the defence of his [9 9 U.S. Open 9] crown against [10 10 David Rikl 10] of the [11 11 Czech Republic 11] , while top-ranked [12 12 Graf 12] begins her title defence against [13 13 Yayuk Basuki 13] of [14 14 Indonesia 14] . Wednesday 's [15 15 U.S. Open 15] draw ceremony revealed that both title holders should run into their first serious opposition in the third round . Looming in [16 16 Sampras 16] 's future is a likely third-round date with recent nemesis [17 17 Mark Philippoussis 17] , the rising [18 18 Australian 18] who took out [19 19 Sampras 19] in the third round of the [20 20 Australian Open 20] in January . [21 21 Sampras 21] avenged that defeat with a straight sets win over the 19-year-old power hitter in the second round at [22 22 Wimbledon 22] and their rubber match in [23 23 New York 23] could provide some first-week fireworks . While only a stunning upset will keep [24 24 Graf 24] from sailing through to a predictable semifinal showdown with third seed [25 25 Arantxa Sanchez Vicario 25] , the [26 26 German 26] star could also be tested in the third round where she will probably face 28th-ranked veteran [27 27 Natasha Zvereva 27] of [28 28 Belarus 28] . There will be no repeat of last year 's men 's final with eighth-ranked [29 29 Andre Agassi 29] landing in [30 30 Sampras 30] 's half of the draw . Bumping [31 31 Agassi 31] up to the sixth seeding avoided the possibility that he would run into [32 32 Sampras 32] as early as the quarter-finals , but they could lock horns in the semis . [33 33 Olympic 33] champion [34 34 Agassi 34] meets [35 35 Karim Alami 35] of [36 36 Morocco 36] in the first round . Surprise second seed [37 37 Michael Chang 37] , ranked third in the world , opens against [38 38 Czech 38] [39 39 Daniel Vacek 39] , while women 's second seed [40 40 Monica Seles 40] drew [41 41 American 41] Anne Miller as her first victim . Second-ranked [42 42 Austrian 42] [43 43 Thomas Muster 43] , who was seeded third , did not have the luck of the draw with him . In the first round [44 44 Muster 44] faces [45 45 American 45] [46 46 Richey Reneberg 46] , who has been playing some of the best tennis of his career of late . If he survives , [47 47 Muster 47] is seeded to run into either fifth-seeded [48 48 Wimbledon 48] champion [49 49 Richard Krajicek 49] of the [50 50 Netherlands 50] or 12th-seeded [51 51 American 51] [52 52 Todd Martin 52] in the quarter-finals in [53 53 Chang 53] 's half of the draw . Perhaps the best , yet most unfortunate , first-round matchup of the men 's competition pits eighth seed [54 54 Jim Courier 54] against retiring star [55 55 Stefan Edberg 55] . The popular [56 56 Swede 56] is playing his final major tournament next week and the two-time champion 's [57 57 Grand Slam 57] farewell could well be a one-match affair . With the exception of a [58 58 Philippoussis 58] showdown , [59 59 Sampras 59] looks to have landed in a comfortable quarter of the draw with the likes of [60 60 Frenchman 60] [61 61 Cedric Pioline 61] and ailing [62 62 French Open 62] champion [63 63 Yevgeny Kafelnikov 63] , who is nursing a rib injury , in his path . [64 64 Seles 64] , runner-up to [65 65 Graf 65] last year , is seeded to run into fifth-ranked [66 66 German 66] [67 67 Anke Huber 67] in the quarter-finals with fourth seed [68 68 Conchita Martinez 68] or eighth-seeded [69 69 Olympic 69] champion [70 70 Lindsay Davenport 70] looking like her most likely semifinal opponents . But [71 71 Huber 71] will be tested immediately with a first-round encounter against dangerous 18th-ranked [72 72 South African 72] [73 73 Amanda Coetzer 73] . Sanchez Vicario , runner-up to [74 74 Graf 74] at the [75 75 French Open 75] and [76 76 Wimbledon 76] , begins play against a qualifier in a quarter of the draw that includes young talent [77 77 Martina Hingis 77] , the 16th seed , before a probable quarter-final clash with seventh-seeded veteran [78 78 Jana Novotna 78] . [79 79 Martinez 79] begins play against [80 80 Ruxandra Dragomir 80] of [81 81 Romania 81] . -- Sydney Newsroom 61-2 9373-1800

RTRS - Tennis - [1 1 Muster 1] upset , [2 2 Philippoussis 2] wins , [3 3 Stoltenberg 3] loses . [4 4 TORONTO 4] 1996-08-21 Top-seeded [5 5 Thomas Muster 5] of [6 6 Austria 6] was beaten 6-3 7-5 by 123rd-ranked [7 7 Daniel Nestor 7] of [8 8 Canada 8] on Wednesday in his first match of the $ 2 million [9 9 Canadian Open 9] . A lefthander with a strong serve , [10 10 Nestor 10] kept the rallies short by constantly attacking the net and the tactic worked in the second-round match against [1 11 Muster 11] , playing his first match after receiving a first-round bye along with the other top eight seeds . The tournament also lost its second seed on the third day of play when second-seeded [12 12 Goran Ivanisevic 12] of [13 13 Croatia 13] was beaten 6-7(3-7) 6-4 6-4 by unseeded [14 14 Mikael Tillstrom 14] of [15 15 Sweden 15] . Other seeded players advancing were number three [16 16 Wayne Ferreira 16] of [17 17 South Africa 17] , number four [18 18 Marcelo Rios 18] of [19 19 Chile 19] , number six [20 20 MaliVai Washington 20] of the [21 21 United States 21] and [22 22 American 22] [23 23 Todd Martin 23] , the seventh seed . Eighth seed [24 24 Marc Ro sset 24] of [25 25 Switzerland 25] was eliminated in a one hour , 55 minute battle by unseeded [26 26 Mark Philippoussis 26] of [27 27 Australia 27] . [28 28 Philippoussis 28] saved a match point at 5-6 in the third-set tie break before winning 6-3 3-6 7-6 (8-6) . [29 29 Philippoussis 29] 's compatriot , 13th seed [30 30 Jason Stoltenberg 30] , was not as fortunate . He held one match point at 9-8 in a marathon third-set tie break but was beaten 5-7 7-6 (7-1) 7-6 (13-11) by unseeded [31 31 Daniel Vacek 31] of the [32 32 Czech Republic 32] . " I knew I had to serve well and keep the points short and that 's what I was able to do , " said [33 33 Nestor 33] , who ranks 10th in doubles . There were only two service breaks in the match . The lanky [34 34 Canadian 34] broke [35 35 Muster 35] at 4-3 in the first set and 5-5 in the second before ending the match on his third match point when the [36 36 Austrian 36] hit a service return long . " I probably did n't hit five ground strokes in the whole match , " said [37 37 Muster 37] , only partly joking . " The way he was chipping and charging and serving and volleying I did n't really get my timing playing from the baseline . " " He played a good match , took a few chances , and every time he was down he was able to come up with a big first serve . " Playing at night was not [38 38 Muster 38] 's preference . " I asked for a day match and they gave me a night match , " he said . " I do n't like playing under the lights but maybe it would not have made any difference . " [39 39 Ivanisevic 39] rallied from a 2-5 deficit in the first set but then played erratically against the 44th-ranked Tillstrom , who was a surprise winner over his famous compatriot [40 40 Stefan Edberg 40] in the second round at [41 41 Wimbledon 41] . [42 42 Ivanisevic 42] hit 32 aces but was outplayed from the back court by the 24-year-old Tillstrom . The sixth-ranked [43 43 Ivanisevic 43] , who lost in the final at [44 44 Indianapolis 44] to world number one [45 45 Pete Sampras 45] of the [46 46 U.S. 46] last Sunday , made a quick getaway after his loss but did say : " Something was not there when I arrived (in [47 47 Toronto 47]) . I did n't feel good . And I did n't have a good feeling as soon as I lost in my doubles (on Tuesday) . " " I thought he looked a little unfocused at certain times on his ground strokes , " said Tillstrom . The 19-year-old [48 48 Philippoussis 48] , who beat [49 49 Sampras 49] in the third round of this year 's [50 50 Australian Open 50] , stayed calm in a nervy third-set tie break against [51 51 Rosset 51] . " I 'm pleased because I did n't play that great today , but I fought really well , " he said . " When I was down 2-5 in the tiebreak (in the third set) , I just thought about winning my two serves and hoped that he might get tight . Then he shanked a forehand at to make it 5-all and that helped me back . "

[1 1 Nigerian 1] general takes over [2 2 Liberia 2] [3 3 ECO

Major General Sam Victor Malu took over on Thursday as commander of the [6 6 ECOMOG 6] peacekeeping force in [7 7 Li beria 7] , two days after the start of the latest ceasefire in the six-year civil war . Malu replaced another [8 8 Nigeri an 8] major general , [9 9 John Inienger 9] , who told officers at the handover ceremony that peace was now at hand for [10 10 Liberia 10] after six years of fighting and more than a dozen failed accords . " The search for peace in [11 11 Liberia 11] has been difficult , challenging and sometimes painful . Peacekeepers were harassed , killed and taken hostage , " he said . " It is difficult but I want to assure you that peace is in sight . " [12 12 United Nations 12] military observers travelling to the western town of [13 13 Tu bmanburg 13] on Wednesday to monitor the ceasefire were delayed by shooting along the highway , [14 14 U.N. 14] special representative Anthony Nyakyi said . They finally went ahead with an escort from the [15 15 ULIMO-J 15] faction . Faction leaders who agreed a new peace deal in the [ 16 16 Nigerian 16] capital [17 17 Abuja 17] on Saturday have accused each other of breaking the ceasefire . The latest peace deal foresees the disarmament of an estimated 60,000 combatants and sets a target date of May 30 next year for elections . The [18 18 ECOMOG 18] force , currently 10,000 strong , was sent to [19 19 Liberia 19] by the [20 20 Economic Community of West African States 20] in 1990 at the height of the fighting .

Guinea calls two days of prayer . [1 1 CONAKRY 1] 1996-08-22
The West African state of Guinea declared Thursday and Friday days of national prayer . A government statement , broadcast repeatedly by state radio , said the two days of prayer were
" for the dead , for peace and prosperity in Guinea , the victory of the new government and the health of the head of state " . The precise reason for the call was not immediately clear . Guinea 's president , [2 2 Lansana Conte 2] , vice-president of the [3 3 Organisation of the Islamic Conference 3]
, left for [4 4 Kuwait 4] on August 16 to prepare the next [ 5 5 OIC 5] summit in [6 6 Pakistan 6] in 1997 . [7 7 Koranic 7] reading sessions and prayers were to be held in the farming town of Badi-Tondon , near his home about 60 km (40 miles) from the capital [8 8 Conakry 8] . Conte , an army general , survived a February army pay revolt which at the time he described as a veiled attempt to topple him . He has since named a prime minister for the first time since early in his rule and ordered a crackdown on corruption . Conte seized power in 1984 after the death of veteran [9 9 Marxist 9] leader [10 10 Ahmed Sekou Toure 10] . He won elections in 1993 .

Fifty [1 1 Russians 1] die in clash with rebels-Interfax . [2 2 MOSCOW 2] 1996-08-22 At least 50 [3 3 Russian 3] servicemen have been killed in a battle with separatist rebels which erupted in the [1 Chechen 1] capital [4 4 Grozny 4] on Thursday and continued after [5 5 Russia 5] and the rebels agreed a truce , [6 6 Interfax 6] news agency said . [7 7 Interfax 7] quoted [8 8 Russian 8] military command in [9 9 Chechnya 9] as saying that about 200 [10 10 interior ministry 10] forces , sent on reconnaissance mission , clashed with rebels at Minutka Square . The [11 11 Interfax 11] report could not be independently confirmed . [12 12 Moscow 12] peacemaker [13 13 Alexander Lebed 13] and rebel chief-of-staff [14 14 Aslan Maskhadov 14] signed an agreement earlier on Thursday under which the two sides would cease all hostilities at noon (0800 [15 15 GMT 15]) on Friday . [16 16 Interfax 16] made clear that the [17 17 interior ministry 17] detachment had been sent on the mission before the truce deal had been signed at the local equivalent of 1500 [18 18 GMT 18] . But fierce fighting still raged at 1600 [19 19 GMT 19] , [20 20 Interfax 20] said . It quoted a source in the [21 21 Russian 21] command in [22 22 Chechnya 22] as saying that the servicemen were outnumbered by the rebels .

Pinas , showing cuts and bruises on his face , told reporters the former head of the feared Jungle Command had tried and failed to shoot him after Pinas objected to Brunswijk 's advances toward his wife . Pinas said Brunswijk then ordered his bodyguards to beat him up . Brunswijk , 35 , denied the charges and said he had merely defended himself when Pinas attacked him with a bottle . It was the second time Brunswijk had been charged with attempted murder in less than two years . In 1994 he served two months in prison for shooting a thief in the buttocks . Brunswijk led a rebel group of about 1,000 in a 1986 uprising against the regime of military strongman [8 8 De si Bouterse 8] . The conflict , which killed more than 500 and caused thousands to flee to neighbouring [9 9 French Guiana 9] in the late 1980s , eventually paved the way to democratic elections in 1991 . Despite numerous problems with authorities , Brunswijk went on to become a successful businessman with mining and logging interests . He also manages and occasionally plays for one of the leading local soccer teams .

[1 1 Palestinians 1] accuse PA of banning books . [2 2 NABLUS 2] , West Bank 1996-08-22 A West Bank bookseller charged on Thursday that the Palestinian Information Ministry has forced him to sign an undertaking not to distribute books written by critics of Israeli-PLO self-rule deals . " They made me sign an undertaking not to sell the books to anyone at the risk of legal action . One official told me ' you have to either destroy the books or return them to [3 3 Amman 3] ' , " Daoud Makkawi , owner of the Nablus-based al-Risala bookshop , told [4 4 Reuters 4] . He said ministry officials made him sign this a few weeks ago after he brought about a dozen copies from [5 5 Jordan 5] of a book by [6 6 Edward Said 6] , a prominent scholar at [7 7 New York City 7] 's [8 8 Columbia University 8] . [9 9 Said 9] , a [10 10 U.S. 10] citizen of [11 11 Palestinian 11] origin , has been an outspoken critic of the 1993 Israeli-PLO self-rule deal and has written at least two books on the accord . On Wednesday a bookseller in the West Bank town of [12 12 Ramallah 12] said police about a month ago confiscated several copies of two of [13 13 Said 13] 's books on the Israel-PLO self-rule deals . Palestinian Information Ministry Director-General Mutawakel Taha denied that ministry officials forced anyone to sign any undertaking and insisted that the [14 14 Palestinian Authority 14] has no plans to censor books . " There is no strategy to ban books or to suppress freedom of expression in any form whatsoever , " Taha told [15 15 Reuters 15] . But Taha said that the absence of relevant legislations may have resulted in some mistakes by some security officials . " This may explain some mistakes against some journalists and writers , " he said . Daoud said books by other authors , including [16 16 British 1 6] Journalist [17 17 Patrick Seale 17] , were also banned . He said that security officials often visit his shop to make sure he was not selling the books . " I think this is a bad beginning . If we have confidence , why should we be afraid of the other opinion ? " Daoud said . Thousands of books were banned from sale in the West Bank and [18 18 Gaza Strip 18] by the [19 19 Israeli 19] military authorities before the [20 20 Jewish 20] state handed over parts of the two areas to the PLO under a self-rule deal in 1994 .

carrier [4 4 EgyptAir 4] on Thursday blamed the control tower at [5 5 Istanbul 5] airport for the [6 6 EgyptAir 6] plane accident . Twenty people were injured on Wednesday when the [7 7 EgyptAir 7] [8 8 Boeing 8] 707 overshot the runway , caught fire , hit a taxi and skipped across a road onto a railway line . Chairman Mohamed Fahim Rayyan told a news conference at [9 9 Cairo 9] airport : " The control tower should have allocated the plane another runway , instead of the one the plane landed on . " " The one it landed on is 2,250 metres (2,460 yards) long while the other one if more than 3,000 metres (3,300 yards) long and is less steep , " he added . He said a Turkish civil aviation authority official had made the same point and he noted that a Turkish plane had a similar accident there in 1994 . The [10 10 EgyptAir 10] pilot blamed Turkish airport staff for misleading him . The landing took place after a rainstorm . " Its not an accident . It 's very wet . The brake action is very poor and the tower said it 's medium . That 's wrong , " the pilot told private Ihlas news agency in [11 11 English 11] .

[8 8 Egypt 8] says the [9 9 Sudanese 9] government helped the [1 Moslem 1] militants who tried to kill [10 10 Mubarak 10] in Addis Ababa last year . It sponsored last week 's [11 11 U.N. The sanctions will come into effect in November if [13 13 Sudan 13] fails to extradite the men , but [14 14 Sudan 14] says it cannot hand them over to [1 5 15 Ethiopia 15] for trial because they are not in [16 16 Sudan 16] . [20 20 Hassan a l-Turabi 20] is the leader of the [21 21 National Islamic Front 21] , the political force behind the [22 22 Sudanese 22] government . He did not say if [25 25 Egypt 25] would go so far as to break relations , a step it has been reluctant to take , ostensibly because it would affect ordinary [26 26 Sudanese 26] .

[1 1 Miss Universe 1] hides behind veil of silence . Kieran Murray [2 2 LAS CRUCES 2] , N.M. 1996-08-22 [3 3 Miss Universe 3] , [4 4 Venezuela 4] 's [5 5 Alicia Machado 5] , left [6 6 New Mexico 6] on Thursday , refusing to answer questions about her weight or claims she was told to either go on a crash diet or give up her title . [7 7 Machado 7] , 19 , flew to [8 8 Los Angeles 8] after slipping away from the [9 9 New Mexico 9] desert town of [10 10 Las Cruces 10] , where she attended the 1996 Miss Teen USA pageant on Wednesday . While [11 11 Machado 11] was not a contestant here , she came under intense scrutiny following reports she was given an ultimatum by [12 1 2 Los Angeles-based 12] Miss Universe Inc. to drop 27 pounds (12 kg) in two weeks or risk losing her crown . In [13 13 Venezuela 13] , her mother told [14 14 Reuters 14] that [15 15 Machado 15] had a swollen face when she left home two weeks ago because she had her wisdom teeth extracted . Marta Fajardo insisted her daughter , who weighed 112 pounds (51 kg) when she won the [16 16 Miss Universe 16] title in [17 17 Las Vegas 17] in May , had perfectly normal eating habits . " Everybody has their own addiction to something or other but it 's not as if she eats cakes like crazy , " she said . Organisers flatly denied ever threatening [18 18 Machado 18] but immediately put her under wraps and blocked access to her . Dressed in a black strapless evening gown at Wednesday 's pageant , [19 19 Machado 19] was clearly heavier than the contestants but still won rave reviews after her brief appearance on stage . " Are you kidding ? She 's fantastic , " said Nikki Campbell , 28 , who went to the pageant . " She looked great . Very sexy . " [20 20 Machado 20] 's publicists said on Thursday she was scheduled to stay in [21 21 Los Angeles 21] for promotional work with sponsors before returning to [22 22 Venezuela 22] on Sept . 5 . Beauty queens are high-profile personalities in [23 23 Venezuela 23] and [24 24 Machado 24] 's alleged weight problem made front page news this week . It was an official of the Miss Venezuela Organisation who first said [25 25 Machado 25] had been told to lose weight fast . People close to her said she then eased up on her diet and indulged her passion for pasta and cake , but it was not clear how many pounds she gained and most people who saw her said she was still a long way from being fat . Martin Brooks , president of Miss Universe Inc , said he spoke with [26 26 Machado 26] to assure her that organisers were not putting pressure on her . " She 's fine with it . She wished , as we all did , that it had n't happened but she 's spiritually and mentally terrific . There 's no problem whatsoever , " he told [27 27 Reuters 27] . He said the lifestyle associated with being [28 28 Miss Universe 28] could make routine exercise difficult . " The problem is they travel so much and are so busy that the ability to have any type of regimented routine workout does n't exist . I dont know if [29 29 Alicia 29] is working out . We have n't talked about it because it has n't been an issue , " he said .

1996-08-22 A [5 5 Hamburg 5] court sentenced [6 6 U.S. 6] [7 7

out by security guards . Lauck 's lawyer vowed he would appeal against the court 's decision , arguing that his client should have been set free because he had not committed any offence under [13 13 German 13] law . The [14 14 German 14] government hailed the conviction as a major victory in the fight against [15 15 neo-Nazism 15] . Lauck 's worldwide network has been the main source of anti-Semitic propaganda material flowing into [16 16 Germany 16] since the 1970s . " Lauck possessed a well-oiled propaganda machine , honed during more than 20 years , " presiding judge Guenter Bertram told the court . " He set up a propaganda cannon and fired it at [17 17 Germany 17] . " said Bertram , who also read out extracts from Lauck 's material praising [18 18 Hitler 18] as " the greatest of all leaders " and describing the [19 19 Nazi 19] slaughter of millions of [20 20 Jews 20] as a myth . Eager to put Lauck behind bars quickly and avoid a long and complex trial , prosecutor Bernd Mauruschat limited his charges to offences since 1994 . He had demanded a five-year jail term but said he was satisfied with the court 's sentence . Publishing and distributing [21 21 neo-Nazi 21] material is illegal in [22 22 Germany 22] but Lauck 's defence team had argued that [23 23 U.S 23] freedom of speech laws meant he was free to produce his swastika-covered books , magazines , videos and flags in his homeland . Interior Minister [24 24 Manfred Kanther 24] said in a statement he " welcomed the prosecution and conviction of one of the ringleaders of international [25 25 neo-Nazism 25] and biggest distributers of vicious racist publications " . " It is high time he was behind bars , " the opposition [26 26 Social Democrats 26] said in a statement . Lauck , dressed in a sober blue suit and sporting his trademark Hitleresque black moustache , showed no sign of emotion as Bertram spent more than an hour reading out the verdict and explaining the court 's decision . But as Lauck was about to be led away , he turned to reporters and blurted out a virtually incomprehensible quick-fire diatribe against the court . " Neither the [27 27 National Socialists 27] ([28 28 Nazis 28]) nor the communists dared to kidnap an [29 29 American 29] citizen , " he shouted , in an oblique reference to his extradition to [30 30 Germany 30] from [31 31 Denmark 31] . " That 's the truth . " His attorney , Hans-Otto Sieg , told reporters outside the courtroom that the judges had not explained how a [32 32 German 32] court could judge someone for actions carried out in the [33 33 United States 33] . Bertram said Lauck was obsessed by [34 34 Nazism 34] and devoted his life to leading his National Socialist German Workers ' Party Foreign Organisation (NSDAP-AO) , which derives its name from the full [35 35 German 35] title of [36 36 Hitler 36] 's [37 37 Nazi 37] party . During the three-month trial , the court dealt mainly with issues of the [38 38 NSDAP-AO 38] 's " NS Kampfruf " (" National Socialist Battle Cry ") magazine , filled with references to [39 39 Aryan 39] supremacy and defamatory statements about [40 40 Jews 40] .

The court rejected Sieg 's argument that Lauck 's extradition from [41 41 Denmark 41] , where he was arrested in March last year at the request of [42 42 German 42] authorities , was illegal . Lauck was also convicted of disseminating the symbols of anti-constitutional organisations . He will probably be free in around two and a half years . The court ruled that the 15 months he has spent in custody since his arrest should be subtracted from his prison term .

Bonn says 1 Moscow has promised to observe ceasefire . [1 1 B ONN 1] 1996-08-22 [2 2 Germany 2] said on Thursday it had received assurances from the [3 3 Russian 3] government that its forces would observe the latest ceasefire in [4 4 Chechnya 4] . [5 5 Foreign Ministry 5] spokesman Martin Erdmann said top [6 6 Bonn 6] diplomat [7 7 Wolfgang Ischinger 7] had been assured by senior [8 8 Russian 8] officials that the ultimatum to storm and take the [9 9 Chechen 9] capital of [10 10 Grozny 10] was not valid . " The [11 11 Russian 11] side confirmed that the ceasefire is in place and they will keep to it , " Erdmann told [12 12 Reuters 12] after speaking by telephone to [13 13 Ischinger 13] , who had met the officials on a two-day visit to [14 14 Moscow 14] . He returned to [15 1 5 Bonn 15] on Thursday . [16 16 Ischinger 16] is the political director of [17 17 Bonn 17] 's foreign ministry . [1 8 18 Ischinger 18] said he met three [19 19 Russian 19] deputy foreign ministers and a vice defence minister , who confirmed [20 20 Russian 20] Foreign Minister [21 21 Yevgeny P rimakov 21] 's pledge that 2 Moscow would seek a political solution under the aegis of the Organisation for Security and Cooperation in Europe (OSCE) . " The ultimatum (to storm [2 2 22 Grozny 22]) is no longer an issue , " he said quoting [2 3 23 Ischinger 23] , who had been sent to [24 24 Moscow 24] by [25 25 German 25] Foreign Minister [26 26 Klaus Kinkel 26] as his personal envoy to urge an end to 3 Moscow 's military campaign in the breakaway region . [27 27 Ischinger 27] said the threat of a major assault to take [28 28 Grozny 28] had been the unauthorised initiative of the commanding general and not 4 Moscow 's intention . The officials had been positive about [29 29 Kinkel 29] 's request on Wednesday that President [30 30 Boris Yeltsin 30] 's security chief [31 31 Alexander Lebed 31] should , on his return to [32 32 Moscow 32] , meet Tim Goldiman , the OSCE representative responsible for [33 33 Chechnya 33] , he said .

[1 1 India 1] says sees no arms race with [2 2 China 2] , [3 3 Pakistan 3] . [4 4 NEW DELHI 4] 1996-08-22 [5 5 India 5] said on Thursday that its opposition to a global nuclear test ban treaty did not mean New Delhi intended to enter into an arms race with neighbouring [6 6 Pakistan 6] and [7 7 China 7] . Foreign Minister [8 8 I.K. Gujral 8] was asked at a news conference if [9 9 India 9] 's decision to block adoption of the accord in [10 10 Geneva 10] would lead to an arms race with [11 11 Pakistan 11] and [12 12 China 12] . " I do n't see that possibility because [13 13 India 13] is not entering into any arms race , " he said . " Our not signing a new treaty does not mean we are going in for any new kind of weapons , particularly nuclear . " [14 14 China 14] , along with [15 15 Britain 15] , [16 16 France 16] , [17 17 Russia 17] and the [18 18 United States 18] , is a declared nuclear power . [19 19 India 19] carried out a nuclear test in 1974 but says it has not built the bomb . Experts believe both [20 20 India 20] and [21 21 Pakistan 21] could quickly assemble nuclear weapons . [22 22 Gujral 22] said he did not expect [23 23 India 23] 's veto of the [24 24 Comprehensive Test Ban Treaty 24] ([25 25 CTBT 25]) to damage bilateral ties with other nations . " I do not visualise its straining our bilateral relations with any country . The text has already been blocked , " he said . [26 26 Gujral 26] said [27 27 India 27] would re-examine its position if the treaty , particularly a clause providing for its entry into force , was modified . Asked what [28 28 India 28] would do if the pact were forwarded to the United Nations General Assembly , [29 29 Gujral 29] said : " That bridge I will cross when I come to it . " In a written statement released at the news conference , [30 30 Gujral 30] reiterated [31 31 India 31] 's objections to the treaty , under negotiation at the Conference on Disarmament in [32 32 Geneva 32] . " It is a sad fact that the nuclear weapon states show no interest in giving up their nuclear hegemony , " the statement said . [33 33 Gujral 33] said [34 34 India 34] had national security concerns that made it impossible for New Delhi to sign the [35 35 CTBT 35] . " Our security concerns oblige us to maintain our nuclear option , " he said , adding that [36 36 India 36] had exercised restraint in not carrying out any nuclear tests since the country 's lone test blast in 1974 . He said : " We cannot accept constraints on our option as long as nuclear weapon states continue to rely on their nuclear arsenals for their security " .

[1 1 India 1] fears attempts to disrupt [2 2 Kashmir 2] polls . [3 3 SRINAGAR 3] , [4 4 India 4] 1996-08-22 [5 5 India 5] 's Home ( interior ) Minister accused [6 6 Pakistan 6] on on Thursday of planning to disrupt state elections in troubled Jammu and Kashmir state . " It seems that from across the border there is going to be a planned attempt to disrupt the elections , " Inderjit Gupta told reporters in the state capital [7 7 Srinagar 7] . The local polls next month will be the first since 1987 in the state , clamped under direct rule from [8 8 New Delhi 8] since 1990 . [9 9 India 9] has often accused [10 10 Pakistan 10] of abetting militancy in the valley , a charge Islamabad has always denied . [11 11 Gupta 11] said there might be an increase in the number of people infiltrating the [12 12 Kashmir 12] valley to create disturbance in the region . " We noticed among the people who come from across the border , there is a growing number of foreign mercenaries , " [13 13 Gupta 13] said . [14 14 India 14] and [15 15 Pakistan 15] have fought two of their three wars over the troubled region of [16 16 Kashmir 16] since independence from [17 17 Britain 17] in 1947 . Prime Minister [18 18 H.D. Deve Gowda 18] 's centre-left government hopes the elections will help restore normality and democratic rule in Jammu and Kashmir , where more than 20,000 people have died in insurgency-related violence since 1990 . Over a dozen militant groups are fighting [19 19 New Delhi 19] 's rule in the state .

Rangarajan 4] said on Thursday that he expected the cash reserve ratio (CRR) maintained by banks to be reduced over the medium term . " Over the medium term , yes , " he told [5 5 Reuters 5] after addressing industrialists in the capital . He denied having said in a recent newspaper interview that the CRR could be raised if necessary . He said he was only trying (in that newspaper report) to explain the theoretical position on the use of the CRR by central banks to manage money supply . [6 6 Rangarajan 6] explained that the cash reserve ratio was an instrument that central banks could use to regulate money supply by reducing or increasing the ratio . But in the current context , the government stood by an earlier commitment to reduce it over a period of time , he said in response to a question . -- [7 7 New Delhi 7] newsroom , +91-11-3012024

[7 7 Rangarajan 7] said a current account deficit of two percent brought about by a 16-17 percent annual growth in exports and a 14-15 percent rise in imports along with an increase in non-debt flows could lead to a reduction in the debt-service ratio to below 20 percent over the next five years . -- [8 8 Bombay 8] newsroom +91-22-2659000

[1 1 Mother Teresa 1] devoted to world 's poor . [2 2 CALCUTTA 2] 1996-08-22 [3 3 Mother Teresa 3] , known as the Saint of the Gutters , won the [4 4 Nobel Peace Prize 4] in 1979 for bringing hope and dignity to millions of poor , unwanted people with her simple message : " The poor must know that we love them . " While the world heaps honours on her and even regards her as a living saint , the nun of [5 5 Albanian 5] descent maintains she is merely doing [6 6 God 6] 's work . " It gives me great joy and fulfilment to love and care for the poor and neglected , " she said . " The poor do not need our sympathy and pity . They need our love and compassion . " The diminutive [7 7 Roman Catholic 7] missionary was on respiratory support in intensive care in an [8 8 Indian 8] nursing home on Thursday after suffering heart failure . But an attending doctor said [9 9 Mother Teresa 9] , who turns 86 next Tuesday , was conscious and in stable condition . The task [10 10 Mother Teresa 10] began alone in 1949 in the slums of densely-populated [11 11 Calcutta 11] , and grew to touch the hearts of people around the world . When in 1979 she was told she had won the [12 12 Nobel Peace Prize 12] , she said characteristically : " I am unworthy . " The world disagreed , showering more than 80 national and international honours on her including the [13 13 Bharat Ratna 13] , or [1 Jewel of India 1] , the country 's highest civilian award . Her health began to deteriorate in 1989 when she was fitted with a heart pacemaker . A year later , the [14 14 Vatican 14] announced she was stepping down as Superior of her [15 15 Missionaries of Charity 15] order . More than 100 delegates flew in from around the world to elect a successor . They could not agree , so asked her to stay on . She agreed . In 1991 , [16 16 Mother Teresa 16] was treated at a [17 17 California 17] hospital for heart disease and bacterial pneumonia . In 1993 , she fell in [18 18 Rome 18] and broke three ribs . In August the same year , while in [19 19 New Delhi 19] to receive yet another award , she developed malaria , complicated by her heart and lung problems . Last April she fractured her left collar bone . But her increasing frailty , arthritis and failing eyesight has not stopped her travels around the world to mingle with the poor and desperate . [20 20 Mother Teresa 20] was born Agnes Goinxha Bejaxhiu to [21 21 Albanian 21] parents in [22 22 Skopje 22] , in what was then [23 23 Serbia 23] , on August 27 , 1910 . She attended a government school and was already deeply religious by the time she was 12 . At the age of 18 she became a [24 24 Loretto 24] nun , hoping to work at the Order 's [25 25 Calcutta 25] mission . She was sent to Loretto Abbey in [26 26 Dublin 26] and from there to [27 27 India 27] to begin her novitiate and teach geography at a convent school in [28 28 Calcutta 28] . She said her divine call to work among the poor came in September , 1946 . " The message was quite clear , " she told one interviewer . " I was to leave the convent and help the poor while living among them . It was an order . I knew where I belonged . " The [29 29 Vatican 29] and the mother superior in [30 30 Dublin 30] approved and after intensive training as a nurse with [31 31 American 31] missionaries she opened her first [32 32 Calcutta 32] slum school in December 1949 . She took the name of Teresa , after [33 33 France 33] 's Saint Therese of the Child [34 34 Jesus 34] . In [35 35 India 35] she was simply called [36 36 Mother 36] . [37 37 Mother Teresa 37] set up her first home for the dying in a Hindu rest house in [38 38 Calcutta 38] after she saw a penniless woman turned away by a city hospital . Named " Nirmal Hriday " (Tender Heart) , it was the first of a chain of 150 homes for dying , destitute people , admitting nearly 18,000 a year . Her [39 39 Missionaries of Charity 39] , a [40 40 Roman Catholic 40] religious order she founded in 1949 , now runs about 300 homes for unwanted children and the destitute in [41 41 India 41] and abroad . In 1994 a [42 42 British 42] television documentary called the myth around [43 43 Mother Teresa 43] a mixture of " hyperbole and credulity " . [44 44 Catholics 44] around the world rose to her defence .

RTRS - FOCUS-News forecasts alien-led profit boost . Bernard Hickey [1 1 SYDNEY 1] 1996-08-22 Media baron [2 2 Rupert Murdoch 2] 's News Corp Ltd reported lower than expected 1995/96 profits on Thursday , but forecast that the hit film " 1 Independence Day " would help increase profits by at least 20 percent in 1996/97 . " From an earnings perspective , the current fiscal year has begun with great promise due to the hit motion picture ' 2 Independence Day , ' " [3 3 News Corp 3] said in a statement announcing its results for the year to June 30 , 1996 . It said moderating paper prices and solid orders for advertising at its [4 4 Fox Broadcasting 4] television network in the [5 5 United States 5] would also help boost profits in the 1996/97 year . " A budgeted profit increase of at least 20 percent for the full year currently appears very attainable , " [6 6 News Corp 6] said . The bullish comments for the coming year soothed analysts and most shareholders , who were disappointed by the lower than expected profit for 1995/96 . News announced pre-abnormals net profit for the year fell six percent to A$ 1.26 billion ([7 7 US$ 7] 995 million) and earnings per share dropped to 40 cents from 46 cents . Analysts had on average expected a pre-abnormals profit of A$ 1.343 billion . " The year just gone was disappointing , but the outlook for the current year looks good , " [8 8 First Pacific 8] media analyst Lachlan Drummond said . [9 9 News Corp 9] said strong performances in [10 10 U.S. 10] television and [11 11 British 11] newspapers were offset by lower profits from [12 12 News Corp 12] 's magazine and publishing divisions and further hefty losses from its Asian Star TV operations . Higher newsprint prices hit profits hard . " Throughout the group , higher paper prices increased costs by over [13 13 US$ 13] 300 million , " it said . [14 14 News Corp 14] said [15 15 British 15] newspaper operating profits rose 10 percent for the year , as higher cover prices at [16 16 The Sun 16] and [17 17 The Times 17] and higher advertising volumes offset increased newsprint costs . Advertising revenues at [18 18 The Times 18] grew 20 percent . Analysts said sharply lower earnings from [19 19 News Corp 19] 's book publishing division and its [20 20 U.S. 20] magazines had been the major surprises in the results for RTRS - Budget cuts to boost [1 1 Australia 1] savings - RBA . [2 2 CANBERRA 2] 1996-08-22 The [3 3 Australian 3] government 's plans to slash its budget deficit should make a useful contribution to national savings , the [4 4 Reserve Bank of Australia 4] (RBA) said in its annual report . " The government 's announced plans to balance the budget , if realised , would make a useful contribution to raising national savings , " the RBA said . The bank said there were concerns fiscal consolidation would unduly restrict growth , but evidence was ambiguous . In its 1996/97 budget announced on Tuesday , the [5 5 Australian 5] [6 6 Coalition 6] government announced an underlying budget deficit of A$ 5.65 billion , and pledged to return the underlying budget balance to surplus by 1998/99 . The budget deficit was A$ 10.3 billion in 1995/96 . -- Sydney Newsroom 61-2 9373-1800 " Determined and credible efforts to rein in unsustainable fiscal positions (are) often rewarded by rising confidence , giving favourable effects on economic activity even in the short term , " it said . " More generally , the long-term effects of fiscal consolidation are clearly positive , with higher saving tending to promote economic growth by raising investment and lowering long-term real interest rates , " the RBA said .

1995/96 . [21 21 News Corp 21] said revenue gains at its magazines and inserts division were offset by higher paper prices and lower sales at the [22 22 U.S. 22] [23 23 TV Guide 23] . News said dramatically lower earnings from the [24 24 British 24] arm of its [25 25 Harper-Collins 25] publishing division more than offset healthy results from its [26 26 U.S. 26] operation . It said the demise of the Net Book Agreement had hurt the [27 27 British 27] operations , and weak performances from the [28 28 San Francisco 28] unit of [29 29 Harper-Collins 29] had not helped . The minimum price setting expired last September when three publishers pulled out . But it was the bullish profit forecast for 1996/97 that took the spotlight in the market , with some analysts saying 20 percent may even be an understatement . " If they 're saying at least 20 percent , then their internal forecasts are probably saying 25 or 30 percent , " said one [30 30 Sydney 30] media analyst who declined to be named . [31 31 News Corp 31] 's shares were down eight cents at A$ 6.39 at 2.00 p.m. (0400 [32 32 GMT 32]) in a soft market . (A$ 1 = [33 33 US$ 33] 0.79) -- Sydney Newsroom 61-2 373-1800

INGTON 2] 1996-08-22 Power New Zealand said on Thursday that the Optimised Deprival Value (ODV) of its network at March 31 , 1996 has been set at $ 524.2 million , an increase of eight percent on its $ 486.5 million valuation a year earlier . The company said the increase reflected the value of extensions to the network to meet economic growth in its supply area and an increase in the estimated lifespan of the network . It said the increase was consistent with the approach followed by other power companies and reflected the company 's new levels of preventative maintenance and equipment upgrading . The revaluation was undertaken to meet the disclosure requirements of the Ministry of Commerce . -- [

[1 1 Ukraine 1] hails peace as marks five-year independence . Rostislav Khotin [2 2 KIEV 2] 1996-08-23 [3 3 Ukraine 3] celebrates five years of independence from [4 4 Kremlin 4] rule on Saturday , hailing civil and inter-ethnic peace as its main post-Soviet achievement . [5 5 Ukraine 5] 's declaration of independence in 1991 , backed nine-to-one by a referendum in December of that year , effectively dealt a death blow to the [6 6 Soviet 6] empire and ended more than three centuries of rule from [7 7 Moscow 7] . [8 8 Ukraine 8] , with a [9 9 Russian 9] community of 11 million people -- the world 's largest outside [10 10 Russia 10] -- has avoided conflicts like those in [11 11 Russia 11] 's [12 12 Chechnya 12] , neighbouring [13 13 Moldova 13] , and the former [14 14 Soviet 14] republics of [15 15 Georgia 15] , [16 16 Azerbaijan 16] and [17 17 Tajikistan 17] . " [18 18 Ukraine 18] 's biggest achievements for five years are the preservation of civil peace and inter-ethnic harmony , " President [19 19 Leonid Kuchma 19] said in televised statement this week . " Unlike many other [20 20 post-Soviet 20] countries we were able to deal with conflict situations in a peaceful and civilised way . " But independence was initially accompanied by hyper-inflation and economic collapse , although there are signs of a turnaround . Inflation -- a hyper-inflationary 10,300 percent a year in 1993 -- was a respectable 0.1 percent a month in June and July and the economy has just begun to grow . [21 21 Kuchma 21] told a solemn ceremony at the Ukraina Palace on Friday that " there was a turning point " in reforms and that he expected a rise in the standard of living in the near future . " There is no doubt that economic growth has already started , " said Adelbert Knobl , head of the [22 22 International Monetary Fund 22] 's mission in [23 23 Ukraine 23] . " The national bank and the government have every reason to be proud of their efforts . " Central bank officials said on Thursday that a much-postponed hryvna currency would " definitely " be introduced before the end of this year . It will replace the interim karbovanets currency , which was introduced at par to the [24 24 Russian 24] rouble in 1992 but now trades at almost 33 karbovanets per rouble . [25 25 Ukraine 25] has repeatedly promised to introduce the hryvna but had to postpone the plans because of economic problems . Proud of its record in promptly joining both the [26 26 Council of Europe 26] and [27 27 NATO 27] 's Partnership for Peace , [28 28 Ukraine 28] caused a foreign policy wrangle this week , offending [29 29 China 29] by allowing a [30 30 Taiwanese 30] minister to appear on a public , if unofficial visit . [31 31 China 31] cancelled a visit by a top-level delegation in protest . Kiev 's Foreign Minister Hennady Udovenko said [32 32 Beijing 32] was overreacting . But [33 33 Ukraine 33] , seeing itself as a bridge between [34 34 Russia 34] and the rapidly Westernising countries of eastern [35 35 Europe 35] , is looking West as well as East . " The strategic aim of [36 36 European 36] integration should not in any way damage [37 37 Ukraine 37]

's interests in [38 38 post-Soviet 38] areas . Relations with [39 39 Russia 39] , which is our main partner , have great importance , " [40 40 Kuchma 40] said . " But [41 41 Ukraine 4 1] cannot be economically oriented on [42 42 Russia 42] , even though those in some circles push us to do that . " [43 4 3 Kuchma 43] has said Kiev wants membership of the [44 44 European Union 44] , associate membership of the Western European Union defence grouping and to move closer to [45 45 NATO 45] . A message from the West this week from [46 46 U.S. 4 6] President [47 47 Bill Clinton 47] congratulated [48 48 Ukraine 48] on the anniversary , promising to support market reforms and praising [49 49 Ukraine 49] as a " stabilising factor " in a united [50 50 Europe 50] .

1996-08-23 [3 3 Russian 3] officials , keen to cut capital flight , will adopt tight measures to cut barter deals in foreign trade to a minimum , a customs official said on Friday . " We have always been concerned about barter deals with other countries , viewing them as a disguised kind of capital flight from [4 4 Russia 4] , " Marina Volkova , deputy head of the currency department at the State Customs Committee , told [5 5 Reuters 5] . Volkova said last year goods had been exported under many [6 6 Russian 6] barter deals , with nothing imported in return . She said the cost of such unimported goods was $ 1.10 billion in 1995 . Barter deals were worth $ 4.9 billion last year , or about eight percent of all [7 7 Russian 7] exports estimated at $ 61.5 billion , she said . " The cost of exported goods is too often understated , so the actual share of barter deals in [8 8 Russian 8] exports and the amount of unimported goods may be even higher , " Volkova said . A few days ago [9 9 Russian 9] President [10 10 Boris Yeltsin 10] issued a decree on state regulation of foreign barter deals , and Volkova said this " could substantially improve the situation " . In line with the decree , which will come into force on November 1 , all [11 11 Russian 11] barter traders will be obliged to import goods worth the cost of their exports within 180 days . " If traders are late , they will have to pay fines worth the cost of their exported goods , " Volkova said . Understating the cost of exported goods could still be a loophole for barter dealers , but Volkova said the authorities are currently " tackling the technicalities of the issue " . Barter has always been a feature of the [12 12 Soviet Union 12] 's foreign trade , but [13 13 Yeltsin 13] 's decrees liberalising foreign trade in 1991-1992 has given barter a new impetus . A few years ago , barter deals accounted for up to 25-30 percent of [14 14 Russian 14] exports because " thousands (of) trade companies which popped up preferred barter in the absence of reliable [15 15 R ussian 15] banks and money transfer systems " , Volkova said . " Now many [16 16 Russian 16] banks are strong and can make various sorts of money transfers , while incompetent traders are being ousted by more experienced ones . But the current share of barter deals in [17 17 Russian 17] exports is still high , " she said . -- Dmitry Solovyov , Moscow Newsroom , +7095 941 8520

[12 12 Goldman 12] , whose [13 13 Oscars 13] were for " Butch Cassidy and the Sundance Kid " and " All the President 's Men " , earlier this summer criticised some of the season 's blockbusters . ON 2] 1996-08-23 [3 3 England 3] batsman [4 4 John Crawley 4] was forced to endure a frustrating delay of over three hours before resuming his quest for a maiden test century in the third test against [5 5 Pakistan 5] on Friday . Heavy overnight rain and morning drizzle ruled out any play before lunch on the second day but an improvement in the weather prompted the umpires to announce a 1415 local time (1315 [6 6 GMT 6]) start in the event of no further rain . [7 7 Crawley 7] , unbeaten on 94 overnight in an [8 8 England 8] total of 278 for six , was spotted strumming a guitar in the dressing-room as the [9 9 Oval 9] ground staff took centre stage .
There were several damp patches on the square and the outfield and it was still raining when the players took an early lunch at 1230 local time (1130 [10 10 GMT 10]) . When brighter weather finally arrived , the umpires announced a revised figure of 67 overs to be bowled with play extended to at least 1900 local time (1800 [11 11 GMT 11]) .

4 Italian 4] striker [5 5 Fabrizio Ravanelli 5] is to wear his team sponsor 's name on the inside of his shirt so it can be seen when he scores . Every time he finds the net , the grey-haired forward pulls his shirtfront over his head as he runs to salute the fans , and [6 6 Middlesbrough 6] 's sponsors want to cash in on the spectacle . " Having seen [7 7 Ravanelli 7] celebrate his goals ... we thought it would be fun to have (the name) on the inside of his shirt , " a spokesman for the sponsors said . " It will give the fans something else to look at besides his chest . " [8 8 Ravanelli 8] aggravated a foot injury in the 1-0 defeat at [9 9 Chelsea 9] on Wednesday and was given only an even chance of playing at [10 10 Nottingham Forest 10] on Saturday by his manager [11 11 Bryan Robson 11] .

TENNIS - [1 1 AUSTRALIANS 1] ADVANCE AT [2 2 CANADIAN OPEN 2]. [3 3 TORONTO 3] 1996-08-22 It was Australia Day at the $ 2 million [4 4 Canadian Open 4] on Thursday as three Aussies reached the quarter-finals with straight-set victories . Unseeded [5 5 Patrick Rafter 5] recorded the most noteworthy result as he upset sixth-seeded [6 6 American 6] [7 7 MaliVai Washington 7] 6-2 6-1 in just 50 minutes . [8 8 Todd Woodbridge 8] , who defeated [9 9 Canadian 9] [10 10 Daniel Nestor 10] 7-6 (7-2) 7-6 (7-4) , and [11 11 Mark Philippoussis 11] , a 6-3 6-4 winner over [12 12 Bohdan Ulihrach 12] of the [13 13 Czech Republic 13] , also advanced and will meet in Friday 's quarter-finals . Third-seeded [14 14 Wayne Ferreira 14] of [15 15 South Africa 15] defeated [16 16 Tim Henman 16] of [17 17 Britain 17] 6-4 6-4 after a three-hour evening rain delay and fifth-seeded [18 18 Thomas Enqvist 18] of [19 19 Sweden 19] won his third-round match , eliminating [20 20 Petr Korda 20] of the [21 21 Czech Republic 21] 6-3 6-4 . [22 22 Ferreira 22] and [23 23 Enqvist 23] play in a Friday night quarter-final . Two [24 24 Americans 24] , seventh seed [25 25 Todd Martin 25] and unseeded Alex O'Brien , will meet on Friday after winning matches on Thursday . [26 26 Martin 26] overcame [27 27 Cedric Pioline 27] of [28 28 France 28] 2-6 6-2 6-4 and O'Brien beat [29 29 Mikael Tillstrom 29] of [30 30 Sweden 30] 6-3 2-6 6-3 . " If you really look at the match , " said the 12th-ranked [31 31 Washington 31] after losing to the 70th-ranked [32 32 Rafter 32] , " I never really got a chance to play because he was serving big and getting in close to the net . " He was also able to handle my serve pretty easily because my (first) service percentage was only in the 40s . Put those two things together and you get a loss . " [33 33 Rafter 33] missed 10 weeks after wrist surgery earlier this year and the time away from tennis has given him a new perspective . " Before when I was on tour , I always felt I had to be in bed by 9:30 or 10 o'clock and I had to be up at a certain time , " [34 34 Rafter 34] said . " Now I can go to bed at at midnight or wake up at seven in the morning . I just do n't have as many set routines and it 's made me a happier person . " [35 35 Martin 35] was pleased with his victory over [36 36 Pioline 36] , his first in five meetings with the 11th-ranked Frenchman . " It 's always difficult to win a match when you lose the first set , especially against someone you have never beaten , " he said . " I got more aggressive in the second and third sets and the wind picked up and that also affected things because Cedric definitely went off a little bit . " The 26-year-old O'Brien , who won the ATP Tour stop in [37 37 New Haven 37] last week , has now won 18 of his last 20 matches , dating back to qualifying rounds in [38 38 Los Angeles 38] in late July . He ranks 76th after being 285th four weeks ago . " I feel I 'm hitting the ball well even though I 'm having more mental letdowns than I did last week , " O'Brien said . " But I 'm still competing well . " " I got a lot of first serves in , " said [39 39 Enqvist 39] about his victory over [40 40 Korda 40] . " I didn't miss that many shots and he was making the mistakes . " Still marvelling at an exciting 64-stroke rally he won in the last game of his second-round match against [41 41 Javier Sanchez 41] of [42 42 Spain 42] on Tuesday , [43 43 Enqvist 43] joked , " Today against [44 44 Petr 44] there were about 64 strokes in the whole match . It was mostly short points . "

TENNIS - INJURED [1 1 CHANDA RUBIN 1] OUT OF [2 2 U.S. OPEN 2] . [3 3 NEW YORK 3] 1996-08-23 Promising 10th-ranked [4 4 American 4] [5 5 Chanda Rubin 5] has pulled out of the [6 6 U.S. Open Tennis Championships 6] with a wrist injury , tournament officials announced . The 20-year-old [7 7 Rubin 7] , who was to be seeded 11th , is still suffering from tendinitis of the right wrist that has kept her sidelined in recent months . [8 8 Rubin 8] 's misfortune turned into a very lucky break for eighth-seeded [9 9 Olympic 9] champion [10 10 Lindsay Davenport 10] . [11 11 Davenport 11] had drawn one of the toughest first-round assignments of any of the seeded players in 17th-ranked [12 12 Karina Habsudova 12] of [13 13 Slovakia 13] . But as the highest-ranked non-seeded player in the tournament , Habsudova will be moved into [14 14 Rubin 14] 's slot in the draw , while [15 15 Davenport 15] will now get a qualifier in the first round , according to [16 16 U.S. Tennis Association 16] officials . [17 17 Rubin 17] is the third notable withdrawal from the women 's competition after 12th-ranked former [18 18 Australian Open 18] champion [19 19 Mary Pierce 19] and 20th-ranked [20 20 Wimbledon 20] semifinalist [21 21 Meredith McGrath 21] pulled out earlier this week with injuries . Men 's [22 22 Australian Open 22] champion [23 23 Boris Becker 23] will also miss the year 's final [24 24 Grand Slam 24] with a wrist injury .

ATHLETICS - [1 1 Masterkova 1] BREAKS SECOND WORLD RECORD IN 10 DAYS . Adrian Warner [2 2 BRUSSELS 2] 1996-08-23 [3 3 Russia 3] 's double [4 4 Olympic 4] champion [5 5 Svetlana Masterkova 5] smashed her second world record in just 10 days on Friday when she bettered the mark for the women 's 1,000 metres . After breaking the world record for the women 's mile in [6 6 Zurich 6] last Wednesday , the [7 7 Olympic 7] 800 and 1,500 metres champion clocked two minutes 28.98 seconds over 1,000 at the [8 8 Brussels 8] grand prix meeting . The Russian ate up the ground in a swift last lap to shave 0.36 seconds off the previous best of 2:29.34 set by [9 9 Mozambique 9] 's [10 10 Maria Mutola 10] in the same stadium in August last year . Former world 800 champion [11 11 Mutola 11] pushed [12 12 Masterkova 12] all the way , finishing second in 2:29.66 . But it was the Russian who picked up the bonus of $ 25,000 for the historic run in front of a capacity 40,000 crowd . [13 13 Masterkova 13] dominated the middle-distance races at the recent [14 14 Atlanta Games 1 4] following her return to competition this season after a three-year maternity break . In her first mile race at the richest meeting in [15 15 Zurich 15] last Wednesday , she slashed 3.05 seconds off the previous record . The record of four minutes , 12.56 seconds in [16 16 Zurich 16] earned [17 1 7 Masterkova 17] a bonus of $ 50,000 plus one kilo of gold . After Friday 's performance the Russian will have earned well over $ 100,000 in less than a fortnight , taking her appearance money into account . [18 18 Brussels 18] organisers had laid a new track for the meeting comparable to the surface at the [19 19 Atlanta Games 19] but put down on a softer surface . [20 20 Masterkova 20] clearly enjoyed it . [2 1 21 Mutola 21] looked threatening in the final 200 metres but the Russian found an extra gear to power home several strides ahead , pointing at the time on the clock with delight as she crossed the line .

ATHLETICS - [1 1 MITCHELL 1] UPSTAGES TRIO OF 1 OLYMPIC SPRINT CHAMPIONS . Adrian Warner [2 2 BRUSSELS 2] 1996-08-23 [3 3 American 3] [4 4 Dennis Mitchell 4] upstaged a trio of past and present [5 5 Olympic 5] 100 metres champions on Friday with a storming victory at the [6 6 Brussels 6] grand prix . Sporting his customary bright green outfit , the [7 7 U.S. 7] champion clocked 10.03 seconds despite damp conditions to take the scalp of [8 8 Canada 8] 's reigning [9 9 Olympic 9] champion [10 10 Donovan Bailey 10] , 1992 champion [11 11 Linford Christie 11] of [12 12 Britain 12] and [13 13 American 13] 1984 and 1988 champion [14 14 Carl Lewis 14] . [15 15 Mitchell 15] also beat world and [16 16 Olympic 16] champion [17 17 Bailey 17] at the most lucrative meeting in the sport in [18 18 Zurich 18] last week . The American , who finished fourth at the [19 19 Atlanta Games 19] , was fast out of his blocks and held off [20 20 Bailey 20] 's late burst in the final 20 metres before heading off for a lap of celebration . The Canadian was second in 10.09 with [21 21 Lewis 21] third in 10.10 , ahead of [22 22 Atlanta 22] bronze medallist [23 23 Antonio Boldon 23] who clocked 10.12 in fourth . [24 24 Christie 24] , competing in what is expected to be his last major international meeting , finished fifth in 10.14 . [25 25 Lewis 25] , making a rare appearance in [26 26 Europe 26] in a sprint race , left the track with a slight limp . American Olympic high hurdles champion [27 27 Allen Johnson 27] defied the wet conditions to produce a brilliant 12.92 seconds in the 110 metres race , just 0.01 outside the world record held by [28 28 Britain 28] 's [29 29 Colin Jackson 29] . [30 30 Johnson 30] ran the same time at the [31 31 U.S. 31] [32 32 Olympic 32] trials in [33 33 Atlanta 33] in June to become the second equal fastest hurdler of all time with [34 34 American 34] [35 35 Roger Kingdom 35] . He seemed to relish the new track at the [36 36 Brussels 36] meeting , dominating the race from start to finish with a slight wind at his back . [37 37 Jackson 37] , the only man to have run faster , could not live with his speed , taking second in 13.24 seconds . The rain was pelting down when the women 's high hurdlers stepped up for their 100 metres race . But [38 38 Sweden 38] 's [39 39 Olympic 39] high hurdles champion [40 40 Ludmila Engquist 40] , who crashed out of last week 's meeting in [41 41 Zurich 41] after hitting a hurdle , also kept her footing perfectly to win in a fast 12.60 seconds . [42 42 Olympic 42] silver medallist [43 43 Brigitte Bukovec 43] of [44 44 Slovenia 44] could finish only fifth in the race in 12.95 . [45 45 Jamaican 45] [46 46 Commonwealth 46] champion [47 47 Michelle Freeman 47] took second in 12.77 ahead of [48 48 Cuban 48] [49 49 Aliuskas Lopez 49] . The [50 50 Zurich 50] fall cost [51 51 Engquist 51] a shot at a jackpot of 20 one-kg gold bars which can be won by athletes who clinch their events at all of the Golden Four series in [52 52 Oslo 52] , [53 53 Zurich 53] , [54 54 Brussels 54] and [55 55 Berlin 55] . Seven athletes went into Friday 's penultimate meeting of the series with a chance of winning the prize and [56 56 American 56] men ' s 400 metres hurdles champion [57 57 Derrick Adkins 57] kept his hopes alive in the competition by winning his event in 47.93 . American Olympic champion [58 58 Gail Devers 58] clocked a swift 10.84 seconds on her way to victory in the women ' s 100 metres , the second fastest time of the season and 0.10 seconds faster than her winning time in [59 59 Atlanta 59] . [60 60 Jamaican 60] veteran [61 61 Merlene Ottey 61] , who beat [62 62 Devers 62] in [63 63 Zurich 63] after just missing out on the gold medal in [64 64 Atlanta 64] after a photo finish , had to settle for third place in 11.04 . [65 65 American 65] world champion [66 66 Gwen Torrence 66] , the bronze medallist in [67 67 Atlanta 67] , was second in 11.00 . It was a costly defeat for [68 68 Ottey 68] since it threw her out of the race for the Golden Four jackpot .

PRESS DIGEST - [1 1 ANGOLA 1] - AUG 23 . [2 2 LUANDA 2] 1996-08-23 These are the leading stories in the [3 3 Angolan 3 ] press on Friday . [4 4 Reuters 4] has not verified these stories and does not vouch for their accuracy . - - - - JORNAL DE ANGOLA - The [5 5 Angolan 5] Chief of State addressed a letter to [6 6 UN Security Council 6] proposing dates for the conclusion of the peace process in [7 7 Angola 7

] . He proposed definite dates , August 25 for return of [8 8 Unita 8] generals to the joint army , September 5 for the beginning of the formation of the Government of National Unity and Reconciliation . Until this date the free circulation of peoples and goods should be guaranteed , the government administration installed in all areas and the [9 9 Unita 9] deputies should occupy their places in the 1 National Assembly . The president justified his proposal by the delays verified in the peace process , including the fact that areas under [10 10 Unita 10] control or occupation have not been effectively demilitarised , where the [11 11 Unita 11] military forces have been substituted by their so-called police . - President Dos Santos proposes the establishment by [12 12 UN Security Council 12] of definitive and final timetable for the tasks and obligations under the [13 13 Lusa ka Agreement 13] and the sending of a mission of SC , as soon as possible , to supervise the execution of the agreement .

Soccer - [1 1 Arab 1] team breaks new ground in [2 2 Israel 2] . Ori Lewis TAIBE , [3 3 Israel 3] 1996-08-23 For the first time in [4 4 Israeli 4] history , an [5 5 Arab 5] team will take the field when the National League soccer season starts on Saturday . [6 6 Hapoel Taibe 6] fields four [7 7 Jewish 7] players and two foreign imports -- a [8 8 Pole 8] and a [9 9 R omanian 9] . The rest of the side is made up mainly of Moslem Arabs . The club , founded in 1961 , has a loyal following in [10 10 Taibe 10] , an [11 11 Arab 11] town of 28,000 in the heart of [12 12 Israel 12] . But away from their home ground , they face unfriendly crowds who taunt the players with racist abuse . " The very first thing we thought about after we knew we would be promoted was the game against [13 13 Betar Jerusalem 13] , " said Taibe supporter Karem Haj Yihye . Two weeks ago Taibe , coached by [14 14 Pole 14] Wojtek Lazarek , met Betar , a club closely associated with the right-wing [15 15 Likud 15] party , for the first time in a Cup match in [16 16 Jerusalem 16] . Chants from the crowd of " Death to the [17 17 Arabs 17] " , and bottle-throwing during the game marred the match which ended in a goalless draw . One Taibe supporter required hospital treatment for cuts and bruises after a stone struck his head as he was driving from the stadium . " We 're used to hearing the taunts of " Death to the [18 18 Arabs 18] ' , " said Sameh Haj Yihye , a [19 19 Taibe 19] resident who studies at [20 20 Jerusalem 20] 's [21 21 Hebrew University 21] . " But we know that these are only words , nobody has died from hearing them and it only makes us support our team more vehemently . " The dusty town of [22 22 Taibe 22] lacks the amenities of [23 23 J ewish 23] communities and many [24 24 Israeli Arabs 24] have long complained of state discrimination . " There are no parks or empty areas of land around here , so when we want to play a friendly game of soccer we all load up in the car and travel to [25 25 Tel Aviv 25] , " 60 km (36 miles) away , Sameh Haj Yihye said . The town 's ramshackle 2,500-seat ground is accessible only by two dirt tracks . " We plan to build a 10,000-seat stadium , but it may well be situated elsewhere , " said club chairman Abdul Rahman Haj Yihye . " We will discuss this with the mayor and hopefully a new or refurbished ground will be completed by the start of the new year . " In the meantime , Taibe will play all their heavily policed home matches at the [26 26 Jewish 26] coastal town of Netanya . " We are [27 27 Israelis 27] , there is no question about that , " said Karem Haj Yihye , a hotel waiter . " We do n't have any connection with the [28 28 Palestinians 28] , they live over there , " he said , pointing to the West Bank seven km (four miles) to the east . " We do n't feel our club represents Palestinian Arabs , " said club chairman Abdul Rahman . " We are trying to do all we can to run a professional outfit , we are pleased at any support we get , but do not go out looking to represent the whole [29 29 Arab 2 9] world . "

[1 1 Russians 1] , [2 2 Chechens 2] say observing [3 3 Grozny
3] ceasefire . [4 4 GROZNY 4] , [5 5 Russia 5] 1996-08-23
Rebel fighters and [6 6 Russian 6] soldiers said a ceasefire effective at noon (0800 [7 7 GMT 7]) on Friday was being generally observed , although scattered gunfire echoed through the [8 8 Chechen 8] capital [9 9 Grozny 9] . The [10 1 0 Russian 10] army said earlier it was preparing to withdraw from the rebel-dominated southern mountains of the region as part of the peace deal reached with separatists on Thursday .
" There has been some shooting from their side but it has been relatively quiet , " said fighter Aslan Shabazov , a bearded man wearing a white t-shirt and camouflage trousers .
Soon after he spoke another burst of gunfire rocked the courtyard where the rebels had set up their base and a captured [11 11 Russian 11] [12 12 T-72 12] tank roared out to investigate . The separatists , who swept into [13 13 Groz ny 13] on August 6 , still control large areas of the centre of town , and [14 14 Russian 14] soldiers are based at checkpoints on the approach roads . " The ceasefire is being observed , " said woman soldier Svetlana Goncharova , 35 , short dark hair poking out from under a peaked camouflage cap . A few helicopters flew overhead , firing off flares , but there was no shooting from the air . The truce , the latest of several , was agreed in talks on Thursday between [1 5 15 Russian 15] peacemaker [16 16 Alexander Lebed 16] and rebel chief-of-staff [17 17 Aslan Maskhadov 17] . The two also agreed to set up joint patrols in [18 18 Grozny 18] , but Goncharova said she was sceptical about whether this could work . " We have to try it , but I doubt if this is possible with the separatists , " she said .

[5 5 Croatian 5] Foreign Minister [6 6 Mate Granic 6] landed at [7 7 Belgrade 7] airport aboard a [8 8 Croatian 8] government jet on Friday morning for talks with his [9 9 Yugoslav 9] counterparts and a signing ceremony expected around noon (1000 [10 10 GMT 10]) . On Thursday the [11 11 Yugoslav 11] government endorsed the text of the agreement on normalising relations between the two countries , the [12 12 Yugoslav 12] news agency [13 13 Tanjug 13] said . " The government assessed the agreement as a crucial step to resolving the [14 14 Yugoslav 14] crisis , ensuring the restoration of peace in former [15 15 Yugoslavia 15] , " it said . Last-minute talks this week on the legal fine print finally cleared the way for a treaty based on mutual recognition within internationally recognised borders and the establishment of diplomatic relations , diplomats said . The pact ends five years of hostility after [16 16 Croatia 16] 's secession from federal [17 17 Yugoslavia 17] . [18 18 Western 18] powers regard diplomatic normalisation between [19 19 Croatia 19] and [20 20 Serbia 20] , twin pillars of the old multinational federal [21 21 Yugoslavia 21] , as a crucial step towards a lasting peace in the [22 22 Balkans 22]

[1 1 Jordan 1] expels [2 2 Iraqi 2] diplomat after bread riots . Rana Sabbagh [3 3 AMMAN 3] 1996-08-23 [4 4 Jordan 4] , which has blamed [5 5 Iraq 5] for bread riots last week , has asked an [6 6 Iraqi 6] diplomat to leave , official and diplomatic sources said on Friday . The main Friday prayers in southern [7 7 Jordan 7] that were the starting point for the riots a week ago passed peacefully under tight security imposed by the army with only brief demonstrations reported . Adel Ibrahim , the [8 8 Iraqi 8] embassy 's press attache , was asked to leave " because he was carrying out duties incompatible with diplomatic norms " , one source told [9 9 Reuters 9] , implying he was accused of spying . Ibrahim told [10 10 Reuters 10] by telephone from his embassy office in [11 11 Amman 11] that he " had not been notified " of any explosion order . The government declined official comment . Ibrahim 's assistant , Hussein Khalaf , was expelled earlier this year for similar reasons amid rising tension in bilateral ties after King [12 12 Hussein 12] began calling for change in [13 13 Baghdad 13] following top [14 14 Iraqi 14] defections in August 1995 . [15 15 Iraq 15] retaliated then by expelling a junior administrator working in the [16 16 Jordanian 16] embassy in [17 17 Baghdad 17] but has continued its policy of trying to avoid public conflicts with [18 18 Jordan 18] -- its only secure route to the rest of the world . [19 19 Jordan 19] has accused [20 20 Iraq 20] and a local pro-Baghdad party for the country 's worst unrest in seven years which erupted after it almost doubled the prices of bread last week under radical economic reforms agreed with the [21 21 International Monetary Fund 21] . In [2 22 Karak 22] , where two days of riots flared last Friday , a few hundred young men lingered outside Omari mosque on leaving , shouting slogans for about 15 minutes . " Disperse , abstain from forming groups and help maintain order , " army officers , who has enforced a loose curfew since the riots , told the crowd through loudspeakers . The men shouted " [23 23 Allahu 23] Akbar " ([24 24 God 24] is Greatest) as a former [25 25 Islamist 25] deputy , Ahmed Kafawin , told soldiers the crowd would not cause trouble . He had earlier mounted the mosque 's pulpit to demand release of detainees , an end to raids on houses and the cancelling of the bread price rises . Armoured cars had patrolled streets in [26 26 Karak 26] , traditional bastion of communist ideology and [27 27 Baath 27] socialism that swept the region in the 1950s , and guarded entrances to the hill-top city famed for its Crusader castle before the prayers . There was also heavy security in the crowded centre of [28 28 Amman 28] , where smaller clashes had erupted last Saturday , but Friday prayers at the main mosque ended quietly as police in full riot gear looked on . The Jordanian Arab Socialist Baath Party , which has one deputy in the 80-seat lower house of parliament , has denied involvement in unrest which it blamed on government policies and rising economic hardship . Government attempts to link the rioting to foreign influence has been treated with derision by those in the streets who blame the protests on severe economic hardships .

fighting and to attend U.S.-mediated peace talks next month , the [5 5 State Department 5] said . Spokesman Glyn Davies said in a statement that the agreement followed direct [6 6 U.

Davies said the two leaders " have agreed to cease the fighting (and) return their forces to the positions held before the current fighting began " on August 17 . He did not give a specific time for the ceasefire but said the [13 13 United States 13] looked forward to " immediate implementation " . The two party leaders had also agreed to meet [14 14 U.S. 14] Assistant Secretary for [15 15 Near Eastern 15] Affairs [16 16 Robert Pelletreau 16] in September " to solidify the cease-fire and to pursue reconciliation " , Davies said . His statement gave no venue or precise date for the meeting . The [17 17 United States 17] has already called on the [2 2 Kurdish 2] factions to hold peace talks in [18 18 London 18] . The [19 19 KDP 19] said Thursday night it had repelled an attack by thousands of [20 20 PUK 20] fighters , killing , wounding or capturing about 400 opposing guerrillas . The fighting has threatened a U.S.-led peace plan to unite the mountainous [21 21 Kurdish 21] region in northern [22 22 Iraq 22] against President [23 23 Saddam Hussein 23] .

One teen left dead by attack on [1 1 U.S. 1] slumber party .
[2 2 CHESAPEAKE 2] , Va . 1996-08-23 A knife-wielding neighbour apparently intent on sexual assault invaded a teenage slumber party on Friday , killing one girl and wounding three others , police said . At about 4 a.m. EDT (0800 [3 3 GMT 3]) , a group of teenaged girls were having the overnight party in the Camelot subdivision of this eastern [4 4 Virginia 4] city , when a man entered the house , wielding a knife , threatening to sexually assault the girls . Detective Richard Black of the Chesapeake Police Department , said a neighbour , Curtis Lee White II , 19 , was arrested in the attack , but had not been charged by late morning on Friday . There were apparently no adults at the party as the father of the family who lived in the house was out of town and the mother died more than a year ago , Black said . The detective said details were sketchy , but two of the teenagers were reportedly downstairs watching television when White allegedly entered the house and told the girls to take off their clothes . He said a male teenager sleeping upstairs reportedly heard the commotion and came downstairs and confronted White , who allegedly stabbed him more than once . The other teenagers also confronted the assailant and three girls , all under 18 , were stabbed , one fatally . " At least two of them were sexually molested , " Black said . He said all of the wounded teenagers were taken to a hospital but none of the injuries were considered life-threatening . Police said the girl who died was identified as Michelle Harper . Her age was not given .

[1 1 Nepal 1] man held for keeping child servant in chains .

[2 2 KATHMANDU 2] 1996-08-23 [3 3 Nepali 3] police said on Friday they arrested a man who allegedly kept a child servant bound in chains so that he would not run away when his employer was out to work . Madhusudan Munakarmi was arrested on Thursday after his neighbours informed police about the plight of 12-year old Dhiraj K.C. , who told police his employer used to tie him up with iron chains and locks concealed under his clothes . The neighbours in [4 4 Kathmandu 4] called the police when they saw Dheeraj , employed by the man for the past nine months , limping because of the chains . " I feared he would flee from work or steal my belongings , " the Kathmandu Post newspaper quoted Munakarmi as saying after his arrest . If convicted , he faces a maximum of three years in jail under [5 5 Nepal 5] 's child protection laws .

OPTIONS - Euro debt vols seen regrouping after fall . [1 1 LO NDON 1] 1996-08-23 Implied volatility of [2 2 European 2] bond and interest rate options should stabilise around current levels until early next week after falling before and after this week 's German-led cut in interest rates , traders said . " Volatility has come off a lot . We 're looking for it to stabilise now , " said one Euromark options trader at a [3 3 U.S. 3] bank . A trader at a [4 4 Japanese 4] bank said Euromark volatility now stood at 14.00 for September contract , 16.75 for December , 19.50 for March and 21.25 for June . This compared with midweek levels , before the welter of interest rate cuts , of 18.50 for September , 20.00 for December , 22.00 for March and 23.5 for June , he said . At 1347 [5 5 GMT 5] , December Euromark futures were trading at 96.78 , two basis points down on the day . He said the sell-off in June vols might have been overdone , which could offer value at current levels . He said caps and floors would be well bid after the round of interest rate cuts due to the fact these rates should stay low at the short end . The size of the [6 6 Bundesbank 6] 's repo rate cut , to 3.00 percent from 3.30 percent , took markets by surprise . " Volatility has a bid to it -- longer-dated volatility more than short-dated because the event people were buying for has passed and now perhaps people will sell some short dated vol and buy some long dated vol , " he said . " Long dated volatility has been low this year , so it is still at levels which are not historically high . " It is not a dangerous level to own vol. You are not going to lose a lot and you could make quite a bit . " He said volatility levels should be stable until markets reassess the situation after a long weekend in [7 7 Britain 7] . Paribas Capital Markets OTC options specialist Robert Coughlan said that if volatility continued lower for the rest of Friday in over-the-counter 10-year Bunds , it should be higher next Tuesday . He said the absence on holiday of many market makers was a main factor behind falls this week in volatility in high-yielding markets such as [8 8 Italy 8] , [9 9 Spain 9] and [10 10 Sweden 10] . Coughlan said the market had more downside than upside potential , but a fall was not likely to be of significant size . " I recommend people sell strangles in a number of markets -- in [11 11 Germany 11] and [12 12 France 12] in particular . " With high-yielding markets [13 13 Italy 13] will be a lot more vulnerable in September on economic and political fronts , so I would use current the low level of vol to buy options . " So sell options on Bunds and [14 14 France 14] to enhance yield and buy options on [15 15 Italy 15] , " Coughlan said .. -- Stephen Nisbet , International Bonds +44 171 542 6320

Legal challenge to [1 1 Diana 1] delayed by jail term . [2 2 LONDON 2] 1996-08-23 A [3 3 British 3] photographer branded a stalker by Princess [4 4 Diana 4] has been forced to postpone a legal challenge to a ban on approaching her because he 's been jailed for criminal damage , his lawyer said on Friday . Martin Stenning started a 12-week jail sentence on Thursday just as he was preparing to contest an injunction obtained by [5 5 Diana 5] banning him from coming within 300 metres (yards) of her . " We were in the process of preparing a detailed affidavit responding to the Princess 's affidavit and expected to go to court in the next couple of weeks , " said Stenning 's lawyer , Benedict Birnberg . " But everything has been put on ice now . " Birnberg told [6 6 Reuters 6] that the challenge to the injunction would be delayed until Stenning was released . Stenning threw a brick through the window of a van in February after an argument with a driver when he was working as a motorcycle dispatch rider . Stenning , who has previous convictions , is expected to appeal against the sentence . Magistrates also ordered him to pay compensation of 182 pounds ($ 282) . The freelance photographer was branded a stalker by [7 7 Diana 7] , whose divorce from heir-to-the-throne Prince [8 8 Charles 8] is due to become final next week , after persistently trailing her on his motorcycle . In an affidavit , the princess said that in chasing her Stenning had got so close that he twice smashed into her car and pushed her when she tried to remove the film from his camera . Stenning has rejected [9 9 Diana 9] 's claims and said he was being made a scapegoat to scare off press photographers .

Kurd rebels to free Turkish soldier prisoners . [1 1 DOHUK 1] , [2 2 Iraq 2] 1996-08-23 Turkish Kurd guerrillas said on Friday they would free seven Turkish soldiers they hold in northern [3 3 Iraq 3] under a tentative [4 4 Islamist 4] peace bid . " ...For the sake of safety we are asking for their family members or the authorities to come and pick them up , " [5 5 Kurdistan Workers Party 5] ([6 6 PKK 6]) central committee member Riza Altun told journalists near the [7 7 Iraqi 7] city of [8 8 Dohuk 8] . [9 9 PKK 9] guerrillas would accompany the soldiers , captured last spring in one of Turkey 's frequent cross-border drives , until they could be handed over , he said . Their release has been negotiated by [10 10 Islamist 10] writer Ismail Nacar as part of a wider effort , partly backed by Prime Minister [11 11 Necmettin Erbakan 11] , to find a political solution to Turkey 's [12 12 Kurdish 12] problem . [13 13 Erbakan 13] has encouraged Nacar 's bid but has ruled out direct talks with the rebels . The [14 14 PKK 14] often uses bases in northern [15 15 Iraq 15] in its fight for autonomy or independence in southeast Turkey . More than 20,000 people have died in 12 years of fighting between the guerrillas and Turkish forces .

[1 1 Zenith 1] lands $ 1 billion contract , plans $ 100 million plant . Susan Nadeau [2 2 CHICAGO 2] 1996-08-22 A consortium of telephone companies and The Walt Disney Co . said Thursday it had signed a $ 1 billion contract with [3 3 Zenith 3] to make digital television set-top boxes for its home entertainment service . The announcement of the contract for 3 million set-top boxes gave new hope to [4 4 Zenith 4] , which has struggled with years of losses . " This really indicates we 're back in the business , " William Luehrs , president of the Glenview , Ill.-based company 's Networks Services Division , said in a telephone interview . " Anytime somebody gets the opportunity to enter the next era with such a big bang has got to be seen as a strong message to the industry . " Following the announcement , [5 5 Zenith 5] 's stock soared $ 5.50 to $ 16.875 on the [6 6 New York Stock Exchange 6] . The consortium , called Americast , said the contract was part of its strategy to develop and market the next generation in home entertainment . In addition to [7 7 Disney 7] , Americast 's partners are phone companies Ameritech Corp. , 1 BellSouth Corp. , GTE Corp. and SBC Communications . Americast said 2 Southern New England Telecommunications Corp. has signed a letter of intent to join the group , which plans to provide a home entertainment service similar to cable television . [8 8 Zenith 8] also said it planned to build a new $ 100 million plant in [9 9 Woodridge 9] , [10 10 Ill 10] . , to make picture tubes for 32- and 35-inch screen TV sets . The company currently buys the tubes from competitors . The new plant , which is dependent on obtaining financing , will create about 280 new jobs , [11 11 Zenith 11] said . The contract calls for production of the set-top boxes over five years . Luehrs said manufacturing will begin and revenue will start to roll in during the first half of next year . The boxes will be made on a build-to-order basis . [12 12 Zenith 12] will convert its [13 13 Chihuahua 13] , [14 14 Mexico 14] , analogue set-top box plant to manufacture the digital boxes . Luehrs declined to say when the operation was expected to be profitable . Americast will provide the boxes to subscribers as part of the service . Its service is being introduced in selected markets across the [15 15 United States 15] . Luehrs said digital technology in set-top boxes is only the beginning and said the technology will eventually show up in retail consumer electronics . " We 'll build a lot of these devices into television sets , for digital television , " he said . " Although that is not where this particular contract is headed , the fact that there is a strong [16 16 Zenith 16] presence will pay us dividends in the future . " [17 17 Zenith 17] has been plagued by generally soft conditions in the colour television industry , reporting full-year losses since 1989 . Last month , it reported a second-quarter loss of $ 33.2 million , or 51 cents a share , vs. a loss of $ 45.3 million , or 97 cents a share , a year earlier . Last November , South Korea-based LG Electronics Inc. bought a majority stake in [18 18 Zenith 18] . Robert Gutenstein , an analyst for Kalf , Voorhis & Co . , said the contract was " not unique , but it 's big . " "

Digital is coming , it 's economic and the question is what will make the consumer happy and at what price . "

[1 1 Natural Law Party 1] says it can meditate problems away . [2 2 WASHINGTON 2] 1996-08-22 From the people who brought you hundreds of " yogic fliers " who claimed to defy nature by levitating comes The Natural Law Party , a minor political party that nominated a presidential candidate on Thursday . At a hotel convention here , the party associated with the [3 3 Transcendental Meditation 3] ( TM ) movement named physicist [4 4 John Hagelin 4] as its presidential nominee for the Nov. 5 election . The party is running on a platform claiming it can ward off problems before they occur through techniques such as mass meditation that would reduce stress , crime , terrorism and even wars . " Social stress can be reduced and problems such as crime and violence will automatically decrease , " said a party paper . Many party members are practitioners of TM , which involves meditating to a repeated word or phrase , called a mantra . Some advanced TM followers contend they can actually mediate to such a point that they fly . But in a demonstration of " yogic flying " several years ago , critics said the people were merely bouncing off the ground from a sitting position .

Huge [1 1 Windows 95 1] sales fail to meet expectations . Martin Wolk [2 2 SEATTLE 2] 1996-08-22 A year after its massively publicized introduction , [3 3 Microsoft Corp. 3] 's [4 4 Windows 95 4] computer operating system has fallen short of the most optimistic expectations for the software giant and the industry . Even though more than 40 million copies of [5 5 Windows 95 5] have been sold , making it the fastest-selling new software ever , it would have been impossible for any product to live up to the unprecedented hype of the Aug. 24 , 1995 launch , when stores around the world opened at midnight to greet long lines of customers . The [6 6 Redmond 6] , Wash.-based company spent tens of millions of dollars promoting the product with stunts that included buying the entire print run of the [7 7 Times of London 7] and lighting [8 8 New York 8] 's [9 9 Empire State 9] building in a [10 10 Windows 10] color scheme . But the product , delivered eight months late , has fallen short of its sales potential in part because [11 11 Microsoft 11] delivered a mixed message to business customers , analysts said . " It did n't do as well as it could have , " said [12 1 2 Rob Enderle 12] , an analyst with Giga Information Group . Scores of software and hardware companies that had hoped for a big boost in sales were disappointed when only a brief spike materialized . " People who were expecting major coat-tails were somewhat disappointed , " said Scott Winkler , an analyst with [13 13 Gartner Group 13] . " It 's not as though it has n't had an impact , " he said . " It just has n't had the huge earth-shattering impact some people were looking for . " Symantec Corp. , which had been among the most bullish of software companies at the time of the [14 14 Windows 95 14] launch , ended up posting disappointing financial results when retail sales of the operating system fell short of its projections . Touchstone Software Corp. had to pay $ 1.3 million in cash and stock to settle a shareholders lawsuit brought after the company 's sales failed to meet expectations tied to the [15 15 Windows 95 15] launch . Many software developers apparently saw their crucial holiday season sales suffer last year because store shelves were jammed with blue-and-white boxes of [16 16 Windows 95 16] , resulting in a shortage of space for seasonal products , said Ann Stephens , president of PC Data Inc . To be sure , sales of [17 17 Windows 95 17] and the accompanying Office 95 upgrade drove [18 18 Microsoft 18] sales up 46 percent last year to a record $ 8.67 billion and cemented the company 's status as the industry 's dominant company . [19 19 Microsoft 19] executives say they are thrilled with the sales figures , and industry analysts estimate that by sometime next year , the installed base of [20 20 Windows 95 20] will surpass that of the older version of [21 21 Windows 21] , now used on about 100 million computers worldwide . But [22 22 Enderle 22] said the figure could have been even higher if [23 23 Microsoft 23] had done a better job of handling the huge demand for technical support from customers who were frustrated trying to install the system . He and other analysts said corporate [24 24 America 24] adopted a go-slow approach because [25 25 Microsoft 25] already was promoting the new version of its high-end [26 26 Windows NT 26] operating system , expected to be available in stores in the next several weeks . " [27 27 Microsoft 27] sent a lot of signals that NT was going to be the answer , " Winkler said . " Many people began to believe that [28 28 Windows 95 28] was being downplayed . " But now that [29 29 Windows NT 4.0 29] has been launched , Winkler and others believe only a relatively small proportion of corporate users will elect to pay the added software and hardware costs needed to use it instead of [30 30 Windows 95 30] . " [31 31 Windows 95 31] is going to do great , " he said . " The mistake people made was in thinking it was going to be a fast , sweeping change rather than a slow , building change . "

[1 1 U.S. 1] says still committed to [2 2 Cuba 2] migration pacts . [3 3 WASHINGTON 3] 1996-08-22 The [4 4 United States 4] said on Thursday it remained committed to migration accords with [5 5 Cuba 5] and would continue to repatriate intercepted [6 6 Cuban 6] migrants who attempted to enter [7 7 U.S. 7] territory illegally . A [8 8 State Department 8] statement appeared in part a response to [9 9 Cuban 9] complaints that 1 Washington was jeopardising the accords by failing to return some of the Cubans involved in recent illegal migration incidents . " The [10 10 United States 10] reiterates its full commitment to the implementation " of the accords signed by the two countries in 1994 and 1995 , said the statement by spokesman Glyn Davies . " The [11 11 United States 11] will continue to return [12 12 Cuban 12] migrants intercepted at sea who seek to enter the [13 13 United States 13] or the Guantanamo Naval Base illegally , " it said . 2 Washington would also take " prompt and effective law enforcement action " against alien smuggling and hijackings from [14 14 Cuba 14] , it added . Davies told reporters the statement would be distributed in the [15 15 Cuban 15] exile community in [16 16 Miami 16] " to remind everyone of the importance of abiding by the accords and avoiding dangerous attempts to cross the straits " from [17 17 Cuba 17] to Florida . Havana 's complaints centred on an incident in which a boatload of emigrants capsized in the [18 18 Florida Straits 18] last week and two recent aircraft hijackings from [19 19 Cuba 19] . Sixteen of those picked up from the boat were returned to [20 20 Cuba 20] but eight were taken to the [21 21 United States 21] and three to Guantanamo Bay , a [22 22 U.S. 22] base on [23 23 Cuba 23] , until they emigrated to another nation . The most recent hijacking , last Friday , involved three hijackers and the pilot of a small aircraft . Davies said on Tuesday the pilot could soon return to [24 24 Cuba 24] but [25 25 U.S. 25] authorities planned to try the hijackers . In an incident on July 7 , a [26 26 Cuban 26] [27 27 interior ministry 27] official hijacked a commercial plane and sought asylum at Guantanamo Bay . Davies said he knew of no plans to return the man to [28 28 Cuba 28] .

Wis . says is first state to apply for new welfare . [1 1 CH ICAGO 1] 1996-08-22 In keeping with its pioneering image in the area of welfare , [2 2 Wisconsin 2] was the first state to submit an administrative plan under the nation 's new welfare law , Gov . [3 3 Tommy Thompson 3] said Thursday . According to a new release from the governor , [4 4 Wisconsin 4] submitted a plan to the U.S. Department of Health and Human Services for administration of the new block grant system for welfare just minutes after President [5 5 Bill Clinton 5] signed the measure into law Thursday . " As the nation 's leader in welfare reform , [6 6 Wisconsin 6] is far ahead of the curve and ready to go under this new system , " [7 7 Thompson 7] said . Still , the governor said the new law does not go as far as the state 's own welfare reform program , dubbed W-2 . He said that despite the new law , [8 8 Wisconsin 8] will still require federal waivers allowing the working poor to acquire health care coverage from the state , a 60-day residency requirement for participation in the welfare program , and child support collections to go directly to custodial parents . The nation 's new welfare reform law limits eligibility , gives states more power and ends direct federal aid for poor children . -- Karen Pierog , 312-408-8647

State , federal agents probe [1 1 Arkansas 1] church fires .
Steve Barnes [2 2 LITTLE ROCK 2] , Ark . 1996-08-22 State and federal agents on Thursday sifted through the rubble of two predominantly black [3 3 Arkansas 3] churches that burned within minutes of one another late Tuesday and early Wednesday . Both churches were in the [4 4 Mississippi 4] delta region of [5 5 Arkansas 5] , about 90 miles (145 kms) southeast of [6 6 Little Rock 6] , and were located within three miles of one another . " We 're investigating with the idea that both fires may be arson , but that has n't been conclusively established , " said Wayne Jordan , a spokesman for the [7 7 Arkansas State Police 7] . Agents of the [8 8 F. B.I. 8] and the Bureau of Alcohol , Tobacco and Firearms were also at the scene , Jordan said . Mount Zion Missionary Baptist Church and St. Matthews Missionary Baptist Church were both frame structures , each near Turner , [9 9 Arkansas 9] , a small community surrounded by cotton and soybean fields . " This is rural [10 10 Arkansas 10] . I 'm surprised anyone could even find us out here , " said Fannie Johnson , a member of St. Matthew 's , who said she believed arson was to blame . Others connected with the two churches said they shared that suspicion , although all said they knew of no motive and no racial tension in the area . " It 's sad someone would have that kind of spite in their heart , " said Rev. Jerome Turner , pastor of Mount Zion Missionary Baptist Church . [11 11 Arkansas 11] has been spared the loss of predominantly black churches to arson , a wave that has claimed an estimated 30 houses of worship across the south in the past several months . A black church near [12 12 Camden 12] , [13 13 Arkansas 13] , about 100 miles (161 kms) south of [14 14 Little Rock 14] , burned in July , but federal agents have not determined the cause .

Analysts hold Dutch PTT estimates . [1 1 AMSTERDAM 1]
1996-08-23 [2 2 Dutch 2] post and telecoms group Koninklijke PTT Nederland NV 's (Dutch PTT) first half results came marginally below most analysts ' forecasts , giving scant grounds to adjust full year estimates , analysts said on Friday . PTT earlier announced an 8.5 percent rise in net profit for the first six months of 1996 to 1.209 billion guilders , a hair 's breadth below the 1.210-1.236 billion forecast range . " They were pretty much in line with our estimate of 1.210 billion , " said Peter Roe , at [3 3 Paribas 3] in [4 4 London 4] . " As we expected volume growth was quite good ... there 's really no reason to change our forecast and our largely positive view on the stock . " " Coming just a million guilders under the forecast range is n't overwhelmingly surprising , " said [5 5 ING 5] analyst Steven Vrolijk , who is continuing to look for a nine to 10 percent rise in 1996 earnings . " They 've got a very sound domestic business which is doing very well , we remain positive on the stock , " said Roe . " We think it 's a solid performer in the [6 6 Dutch 6] market . " Roe said he was sticking by his forecast of a 2.45 billion guilder net for 1996 . Dutch PTT earlier on Friday repeated a forecast it would improve on 1995 's 2.26 billion guilder net profit for the whole year of 1996 . By 1403 [7 7 GMT 7] the shares were down 1.70 guilders to 61.00 guilders , falling in a weaker [8

Sea lion paparazzi to keep tabs on whales . [1 1 LONDON 1] 1996-08-22 [2 2 U.S. 2] marine biologists have trained a pair of sea lions to tag and photograph elusive whales as they cruise through the Pacific depths , [3 3 New Scientist 3] magazine reported on Thursday . James Harvey and Jennifer Hurley of the [4 4 Moss Landing Marine Laboratories 4] in [5 5 California 5] say their sea lions , natural companions of many species of whale , can go where no man or woman has ever gone before . " Any diver knows that when a whale gets going you ca n't keep up , " Harvey told the magazine . " That is why we know only about five percent of what whales do . " The sea lions -- 17-year-old Beaver and nine-year-old Sake -- have undergone six years of training for their mission . Beaver once worked for the [6 6 U.S. Navy 6] and Sake is an amusement park veteran . Harvey said they could accurately tag whales with a radio transmitter , and could also swim all the way around one of the giant mammals , filming it with a video camera . Their first assignment , later this year , will be documenting humpback whale migration off [7 7 Monterey 7] , [8 8 California 8] . The article did not spell out exactly how the sea lions manage to tag the whales but said in training they were taught to stick a radio transmitter on to a plastic model of a whale using suction cups .

RTRS - Australia Senate jeopardises rate cut - [1 1 Howard 1]

. [2 2 CANBERRA 2] 1996-08-23 [3 3 Australian 3] Prime Minister [4 4 John Howard 4] said the possibility of lower interest rates was being jeopardised by Parliament 's upper house where opposition parties planned to scrutinise the 1996/97 budget . " Every time the Senate hacks away at the budget , they hack away at the lower interest rate environment , " [5 5 Howard 5] told reporters on Thursday night after attending a [6 6 Liberal Party 6] function . Senior ministers have repeatedly warned since the fiscally-tight budget was handed down on Tuesday night that the chance of lower official rates could be hampered in the Senate . The budget contained sharp spending cuts in areas such as the labour market to reduce the deficit to about A$ 5.6 billion . The conservative government 's plan for reform of the industrial relations environment and to partially sell [7 7 Telstra 7] has also been opposed by parties in the Senate such as the [8 8 Greens 8] and [9 9 Australian Democrats 9] as well as the official opposition , the [10 10 Labor Party 10] . Official cash rates were last cut on July 31 to 7.0 percent . -- Sydney Newsroom 61-2 373-1800

that their collection of 10,000 rocks , gathered from across

[1 1 S. Korean 1] won ends up on dollar position unwinding .
[2 2 SEOUL 2] 1996-08-23 The won rose against the dollar on Friday as banks unwound dollar positions on the belief that the won would continue to strengthen , dealers said . The won closed at 818.10 , after opening at 819.10 . It ranged from 817.60 to 819.30 . " The dollar is overbought at the moment ,
" said a western bank dealer . " The central bank 's insistent intervention just above the 820 level convinced players that it is serious about supporting the won . So some foreign banks began unwinding their dollar positions . "

[1 1 China 1] copper stocks owned by state reserve - trade .
Lynne O'Donnell [2 2 HONG KONG 2] 1996-08-23 Up to 100,000 tonnes of copper held in [3 3 Shanghai 3] bonded warehouses , confounding the world market as to its source and ultimate fate , probably belongs to [4 4 China 4] 's strategic state reserve , industry sources said on Friday . Around 40,000 tonnes of the copper have already been moved to warehouses near the northern port of [5 5 Yingkou 5] , where some of the strategic stockpile was stored , they said . Just who owns the copper is a question that has kept traders and industry analysts guessing since the metal was channelled into [6 6 Sh anghai 6] by the China National Nonferrous Metals Import and Export Corp (CNIEC) in June and July . It was unclear whether or not the 40,000 tonnes had cleared customs -- which would provide some concrete indication that the strategic reserve , administered directly by the central government 's State Planning Commission , owned the copper . Traders have said the reserve could negotiate concessions on duties -- three percent import tax and 17 percent value-added tax -- that made the copper prohibitively expensive otherwise . But one source , the head of a [7 7 Hong Kong 7] trading house , said it made no difference if the copper was customs cleared or not . " If they spend all this money moving the copper to [ 8 8 Yingkou 8] , it will be sitting there for years , " he said . " Once it arrives in [9 9 Yingkou 9] , it is subject to monitoring by the State Planning Commission , which has to give permission for any more movement ; it is out of the hands of traders , " he said . Mystery has surrounded the [10 10 Shanghai 10] stockpile in recent months , with traders unsure not only of who owns it , but of its exact size and what its owner planned to do with it . Trading sources generally agreed it would be cost-effective to take the copper back into a depleted central reserve as it had already served its purpose in taking advantage of long-term backwardation on the [11 11 London Metal Exchange 11] (LME) . A backwardation occurs when the spot price of a metal is higher than the forward price . CNIEC lent around 85,000 tonnes of copper onto the LME between April and June 1995 on behalf of the state reserve , running the state stockpile down to 115,000 tonnes from 200,000 tonnes previously . Traders in [12 12 Asia 12] said CNIEC could well have lent it to the market at around [13 13 US$ 13] 2,700 a tonne , and then paid somewhere between $ 2,200 and $ 2,400 a tonne when it started taking the metal back earlier this year . This would have cleared CNIEC a healthy profit , which could then have been used to finance storage and other costs . Word that CNIEC had offered the copper to [14 14 European 14] trading houses in a series of secret meetings unnerved an already jittery market . Industry analysts Bloomsbury Minerals Economics (BME) said on Wednesday the motivation of the owners of the 85,000 tonnes , " whoever they are , is the most important short-term fundamental " in an already tight world market . BME repeated in its latest review rumours of involvement by Sumitomo Corp , with CNIEC said to be helping the [15 15 Japanese 15] trader unload its copper positions after it revealed in June losses of $ 1.8 billion in a decade of unauthorised deals . [16 16 Sumitomo 16] and CNIEC have made no comments on the talk and [17 17 Chinese 17] traders said they know nothing of such an arrangement . Traders in [18 18 Shanghai 18] said on Thursday they were unaware of movements out of the [19 19 Shanghai 19] bonded warehouses . They reported more arrivals that were probably spot purchases . They also expressed concern that the tonnage in bonded warehouses would move onto the domestic market . But these concerns were irrelevant , a [20 20 Singapore 20] trader said , despite a forecast that domestic [21 21 Chinese 21] copper demand could hit one million tonnes this year . As with many commodities , " there is a desire (by the [22 22 Chinese 22] government) to keep a stockpile of the metal , " he said . " You do n't keep it to help industry , you keep it in case of emergency . " -- [23 23 Hong Kong 23] newsroom (852) 2843-6470 latest prospect , [8 8 Marcus Gronholm 8] , also in a [9 9 To

CRICKET - [1 1 ESSEX 1] POISED TO STEP UP TITLE CHALLENGE . [2 2 LONDON 2] 1996-08-24 [3 3 Essex 3] are set to step up their [4 4 English 4] county championship challenge with a fifth consecutive victory after new-ball pair [5 5 Neil Williams 5] and [6 6 Mark Ilott 6] sent [7 7 Gloucestershire 7] reeling on Saturday . Williams seized two wickets in two deliveries and left-armer [8 8 Ilott 8] also captured two as [9 9 Gloucestershire 9] , 252 behind on first innings , slumped to 27 for four at the close on the third day of the four-day game at [10 10 Colchester 10] . [11 11 Essex 11] , who started the current round of matches in fifth place 20 points behind leaders [12 12 Derbyshire 12] with a game in hand , could go top if they complete victory on Monday 's last day and other results favour them . Williams thrust [13 1 3 Essex 13] on course for success by dispatching [14 14 Matt Windous 14] and [15 15 Andrew Symonds 15] in his second over , before [16 16 Ilott 16] removed [17 17 Dominic Hewson 17] and [18 18 Tim Hancock 18] to reduce [19 19 Gloucestershire 19] to 17 for four at one stage . The visitors had started the day optimistically by sending back former [20 20 England 20] captain [21 21 Graham Gooch 21] when he added just six to his overnight 105 , but [22 22 Essex 22] went on to make 532 for eight before declaring . Captain [23 23 Paul Prichard 23] plundered 88 from 73 deliveries , hitting 15 fours and one six . Second-placed [24 24 Kent 24] were frustrated by rain which prevented any play at [25 25 Cardiff 25] , where they have reached 255 for three in their first innings against [26 26 Glamorgan 26] , while third-placed [27 27 Surrey 27] are facing an uphill task against [28 28 Nottinghamshire 28] . [29 29 Surrey 29] slipped to 88 for four in reply to [30 30 Notts 30] ' commanding first innings of 446 for nine declared at [31 31 Trent Bridge 31] , before [32 32 Alistair Brown 32] struck a 55-ball half-century . [33 33 Brown 33] 's 56 not out , containing eight fours and three sixes , lifted [34 34 Surrey 34] to 128 for four on a rain-curtailed day . Fourth-placed [35 35 Leicestershire 35] had [36 36 Hampshire 36] on the ropes at [37 37 Leicester 37] before rain intervened . Pace trio [38 38 David Millns 38] (2-24) , [39 39 Gordon Parsons 39] (3-20) and [40 40 Vince Wells 40] (2-19) had [41 41 Hampshire 41] reeling at 81 for seven in reply to the home county 's first innings of 353 . [42 42 Yorkshire 42] rekindled their title hopes after three successive defeats by taking the upper hand against arch-rivals [43 43 Lancashire 43] at [4 4 44 Old Trafford 44]. Facing [45 45 Yorkshire 45]'s 529 for eight declared, [46 46 Lancashire 46] were forced to follow on 206 behind after being bowled out for 323, paceman [47 47 Darren Gough 47] polishing off the innings with a burst of three wickets for one run in 17 deliveries. [48 48 Lancashire 48] then reached 210 for five at the close -- just four ahead -- after [49 49 Neil Fairbrother 49] hit 55 in 60 balls to add to his first innings of 86.

SOCCER - OUT-OF-SORTS [1 1 NEWCASTLE 1] CRASH 2-1 AT HOME . [2 2 LONDON 2] 1996-08-24 [3 3 Newcastle 3] 's early season teething problems continued on Saturday when they lost 2-1 at home to premier league pacesetters [4 4 Sheffield Wednesday 4] . [5 5 England 5] striker [6 6 Alan Shearer 6] gave [7 7 Kevin Keegan 7] 's talent-laden side the lead from the penalty spot after 13 minutes after Wednesday 's [8 8 Yugoslav 8] [9 9 Dejan Stefanovic 9] pulled down [10 10 Colombian 10] forward [11 11 Faustino Asprilla 11] . But two minutes later [12 12 Wednesday 12] equalised through [13 13 Peter Atherton 13] , who found space in the penalty area to meet [14 14 Mark Pembridge 14] 's free kick with a precise glancing header . [15 15 Guy Whittingham 15] stole three points for the [16 16 Yorkshire 16] side with a goal 10 minutes from time . To add to [17 17 Newcastle 17] 's misery , [18 18 England 18] striker [19 19 Les Ferdinand 19] was stretchered off in the second half . [20 20 Wednesday 20] , who escaped relegation on the final day of last season , have now won their first three games of the season . Elsewhere , title hopefuls [21 21 Liverpool 21] were held 0-0 at home by newly-promoted [22 22 Sunderland 22] , and in [23 23 London 23] , the tie between [24 24 Tottenham Hotspur 24] and [25 25 Everton 25] also ended goalless . [26 26 Frenchman 26] [27 27 Frank LeBoeuf 27] and [28 28 Italian 28] [29 29 Gianluca Vialli 29] scored their first premier league goals as [30 30 Chelsea 30] beat [31 31 Coventry 31] 2-0 , and managerless [32 32 Arsenal 32] won by the same scoreline at [33 33 Leicester 33] . Last season 's league and [34 34 Cup 34] winners [35 35 Manchester United 35] host 1995 champions [36 36 Blackburn 36] on Sunday .

[1 1 RUGBY UNION 1] - [2 2 NEW ZEALAND 2] WIN FIRST SERIES
IN [3 3 SOUTH AFRICA 3] . [4 4 PRETORIA 4] , [5 5 South Africa 5] 1996-08-24 [6 6 New Zealand 6] made history on Saturday when they completed their first series victory in [7 7 South A frica 7] with a 33-26 victory in the second test . The win gave the [8 8 All Blacks 8] an unbeatable 2-0 lead in the three-test series . Each side scored three tries and the [9 9 Springboks 9] outscored the [10 10 All Blacks 10] 15-12 in the second half but still suffered a fourth successive defeat against their old enemies . Two tries from wing [11 11 Jeff Wi lson 11] in the first quarter gave [12 12 New Zealand 12] a 24-11 lead before tries from flanker [13 13 Ruben Kruger 13] and scrum-half [14 14 Joost van der Westhuizen 14] in the space of two minutes narrowed the gap to a single point at 23-24 . The [15 15 Springboks 15] would have gone ahead had not fly-half [16 16 Joel Stransky 16] 's conversion hit an upright and [17 17 New Zealand 17] only scrambled to safety through a fine penalty from replacement fly-half Jon Preston and a drop goal by number eight [18 18 Zinzan Brooke 18] .

SOCCER - DISAPPOINTING 1 AJAX SLUMP 2-0 AT [1 1 HEERENVEEN 1]

. [2 2 AMSTERDAM 2] 1996-08-24 [1 2 Dutch 1] champions [3 3 Ajax Amsterdam 3] faltered in their second league match of the season on Saturday losing 2-0 away at [4 4 Heerenveen 4] . [5 5 Ajax 5] , who had a dismal series of pre-season results before beating [6 6 NAC 6] of [7 7 Breda 7] in their opening game , had the best of an entertaining first half but failed to break the deadlock . Eight minutes after the interval , [8 8 Heerenveen 8] 's Romeo Wouden broke through the Amsterdam defence , left defender [9 9 John Veldman 9] standing and curled the ball beyond goalkeeper [10 10 Edwin van der Sar 10] into the [11 11 Ajax 11] net . [12 12 Ajax 12] , without injured defenders [13 13 Márcio Santos 13] and [14 14 Winston Bogarde 14] and strikers [15 15 Jari Litmanen 15] and [16 16 Marc Overmars 16] , then stepped up the pace and looked certain to equalise . But they left gaps at the back and on 73 minutes [17 17 Danish 17] striker [18 18 Jon Dahl Tomasson 18] rushed out of his own half , beat the [19 19 Ajax 19] defence and lobbed [20 20 van der Sar 20] . The defeat means [21 21 Ajax 21] 's main title contenders [22 22 PSV Eindhoven 22] , who beat the champions 3-0 in the traditional league curtain-raiser , can go three points clear of their rivals if they beat [23 23 Groningen 23] on Sunday .

[1 1 British 1] hostage in [2 2 Chechnya 2] describes ordeal . [3 3 LONDON 3] 1996-08-24 A [4 4 British 4] aid worker , held hostage in [5 5 Chechnya 5] for nearly four weeks , said on Saturday a cocked [6 6 Kalashnikov 6] had been thrust into his mouth at one point during his ordeal . Michael Penrose , a 23-year-old worker with the group [7 7 Action Against Hunger 7] , described his ordeal to a news conference when he arrived back in [8 8 Britain 8] from [9 9 M oscow 9] . " The worst period of physical manhandling was during that time when we were beaten with [10 10 Kalashnikovs 10] and at one point I had a [11 11 Kalashnikov 11] held to the back of my throat -- cocked , " he said . " For the first period we were held in a small room with no bed or anything . We had very little food and sometimes went two or three days without eating . " Gunmen seized Penrose , who comes from [12 12 Swerford 12] in southern [13 13 England 13] , [14 14 Frenc hman 14] Frederic Malardeau and six other hostages from their car in [15 15 Grozny 15] , the capital of [16 16 Chechnya 16] , on July 27 . The assailants had demanded a ransom of 300,000 pounds ($ 465,000) but no money was paid by the charity when they were released on Wednesday . The hostages were held in a house in or near [17 17 Grozny 17] which was bombarded regularly . " During the last 15 days of being held , the fighting in [18 18 Grozny 18] was very close . At first it was street fighting outside the house and then we came under very heavy shelling and bombardment from conventional weapons like tanks , artillery and grenade launchers , " he said . Penrose had been working for the charity which provides food to civilians for only a few weeks before he was captured . When asked if he would return to the mountainous region where rebels have been fighting [19 19 Rus sian 19] troops for full independence , Penrose said : " Not for the time being . I do n't think it 's safe for me . But maybe in the future , depending on the circumstances . "

[7 7 Diana 7] 's office said on Saturday the princess had sent a message to the Nobel Peace Prize-winning missionary as news broke this week of her battle against heart problems and malaria. A spokeswoman declined to release details of the message. [8 8 Diana 8] first met the Albanian-born missionary in [9 9 Rome 9] in 1992. She said afterwards that the meeting had fulfilled her "dearest wish" and the two women have met several times since. The princess, who has carved out a major role for herself as a helper of the sick and needy, is said to have turned to [10 10 Mother Teresa 10] for guidance as her marriage crumbled to heir to the [11 11 British 11] throne [12 12 Prince Charles 12]. The 85-year-old nun said in the past that she was praying for the couple, whose divorce is expected to become final next week. Doctors caring for [13 13 Mother Teresa 13] in a [14 14 Calcutta 14] hospital said on Saturday that her fever had fallen and her malaria was under control but she remained on a respirator in intensive care.

Adventurers start [1 1 Canadian 1] wilderness race . [2 2 PE MBERTON 2] , [3 3 British Columbia 3] 1996-08-24 About 350 adventurers from nine countries set out on Saturday to climb , raft , bike and run in a 323-mile (517-km) endurance race through the [4 4 Canadian 4] wilderness . The event , called the Eco-Challenge , is part of a growing sport known as adventure racing in which competitors test their limits for days over a perilous wilderness course . " I 'm looking forward to this race . I think it will be more physically challenging and we 'll have to go up against more diverse situations due to the terrain , " said Dr. Michael Stroud , a veteran Eco-Challenge participant . The Eco-Challenge has been staged twice before -- in [5 5 Utah 5] and Maine last year -- and is modelled on similar races overseas . The 70 teams in this year 's race will will trek glaciers , climb mountains , whitewater raft , horseback ride , canoe and mountain bike along the grueling course . This year 's race , the route of which was keep a secret until Friday evening , is being held near [6 6 Pemberton 6] , [7 7 British Columbia 7] , about 100 miles (160 km) northeast of [8 8 Vancouver 8] . The area is filled with treacherous mountain peaks , ice fields and frigid waters .

Organisers expect about two-thirds of the participants to drop out or be disqualified before the finish . The hardy ones are expected to complete the course in about six days , with first-place finishers receiving $ 10,000 in prize money . In the Eco-Challenge , competitors race in teams of five which must include both men and women . Team members must remain within 100 yards (metres) of each other at all times and finish together . With racers carrying about 40 pounds (18 kg) of gear on their backs , broken bones , sunstroke , dehydration and exhaustion are common .

[1 1 Zimbabwe 1] fires striking civil servants . Emelia Sithole [2 2 HARARE 2] 1996-08-24 The [3 3 Zimbabwean 3] government fired thousands of workers on Saturday for defying an order to end a strike which has crippled essential services and disrupted international and domestic flights . The [4 4 Public Service Commission 4] (PSC) said in a statement that the workers -- including nurses , junior doctors , mortuary attendants , customs officers and firefighters -- would be barred from entering their workplaces on Monday . " All civil servants who did not return to work at their normal working hours , and remained working for the full working day on 23 August 1996 , have been summarily dismissed ... with immediate effect , " it said in a statement . Union officials from the Public Service Association (PSA) were unavailable for comment . Public Service , Labour and Social Welfare Minister Florence Chitauro told state radio her ministry had already begun recruiting other people to replace the strikers , sub-contracting some of the work to private firms . The government had been threatening to fire the workers since the strike began on Tuesday , saying it was illegal . But the strikers ignored the threat and vowed to stay on the streets until their demands for wage rises of 30 to 60 percent were met . The stoppage has left essential services stretched with many hospitals handling only emergency cases under senior doctors with the help of army medical personnel and the [5 5 Red Cross 5] . It has also disrupted flights . Some internal services were cancelled , leaving tourists at the [6 6 Victor ia Falls 6] resort stranded , and flights abroad were delayed . The PSA said 80 percent of the country 's 180,000 civil servants took part in the strike which is a rare challenge to President [7 7 Robert Mugabe 7] , who has been in power since independence from [8 8 Britain 8] in 1980 . Opposition parties , civic organisations and private-sector unions have expressed support for the action and denounced the government 's pay rises of up to eight percent for its workers . Civil servants earn on average Z$ 1,000 ($ 100) a month . They say their pay has not kept up at all with inflation , currently running at 22 percent .

Revered skull of S. Africa king is [1 1 Scottish 1] woman's . [2 2 JOHANNESBURG 2] 1996-08-24 A limelight-loving [3 3 South African 3] chief was in disgrace on Saturday after a prized skull he brought home from [4 4 Scotland 4] was identified as belonging not to his sacred tribal ancestor , but to a middle-aged white woman . A forensic scientist who examined the supposed skull of 19th century King [5 5 Hintsa 5] , a chief of President [6 6 Nelson Mandela 6] 's [7 7 Xhosa 7] tribe killed in battle by the [8 8 British 8] , said it was in fact the cranium of a [9 9 European 9] woman . Chief Nicholas Gcaleka , dressed in animal skins and full tribal regalia , journeyed to a wintry [10 10 Scotland 10] in February on a hugely publicised quest to find [11 11 Hintsa 11] 's skull . The witchdoctor said ancestors had appeared to him in a dream and ordered him to return the head , said to have been carried off as a colonial trophy by the officer who shot and allegedly beheaded [12 12 Hintsa 12] after a battle in 1835 . But Gcaleka ran into trouble as soon as he returned to [13 13 South Africa 13] with a skull he found in a cottage in a lonely [14 14 Highland 14] forest near [15 15 Inverness 15] . He said the spirit of a hurricane had guided him there . Members of the [16 16 Xhosa 16] royal family , branding Gcaleka a charlatan , confiscated the head and sent it for tests to a forensic scientist , who examined the shape of the skull and the hole that he determined had not come , as supposed , from a bullet . " It can be stated beyond reasonable doubt that this skull is not that of the late king , " the scientist said in a statement .

[1 1 Albanian 1] Socialists start landmark reform congress .
[2 2 TIRANA 2] 1996-08-24 [3 3 Albania 3] 's opposition [1 1 S ocialist Party 1] began a two-day congress on Saturday to discuss major jettisoning its links with almost half a century of Stalinist dictatorship in the [4 4 Balkan 4] country . " The congress will approve new concepts that will turn the party into a Social-Democratic and electoral party , not a class and ideological one , " the Socialist [5 5 Zeri i Popullit 5] daily said in an editorial . Jailed Socialist leader [6 6 Fatos Nano 6] made the first call for change in July , a month after the party 's chief opponents , the conservative Democrats of President [7 7 Sali Berisha 7] , almost swept the board in a disputed general election . The Socialists , reformed heirs to the communists , pulled out of the poll saying it was a sham . Acting Socialist leader [8 8 S erbet Pellumbi 8] has said he too will urge the party to scrap the ideas of [9 9 Karl Marx 9] at the congress . The pro-reform stance of some of the party leadership initially caused a storm and triggered the resignation last month of the party 's Secretary-General Gramoz Ruci . More recently political commentators have reported a growing consensus , however , and a rift at the meeting looks increasingly unlikely .

Main [1 1 Tunisian 1] opposition party ousted from HQ . [2 2 TUNIS 2] 1996-08-24 [3 3 Tunisia 3] 's main opposition party on Saturday announced that it had been ousted from its headquarters building by a court decision for failing to pay the rent . Mohamed Ali Khalfallah , spokesman for the [4 4 Movement of Socialist Democrats 4] (MDS) said that a bailiff who was accompanied by policemen , on Saturday ordered the party to leave the building . " We were not allowed a delay to enable us to transfer the movement 's goods and documents , " Khalfallah added in a statement . The building is state property . The MDS was represented in court and admitted owing money for rent but did not give details . MDS this year lost its president and vice-president , both of whom were tried and given jail sentences . MDS president Mohamed Moada was sentenced last February to 11 years in jail on charges of having secret contacts with [5 5 Libyan 5] agents and receiving money from Tripoli . Vice-president Khemais Chamhari last July was sentenced to five years in prison on a charge of disclosing secrets of judicial proceedings in Moada 's affair . To replace Moada , the MDS after the trial named Khalfallah as " coordinator " but Ismail Boulahya , the last of the MDS founding members still politically active , claimed the title of president , causing a new split within the movement . MDS was founded in 1978 by a group led by Ahmed Mestiri , who withdrew from politics in 1992 . Succeeding him as head of the movement , Moada , an [6 6 Arab 6] nationalist , ousted liberals led by MDS secretary-general Mustapha Ben Jaafar in 1993 .

[3 3 NICOSIA 3] 1996-08-24 An [4 4 Iraqi Kurdish 4] guerrilla group on Saturday accused [5 5 Iraqi 5] government forces of killing two civilians in shelling in northern [6 6 Iraq 6] , the [7 7 Iranian 7] news agency [8 8 IRNA 8] reported . [9 9 IRNA 9] said it was monitoring a report from a radio station affiliated to the [10 10 Patriotic Union of Kurdistan 10] ([11 11 PUK 11]) . " [12 12 Iraqi 12] army heavily shelled the Kanie Karzhala camp , west of [13 13 Arbil 13] , on Friday ... Two civilians were killed in the [14 14 Iraqi 14] bombing , " [15 15 IRNA 15] quoted the radio report as saying . The PUK-run radio on Friday said [16 16 Iraqi 16] heavy artillery was pounding its positions in Kurdish-controlled northern [17 17 Iraq 17] but it gave no details of casualties . There was no independent confirmation of the reports . [1 1 Clinton 1] campaign busy making " news " . Laurence McQuillan [2 2 WASHINGTON 2] 1996-08-24 President [3 3 Bill Clinton 3] has served notice he intends to be busy " making news " -- or at least doing things that look and sound like it in a campaign year . With [4 4 Democrats 4] gathering in [5 5 Chicago 5] to start a convention on Monday to nominate him for a second term as president , [6 6 Clinton 6] plans a steady parade of events designed to highlight his leadership and dim the glow of the just-concluded [7 7 Republican 7] conclave that gave a boost to rival [8 8 Bob Dole 8] . After a week of carefully orchestrated events signing into law bills passed by the Republican-controlled [9 9 Congress 9] , [10 10 Clinton 10] used his Saturday radio address to the nation to proudly " announce " a development in the war on crime . " Sixty days ago I directed the attorney general to draw up a plan for a national registry of sex offenders , " [1 1 11 Clinton 11] said . " That plan has now reached my desk . " " Today I am pleased to announce that we are following through on our commitment to keep track of these criminals , not just in a single state but wherever they go , " he said . Actually , creation of such a registry was underway without [1 2 12 Clinton 12] lifting a finger . Attorney General [13 13 Janet Reno 13] 's report -- all nine pages of it , including footnotes -- offers only the interim services of the [14 14 FB I 14] until a formal registry on sex offenders has been established . Two months ago , [15 15 Clinton 15] announced he wanted an interim effort established . Now , 60 days later , he had a chance to talk about it again . It is an example of [16 16 Clinton 16] 's strategic planning as he heads into the stretch drive for the Nov. 5 presidential election . Such things do not happen by chance in the [17 17 Clinton 17] [18 18 White House 18] , they are part of his political chess game . In the past week [19 19 Clinton 19] signed into law an increase in the minimum wage , a bill that makes it easier for someone with a pre-existing health problem to change jobs , and sweeping changes overhauling the nation 's welfare system . " [20 20 America 20] can look back on a week of remarkable achievement , " [21 21 Clinton 21] said , without even a passing reference to the [22 22 Republican 22] majority in the House and Senate . " [23 23 America 23] is on the right track offering more opportunity , demanding more responsibility , building a stronger community , the sense of shared values and stronger families , " he said in striking the theme of his coming week . According to a senior campaign official , [24 24 Clinton 24] " will be making a lot of news in the coming week -- something different each day . " [25 25 Clinton 25] departs on Sunday on a four-day train trip through [26 26 West Virginia 26] , [27 27 Kentucky 27] , [28 28 Ohio 28] , [29 29 Michigan 29] and [30 30 Indiana 30] while fellow [31 31 Democrats 31] are gathered in [32 32 Chicago 32] . " He 'll make news during the day ... and then at night the attention will go to the convention , " said the campaign official . " We think it 'll work really well . " Although officials decline to say just what each day 's " news " will be , the intent is to put a focus on [33 33 Clinton 33] himself and not just those attending the party 's convention . Each day of the trip will have a late start , so that network television correspondents will be able to do live reports for morning programmes . Campaign officials then hope the day 's " news " event will be showcased on evening television news shows as a lead-in for that night 's convention programme . " We 'll be concentrating ... on supporting the president as he is on the trip and making significant public policy statements related to some of his plans for the future , " said [34 34 White House 34] Press Secretary [35 35 Mike McCurry 35] . McCurry said that when [36 36 Clinton 36] delivers his acceptance address on Thursday night to fellow [37 37 Democrats 37] and a national television audience , he will " set out a road map " for the nation 's future -- one the president hopes guides him back to the [38 38 White House 38] for four more years .

[1 1 German 1] troops to remain in Bosnia for 1997--Ruehe . [
2 2 BONN 2] 1996-08-24 Defence Minister [3 3 Volker Ruehe 3] said that [4 4 German 4] troops would stay on in Bosnia next year as part of an international force to ensure the establishment of peace , a newspaper reported on Saturday .
The current NATO-led peace force ([5 5 IFOR 5]) in Bosnia is due to return home at the end of the year . But Ruehe told [6 6 Bild am Sonntag 6] in an interview that a " new and different mandate " for the troops would be agreed on for next year after the current mandate expires in December . " After the (Bosnian) elections (on September 14) the troops will start being reduced from the beginning of October from 60,000 to about 20,000 . A completely new and different mandate will be agreed for next year , " Ruehe said . " The defence ministers will begin negotiations for this at the beginning of September at a [7 7 NATO 7] meeting , " he told the newspaper in an interview , excerpts of which were released ahead of publication on Sunday . " But we must avoid giving the impression this peace deployment in former [8 8 Yu goslavia 8] is being perceived in the long run as an occupation . On the other hand we must prevent any return of war and massacres " he said .

[1 1 Italian 1] comics hope independence-joke 's on [2 2 Bos si 2] . [3 3 ORVIETO 3] , [4 4 Italy 4] 1996-08-24 A group of [5 5 Italian 5] comics hope the joke will be on separatist leader [6 6 Umberto Bossi 6] next month when they lead the ancient [7 7 Etruscan 7] town of [8 8 Orvieto 8] in a mock split from [9 9 Rome 9] . [10 10 Orvieto 10] mayor Stefano Cimicchi said the comics , including popular actor [11 11 Rob erto Benigni 11] , would declare [12 12 Orvieto 12] " capital of [13 13 Etruria 13] " on September 15 -- the day [14 14 Bos si 14] plans a march across the north in favour of independence from [15 15 Rome 15] . " We will then proceed with the annexation of [16 16 Sardinia 16] , [17 17 Corsica 17
] and [18 18 Cyprus 18] , " Cimicchi told reporters on Saturday . He said the city council would be " ironically present " when the comics made their proclamation on the same day [19 19 Bossi 19] has threatened to declare the birth of Padania , the name he has given to northern [20 20 Italy 20] .
[21 21 Orvieto 21] , located in [22 22 Umbria 22] between [23 23 Rome 23] and [24 24 Florence 24] , was once the capital of [25 25 Etruria 25] , an ancient federation of 12 [26 26 Etrus can 26] towns . " We want to pop some air out of this balloon of tension that has been blown up around September 15 , " Cimicchi said . " We want to help turn down the rhetoric in a country that borders former [27 27 Yugoslavia 27] yet in which people are still talking about secession , " he added .
[28 28 Bossi 28] has intensified his separatist rhetoric since his [29 29 Northern League 29] party 's good showing in last April 's general election , when it took 10 percent of the vote nationally . He has recently dropped a drive for federalism , saying secession from [30 30 Rome 30] 's wasteful and centralised bureaucracy is the only solution for northerners .

[1 1 Italian 1] farmer says he mutilated four women . [2 2 VE RONA 2] , [3 3 Italy 3] 1996-08-24 An [4 4 Italian 4] farmer accused of multiple homicide has confessed to mutilating the bodies of four women after having sex with them , the [5 5 It alian 5] news agency [6 6 ANSA 6] reported on Saturday . It quoted the lawyer of Gianfranco Stevanin as saying the 35-year-old farmer confessed on Friday to a [7 7 Verona 7] magistrate that he had killed and mutilated the women . [8 8 A NSA 8] said Stevanin was unable to recall how he had killed the women , remembering only that he had found them " lifeless in his arms " after having sadomasochistic sex with them . Stevanin , arrested in 1994 and jailed for three years for assaulting an [9 9 Austrian 9] prostitute , is accused of murdering five women , three of whose bodies were found near his villa outside [10 10 Verona 10] between July and December 1995 . Two of the corpses were identified but not the third , found headless and decomposed in a sack in a nearby canal . Lawyer Cesare dal Maso told [11 11 ANSA 11] that Stevanin confessed to beheading and dumping the body of a fourth woman in the nearby [12 12 Adige 12] river . Dal Maso declined to comment on the alleged fifth murder , saying only that " the interrogations are not over yet " with investigators . It said investigators believed Stevanin had suffocated them by putting plastic bags on their heads . Stevanin was first sentenced for assault but investigators began digging in the garden of his villa after the first body was found by a passer-by .

[1 1 Belgium 1] asks how paedophile suspect eluded police . Jeremy Lovell [2 2 BRUSSELS 2] 1996-08-24 [3 3 Belgian 3] police searched two more houses on Saturday for bodies in a child-sex scandal of murder , kidnapping and pornography that has sent a shockwave of revulsion throughout [4 4 Europe 4] . Recriminations built up over how the scandal 's central figure , convicted child rapist [5 5 Marc Dutroux 5] , managed to prey on children unhindered for so long . In just over a week two young girls have been found dead , from starvation , two have been freed from a dungeon-like secret compartment and an international hunt has started for at least two others . On Saturday investigators with dogs trained to find bodies searched one house at [6 6 Ransart 6] and one at [7 7 Mont-sur-Marchienne 7] -- both suburbs of the southern city of [8 8 Charleroi 8] . Both houses are owned by [9 9 Dutroux 9] . [10 10 Belgian 10] media speculated that [11 11 Dutroux 11] , charged with abduction and illegal imprisonment of children , must have had high level protection to molest youngsters . They put forward no proof to support the speculation , but seized on a comment by chief prosecutor Michel Bourlet on [12 12 Belgian 12] television on Friday night that he would chase down everyone involved in the case " if I am allowed to " . Bourlet said between 300 and 400 paedophile porn video tapes had been seized , some of which featured [13 13 Dutroux 13] . [14 14 Dutroux 14] was charged a week ago after police rescued two young girls from a concrete dungeon in the basement of one of the six houses he owns in and around [15 15 Charleroi 15] . Just a day later the national euphoria at the rescue turned to disgust as [16 16 Dutroux 16] led police to the bodies of two eight-year-old girls in another of his houses . Julie Lejeune and Melissa Russo , had been kidnapped in June last year . [17 17 Dutroux 17] said they starved to death nine months later . He also admitted kidnapping two other girls , An Marchal and Eefje Lambrecks , a year ago . The fate of the girls is unknown , but there has been speculation they were sold into prostitution in [18 18 Slovakia 18] or the [19 19 Czech Republic 19] where [20 20 Dutroux 20] was a frequent visitor . [21 21 Belgian 21] police have visited [22 22 Bratislava 22] and will visit [23 23 Prague 23] . Five other people have been arrested including [24 24 Dutroux 24] 's second wife Michelle Martin , charged as an accomplice . The others have been charged with abduction and illegal imprisonment of children or are suspected of criminal association . [25 25 Dutch 25] police are also holding a 74-year old Dutchman in connection with the disappearance of An and Eefje , although a spokesman said no direct link had yet been established . At least part of the speculation in the [26 26 Belgian 26] media of high-level protection for [27 27 Dutroux 27] and his accomplices is based on leaked documents cataloguing a high degree of police bungling , incompetence and indifference . Among the revelations are the fact that the gendarmerie was running a surveillance operation codenamed " Othello " against [28 28 Du troux 28] in 1995 -- when both Julie and Melissa and An and Eefje were kidnapped . They show that the gendarmes were aware that [29 29 Dutroux 29] was building cells in some of his houses for holding children , yet this information was either not passed on to other police forces searching for the missing girls or was overlooked when it was . They also show that police investigating a theft visited [30 30 Dutroux 30] late last year at the house where Julie and Melissa were being held but accepted his word that the children 's cries they could hear came from neighbours . Justice Minister [31 31 Stefaan De Clerck 31] has admitted that mistakes were made and ordered an inquiry at the same time as stressing there were no indications of a cover-up . There is also widespread disbelief that no one appeared to question how [32 32 Dutroux 32] , an unemployed father of three with no visible means of support , managed to own six houses .

[2 2 MADRID 2] 1996-08-24 Most Spaniards would support government talks with the illegal [3 3 Basque 3] separatist permanently , a survey published in daily [5 5 El Mundo 5] on Saturday said . While 57 percent of the population supported negotiations with [6 6 ETA 6] ([7 7 Basque Homeland and Free

But 80 percent said [8 8 ETA 8] had shown little interest in achieving peace in the [9 9 Basque 9] country when it offered a one-week truce in July while continuing to hold prison officer Jose Antonio Ortega Lara , kidnapped in January . The problem of terrorism had neither worsened nor improved since the conservative [10 10 Popular Party 10] (PP) came to power in May , according to 56 percent of those questioned , while 22 percent said it had worsened . The survey questioned 2,496 people between July 17 and 21 and has a margin of error

Internet Startup funded to develop [1 1 Java 1] software . [2 2 MOUNTAIN VIEW 2] , [3 3 Calif. 3] 1996-08-25 A small team of engineers from [4 4 Sun Microsystems Inc. 4] 's JavaSoft unit said Sunday they have formed a new company , dubbed Internet Startup , to build [5 5 Java 5] infrastructure software . The fledgling company , established in a ground-floor office here over the last two weeks , has received venture financing from [6 6 Bessemer Venture Partners 6] of [7 7 Menlo Park 7] , [8 8 Calif 8] .. David Cowan , Internet Startup founder and acting chief executive , is a general partner of [9 9 Bessemer 9] . The startup company 's acting chairman is Jim Bidzos , the president of [10 10 RSA Data Security 10] , a unit of Security Dynamics Technologies Inc. as well as chairman of [11 11 VeriSign 11] . Internet Startup , which opened its doors with about half a dozen initial employees , combines experience at JavaSoft , 1 Apple Computer Inc. , and Oracle Systems . " [12 12 Java 12] portends dramatic changes in the way we use the [13 13 Internet 13] , " said Hong Bui , vice president of engineering of the new company after serving as a senior engineer at JavaSoft . [14 1 4 Java 14] is a computer programming language introduced by [1 5 15 Sun Microsystems 15] in mid-1995 which has immediately captured the attention of the industry for its ability to operate across virtually all computer system in a relatively secure manner . Just last week , [16 16 Sun Microsystems 16] and the [17 17 Silicon Valley 17] venture capital giant [18 18 Kleiner Perkins Caufield & Byers 18] said they had completed financing of a $ 100 million fund managed by [19 19 Kleiner Perkins 19] to fund startups developing [20 20 Java 20] technologies . [21 21 Java 21] has been licensed by nearly 50 organisations , ranging from [22 22 Microsoft Corp. 22] and [23 23 International Business Machines Corp. 23] to the [24 24 Taiwan 24] government . Prasad Wagle , another former senior JavaSoft engineer who is among the founding engineers at Internet Startup , said the new company aims to build software infrastructure using [25 25 Java 25] to make networked applications ubiquitous . One feature of the [26 26 Java 26] language is that small software programmes , known as " applets " because they are small applications , can be downloaded from the server computers at the centre of networks onto individual computers for use . In this model , individual computer users can always gain access to the latest programmes and do not need to store more software than they are currently using on their computers at any one time , also saving costs of memory and storage . Chris Zuleeg , a veteran of [27 27 Apple 27] and a former JavaSoft marketing manager , is vice president of marketing at Internet Startup , whose Web site is www.internetstartup.com . [28 28 Bessemer 28] has funded numerous [29 29 Internet 29] pioneers , including [30 30 PSI Net 30] , [31 31 VeriSign 31] and Individual .

MOTORCYCLING - [1 1 JAPANESE 1] WIN BOTH ROUND NINE SUPERBIKE RACES . SUGO , [2 2 Japan 2] 1996-08-25 Teenager Yuuichi Takeda , racing in only his first season , outclassed the big names to win the first race in round nine of the world superbike championship on Sunday . Takeda , 18 , showed poise far beyond his years to overtake [3 3 Australian 3] [1 1 Ducati 1] rider [4 4 Troy Corser 4] , last year 's championship runner-up , with four of the 25 laps left . [5 5 Honda 5] 's Takeda was pursued past [6 6 Corser 6] by the [7 7 Yamaha 7] duo of [8 8 Noriyuki Haga 8] and [9 9 Wataru Yoshik awa 9] with [10 10 Haga 10] briefly taking the lead in the final chicane on the last lap . But Takeda found one more spurt of power to just take the flag first with [11 11 Haga 11] ] second and [12 12 Yoshikawa 12] third . [13 13 Haga 13] had the consolation of recording the fastest lap at 147.159 kph .
[14 14 Corser 14] , who crashed during practice on Friday , limped in fourth , four seconds behind Takeda with championship leader [15 15 Aaron Slight 15] of [16 16 New Zea land 16] 11 seconds behind the winner . In the second race , Takeda again challenged strongly until the fifth lap from the end when he crashed while running second to eventual race winner [17 17 Takuma Aoki 17] . [18 18 Aoki 18] , the elder brother of reigning 125cc world champion [19 19 Haruchika 19] , had a race-long duel with [20 20 John Kocinski 20] of the [2 1 21 United States 21] on a [22 22 Ducati 22] before taking the chequered flag . [23 23 Kocinski 23] led for the early laps before he was passed first by [24 24 Aoki 24] , who recorded the fastest lap of 147.786 kph , and then by Takeda . With Takeda out of the race , [25 25 Kocinski 25] regained second place but he could not overtake [26 26 Aoki 26] . [27 27 Haga 27] again was the unlucky rider finishing third ahead of [28 28 Slight 28] with [29 29 Corser 29] in 10th place . But the strong showing by the [30 30 Japanese 30] riders did not alter the championship table with [31 31 Slight 31] still leading on 280 points , followed by [32 32 Corser 32] with 269 and [33 33 Kocinski 33] with 254 .

CRICKET - [1 1 POLLOCK 1] CONCLUDES [2 2 WARWICKSHIRE 2] CAREER WITH FLOURISH . [3 3 LONDON 3] 1996-08-25 [4 4 South African 4] fast bowler [5 5 Shaun Pollock 5] concluded his [6 6 Warwickshire 6] career with a flourish on Sunday by taking the final three wickets during the county 's Sunday league victory over [7 7 Worcestershire 7] . [8 8 Pollock 8] , who returns home on Tuesday for an ankle operation , took the last three wickets in nine balls as [9 9 Worcestershire 9] were dismissed for 154 . After an hour 's interruption for rain , [10 10 Warwickshire 10] then reached an adjusted target of 109 with 13 balls to spare and record their fifth win in the last six games . [11 11 Warwickshire 11] are currently in fourth position behind [12 12 Yorkshire 12] , [13 13 Nottinghamshire 13] and [14 14 Surrey 14] . [15 15 Yorkshire 15] captain [16 16 David Byas 16] completed his third Sunday league century as his side swept clear at the top of the table , reaching a career best 111 not out against [17 17 Lancashire 17] . [18 18 Lancashire 18] 's total of 205 for eight from 40 overs looked reasonable before [19 19 Byas 19] put their attack to the sword , collecting his runs from just 100 balls with three sixes and nine fours . [20 20 Yorkshire 20] eventually reached their target with only four wickets down and 7.5 overs to spare .

CRICKET - RUN-OUT GIVES LEWIS AND [1 1 ENGLAND 1] SLIM SATISFACTION . [2 2 LONDON 2] 1996-08-25 [3 3 Chris Lewis 3] did his best to forget his controversial omission from the [4 4 England 4] one-day squad on Sunday but could not prevent [5 5 Pakistan 5] reasserting their dominance in the final test at [6 6 The Oval 6] . A super piece of fielding by Lewis , dropped as a disciplinary measure after arriving only 35 minutes before the start on the fourth morning , provided the only bright spot for [7 7 England 7] as the touring team batted on to reach 413 for five at the interval , a lead of 87 . The solitary wicket to fall was [8 8 Asif Mujtaba 8] , run out for 13 attempting a second run to third man where Lewis was lurking with a point to prove . There seemed scant danger until the [9 9 Surrey 9] player swooped on to the ball and returned off balance to county team mate [10 10 Alec Stewart 10] who whipped off the bails . Lewis , though , could not make similar waves with the ball as [11 11 Salim Malik 11] and [12 12 Wasim Akram 12] batted through the rest of the session with few alarms . [13 13 Wasim 13] rattled along to 30 not out , outscoring his partner who was unbeaten on 24 at the break , although the weather was again threatening to play the dominant role . Rain arrived just as the players left the field for lunch , forcing the ground-staff into action yet again . The weather delayed the resumption for over an hour , the umpires finally announcing play would start again at 1445 local time (1345 [14 14 GMT 14]) .

SOCCER - CHAMPIONS [1 1 PORTO 1] KICK OFF SEASON WITH A DRAW . [2 2 LISBON 2] 1996-08-25 [3 3 Portuguese 3] champions [4 4 Porto 4] kicked off the season with a disappointing 2-2 home draw against Setubal and were lucky to squeeze in an equaliser in extra time . [5 5 Porto 5] , who are fighting to take their third consecutive title this season , were 2-0 down until the 86th minute when a header by [6 6 Mario Jardel 6] found the net after a string of missed opportunities , including a penalty taken by top league scorer Domingos Oliveira in the 60th minute . Domingos redeemed himself by netting the equaliser just into extra time . Setubal , who put on a skilful counter-attack throughout the game , opened the scoring 16 minutes into the match when an unmarked [7 7 Ch iquinho Conde 7] shot around [8 8 Porto 8] 's new [9 9 Polish 9] keeper Andrezej Wozniak . [10 10 Conde 10] scored his second in the 70th minute . [11 11 Benfica 11] , also playing their first game of the season at home , were held to a 1-1 draw by northern side [12 12 Braga 12] despite the fact that the visitors were reduced to 10 men in the 54th minute after Rodrigo Carneiro was sent off for a second bookable offence .
[13 13 Benfica 13] dominated the game but their lack of a first-class striker was apparent throughout and in the 30th minute they lost key [14 14 Brazilian 14] midfielder [15 15 Va ldo 15] who suffered a light knee injury . He was substituted by [16 16 Paulao 16] . [17 17 Benfica 17] finally opened the scoring in the 81st minute with a penalty taken by Helder after Luis Baltasar tripped up captain [18 18 Joao Pinto 18] under the referee 's nose . [19 19 Braga 19] defender Idalecio gave his team their equaliser seven minutes from the final whistle with a header into the back of the net .

SOCCER - [1 1 FIORENTINA 1] WIN WITH [2 2 BATISTUTA 2]
DOUBLE . [3 3 MILAN 3] 1996-08-25 [4 4 Argentine 4] striker [5 5 Gabriel Batistuta 5] gave [6 6 Fiorentina 6] the perfect 70th birthday present on Sunday with two goals that gave the [ 7 7 Italian Cup 7] winners a 2-1 Supercup victory over [8 8 se rie A 8] champions [9 9 Milan 9] . The victory , coming on the eve of the founding of the [10 10 Florence 10] club in 1926 , also marked the first time since the pre-season trophy between the 1 Cup winners and league champions was started in 1988 that the 2 Cup winners had won . [11 11 Batistuta 11] gave [12 12 Fiorentina 12] the lead in the 11th minute . [13 1 3 Sweden 13] 's [14 14 Stefan Schwarz 14] picked him out with a lob to the edge of the box and [15 15 Batistuta 15] did the rest , chipping veteran defender [16 16 Franco Baresi 16] and scoring at the near post . [17 17 Montenegrin 17] midfielder [ 18 18 Dejan Savicevic 18] equalised for the home team , weaving past a defender , checking and firing in a left-footed shot in the 21st minute that gave young [19 19 Fiorent ina 19] goalkeeper [20 20 Francesco Toldo 20] little chance .
The score stayed level to the final minutes but with a penalty shoot out looming , [21 21 Batistuta 21] took charge . [22 22 French 22] international midfielder [23 23 Ma rcel Desailly 23] fouled the [24 24 Argentine 24] , whose coach at [25 25 Boca Juniors 25] before he joined [26 26 Fior entina 26] in 1991 was new [27 27 Milan 27] coach [28 28 Oscar Tabarez 28] , and [29 29 Batistuta 29] rammed home the free kick from 30 metres out . The 83rd minute shot , curling over the defence and dipping in under the bar from the striker dubbed [30 30 Batigol 30] by adoring [31 31 Fiorentina 31] fans , was just reward for [32 32 Fiorentina 32] who looked a far more impressive team . [33 33 Milan 33] 's player of the year [34 34 George Weah 34] missed a good first half opportunity but otherwise looked a little rusty while [35 35 I talian 35] team mate [36 36 Roberto Baggio 36] did not play due to injury . New [37 37 Dutch 37] signing [38 38 Edgar Dav ids 38] came on late in the second half as a [39 39 Milan 39] substitute but made little impact . The league season starts on September 8 .

[1 1 RUGBY UNION 1] - [2 2 All Blacks 2] relive triumph . [3 3 PRETORIA 3] , Aug 25 - Captain [4 4 Sean Fitzpatrick 4] and his [5 5 All Blacks 5] revisited the test venue today to relive some of the magic moments of yesterday 's momentous

rugby victory over [6 6 South Africa 6] , [7 7 NZPA 7] reported . Most of the test 15 who beat the [8 8 Springboks 8] 33-26 to secure [9 9 New Zealand 9] 's first-ever rugby series in [10 10 South Africa 10] stood in the middle of the empty 50,000-seat [11 11 Loftus Versfeld 11] . Magnificent , ' ' said [12 12 Fitzpatrick 12] , [13 13 New Zealand 13] 's most capped player and the world 's most capped forward . The players relived the moves and tries , the tackles and what might have been as the emotions of victory continued . [14 14 Zinzan Brooke 14] , the only No 8 in test rugby to have scored a dropped goal when he kicked a three-pointer against [15 15 England 15] during last year 's 1 World Cup , added a second to his name yesterday . I was right here , ' ' he said standing at the spot where he had received the ball for the kick . The maul was there and I was going to go in but I thought I should hold off because we had the ball . When (halfback) [16 16 Justin Marshall 16] got the ball he was going to go on the openside where Jon Preston was so I emptied my lung at him to get the ball this way . I just hit through and I was punching the air before the ball got there . It cost me a few bucks at the bar . ' ' The decision to attempt a dropped goal was a spontaneous one , [17 17 Broo ke 17] said . It was just like the 2 World Cup , the ball came and the chance was there . ' ' Centre [18 18 Frank Bunce 18] said he had never felt so exhausted during a match . We were gutted and there was nowhere to hide , they just kept coming at you , ' ' he said . I was gone in the first 20 minutes , completely exhausted , but you had no choice . There was just so much riding on it . It 's amazing just how big this ground was yesterday . ' ' Two-try winger [19 19 Jeff Wilson 19] said he was so tired that he kept asking [20 20 Bu nce 20] where he should be while defending . He told me I 'm buggered too so just hang in there ' , ' ' [21 21 Wilson 21] recalled . About 4000 [22 22 New Zealander 22] supporters were partying into the early hours of today in the [23 23 Sou th African 23] capital . Messages of goodwill continued to roll into the team hotel . [24 24 All Blacks 24] coach [25 25 John Hart 25] said Prime Minister [26 26 Jim Bolger 26] rang him today to offer his congratulations . He thanked us on behalf of the country , which is really nice for the team , and I understand we had tremendous support at home . ' '

[1 1 South Africa 1] yet to hear from apartheid enforcers . Anton Ferreira [2 2 CAPE TOWN 2] 1996-08-25 [3 3 South Africa 3] 's truth commission begins issuing subpoenas this week in a bid to dig beneath the political rationales and find the sinister figures who have the blood of the country 's race war on their hands . Leaders of the major parties involved , from right-wing whites to radical blacks , appeared before Archbishop [4 4 Desmond Tutu 4] 's Truth and Reconciliation Commission last week to paint the broad picture of their actions for or against apartheid . Most , including former president [5 5 F.W. de Klerk 5] and [6 6 African National Congress 6] Deputy President [7 7 Thabo Mbeki 7] , offered apologies for any mistakes they had made and accepted broad responsibility for the actions of their foot soldiers . But none named those guilty of ordering or carrying out any of the gross violations of human rights which [8 8 Tutu 8] is investigating . Human rights lawyer [9 9 Brian Currin 9] said the hearings last week were not intended as a form of confessional and that those who personally committed crimes during apartheid would testify only before a separate arm of the commission , the amnesty committee . " I do n't think one should have expected more than what one got , " he said . " That was not the amnesty committee where perpetrators are expected to open their hearts and souls and to tell it all . " The commission , which has the power to grant amnesty to those who confess to abuses , has begun hearing the testimony from people already in jail for their deeds . But others , such as self-confessed secret police hit-squad leader [10 10 Dirk Coetze 10] , have yet to testify . [11 11 Tutu 11] 's deputy chairman , Alex Boraine , told reporters the commission would begin issuing subpoenas to suspects who refused to appear voluntarily some time this week . He added that former hardline apartheid president [12 12 P.W. Botha 12] could be among those called . But [13 13 Currin 13] , who is advising several people regarded as perpetrators , said this was not the best way to achieve the commission 's aims . " A person can be forced to appear , but the only way one is going to get to the truth in its totality is if people feel it is a good idea to go to the amnesty committee . At the moment this is not the case . " He cited [14 14 Coetze 14] , who was charged with murder after confessing in media interviews to dirty tricks . His trial is due to start in December but the truth commission intends to decide on his amnesty application before that . [15 15 Currin 15] said the law had to be changed so all judicial prosecutions were automatically suspended for those who approached the truth commission . Last week 's submissions to the commission by the [16 16 ANC 16] , de Klerk 's [17 17 National Party 17] and the right-wing [18 18 Freedom Front 18] of General [19 19 Constand Viljoen 19] left many South Africans unsatisfied . Boraine said the picture was incomplete because officers of the apartheid-era security forces had yet to make their scheduled , separate submission , but one black caller to a radio talk show declared : " This whole thing is utterly useless , it does n't help us at all . What the people expect is to have houses , to have jobs . " Political scientist Jannie Gagiano said he doubted that the [20 20 National Party 20] , which implemented apartheid in 1948 and began dismantling it in 1990 , felt it carried a burden of guilt and needed to be exculpated through the commission . " Therefore I have some doubts about achieving some form of reconciliation . One has to feel a bit guilty to feel the need for reconciling yourself to a historical adversary , " he said . Professor Tom Lodge of the [21 21 University of the Witwatersrand 21] demurred , saying : " In the irritation , in the jokes , in the anger that white South Africans express about the commission , I think there 's a moral uneasiness , and I think that 's healthy . Responsibility is percolating downwards . "

[1 1 Moslem 1] refugees seek to vote in Serb-held town . Samir Arnaut [2 2 MATUZICI 2] , Bosnia 1996-08-25 Thousands of [3 3 Moslem 3] refugees denounced Bosnia 's elections as a farce on Sunday because [4 4 Serb 4] incomers would be able to vote in their old home town , cementing partition of the country . They said they were ready to force their way back across post-war ethnic lines to Serb-held [5 5 Doboј 5] , one of several towns where [1 1 NATO 1] troops fear violence involving refugees determined to vote where they once lived . The refugees , rallying in [6 6 Matuzici 6] on government territory two km from [7 7 Doboј 7] in northeast Bosnia , waved banners calling the polls a farce staged by the [8 8 United Nations 8] and the [9 9 European Union 9] . " We demand to vote in [10 10 Doboј 10] , " other banners said . Bosnia 's Moslem-led central government and many displaced [11 11 Moslems 11] are angered by a key provision of the Western-organised September 14 elections allowing people to vote in post-war " new places of residence . " As a result , separatist [12 12 Serb 12] authorities have packed former [13 13 Moslem 13] majority towns with refugees of their own or registered other [14 14 Serbs 14] to vote there . Critics say that what was billed as an electoral process to reintegrate Bosnia as a single , multi-ethnic state is shaping up as a referendum on partition , de facto or de jure . " Only our physical presence in [15 15 Doboј 15] will mean that the 2 Dayton peace treaty has truly been implemented , " Edhem Efendija Camdzic , [16 16 Doboј 16] 's [17 17 Islamic 17] imam-in-exile , told the refugees . " The main point of this rally is to highlight to the world powers what misfortune they brought upon us , " said Reuf Mehmedagic , head of [18 18 Doboј 18] municipality-in-exile . " Eleven thousand [19 19 Serbs 19] who came from elsewhere to [20 20 Doboј 20] will vote there . How can we then expect the reintegration of Bosnia ? But no one will stop us from returning to our homes . " Mirhunisa Komarica , a government refugee official , said : " We want to vote where we were thrown out from . This is a protest of warning and the next step is entering our town using all means possible , so let them shoot . " Bosnian Vice President [21 21 Ejup Ganic 21] , a [22 22 Moslem 22] , told the refugees : " We have a message for the [23 23 Serbs 23] who are now in our homes not to plan the future of their children there because there will be no good fortune in that . " To loud applause , he added : " We will enter [24 24 Doboј 24] , untie the [25 25 Doboј 25] knot and ensure free movement for all . We have to enter [26 26 Doboј 26] to free the [27 27 Serbs 27] from their own (separatist) politics . " The 3 Dayton peace accords guaranteed refugees the right to return to their homes and ensured freedom of movement across ethnic lines . But local police , controlled by nationalist parties in [28 28 Moslem 28] , [29 29 Serb 29] and [30 30 Croat 30] sectors of Bosnia , and civilian mobs have turned ceasefire lines into virtually impassable borders . The majority of refugees from Bosnia 's 1992-95 war are [31 31 Moslems 31] from the Serb-controlled north and east . NATO-led peace troops beefed up their presence in the [32 32 Doboј 32] area on Sunday to deter any sudden emotional attempt by the refugees to cross the Inter-Entity Boundary Line into [33 33 Doboј 33] . But the crowd dispersed without incident . [34 34 Moslems 34] and [35 35 Serbs 35] have scuffled several times along the line in the past when [36 36 Moslem 36] refugees tried to surge into the town .

security chief [8 8 Alexander Lebed 8] and rebel leaders . But in the capital [9 9 Grozny 9] , the commander of [10 10 Russian 10] Interior Ministry forces in [11 11 Chechnya 11] , General Anatoly Shkirkko , told [12 12 Interfax 12] news agency he was delaying a pullout of troops there after a group of [13 13 Chechens 13] disarmed an armoured column . [14 14 Reuters 14] cameraman Liutauras Stremaitis said a column of around 40 vehicles , including tanks , armoured personnel carriers , artillery cannons and lorries , escorted by [15 15 Chechen 15] rebels , pulled out of the village of [16 16 Shatoy 16] towards the border , around 50 km (31 miles) to the north . In [17 17 Grozny 17] , Shkirkko told [18 18 Interfax 18] he was suspending the pullout of troops from the capital until weapons seized by the [19 19 Chechens 19] were returned . [20 20 Chechen 20] rebel spokesman [21 21 Movladi U dugov 21] confirmed the weapons had been seized but that it was a maverick group of [22 22 Chechens 22] . He said later that the rebels had handed them over . The pullout of the [23 23 Russian 23] troops is a key element of the peace plan brokered by [24 24 Lebed 24] , which aims to end the 20-month [25 25 Chechnya 25] conflict .

Leftist [1 1 Mexican 1] armed group says troops in capital . [2 2 MEXICO CITY 2] 1996-08-25 The leftist [3 3 Popular Revolutionary Army 3] (EPR) in a published report on Sunday said it operated throughout [4 4 Mexico 4] , including the capital , and denied government assertions it was isolated to one state . Commanders " Vicente " and " Oscar " , guarded by a dozen EPR gunmen , said in an interview with [5 5 La Jornada 5] outside [6 6 Mexico City 6] that the armed group was committed to overthrowing the government . " They (government officials) want to present us before public opinion as a local problem , as just being from [7 7 Guerrero 7] and as irrational radicals , " Commander Oscar told [8 8 La Jornada 8] . They said the ERP , whose fighters first appeared wearing military fatigues and brandishing assault rifles in the southwestern state of [9 9 Guerrero 9] on June 28 , had a 23,000-strong membership , but this could not be confirmed independently . [10 10 La Jornada 10] also reported on Sunday that the [11 11 Mexican Army 11] has discovered a 37-page , EPR manual detailing guerrilla tactics and strategies . It quoted the manual as saying : " The objective of the Basic Course on War is to provide for combatants of the EPR basic military knowledge for the armed conflict against the police and military apparatus of the bourgeoisie . " It was the second time armed " commanders " of the EPR have granted interviews outside [12 12 Guerrero 12] state , an extremely poor and volatile region where leftist protesters often have clashed violently with authorities . Unlike the better known and unrelated [13 13 Zapatista 13] rebels in southeastern [14 14 Chiapas 14] state , the EPR has never taken on the army in direct combat , according to official reports . There have only been a few skirmishes in [1 5 15 Guerrero 15] in which a handful of police , soldiers and civilians have been killed or injured .

Police said the killings occurred on Saturday morning in the municipality of Anza but news of the massacre only reached the provincial capital of [6 6 Medellin 6] early on Sunday . Anza is only 20 miles (30 km) west of [7 7 Medellin 7] , but there are no roads linking it directly to the city . Police initially said leftist [8 8 Revolutionary Armed Forces of Colombia 8] ([9 9 FARC 9]) rebels were prime suspects in the killings . But gunmen of the left and right have killed with impunity across [10 10 Antioquia 10] for years , and there were unconfirmed reports that the latest bloodshed was the work of a right-wing paramilitary group .

Two [1 1 Thai 1] border police wounded by [2 2 Burma 2] gunmen . [3 3 MAE SOT 3] , [4 4 Thailand 4] 1996-08-25 Two [5 5 Thai 5] border policemen were seriously wounded on Sunday when members of a [6 6 Burmese 6] rebel splinter faction ambushed their patrol in northwest [7 7 Thailand 7] , security officers said . The two were wounded in the early hours of Sunday when some 30 members of the [8 8 Democratic Karen Buddhist Army 8] ([9 9 DKBA 9]) ambushed their patrol on the [10 10 Thai 10] side of the border with [11 11 Burma 11] , to the north of the town of [12 12 Mae Sot 12] . The [13 13 Thai 13] army commander in the area , Col Suvit Maenmuang , told reporters the [14 14 DKBA 14] , which is allied with the [15 15 Rangoon 15] military government and based in southeast [16 16 Burma 16] , had recently stepped up cross-border infiltration . Suvit said the motive for their intrusions was not clear but he had ordered reinforcements to beef up security along the porous frontier . The [17 17 DKBA 17] was formed in late 1994 by hundreds of guerrillas who split from the anti-Rangoon [18 18 Karen National Union 18] (KNU) and allied themselves with [19 19 Burmese 19] government army , their former enemies . [20 20 DKBA 20] members have since launched intermittent cross-border attacks on [21 21 Karen 21] refugee camps in [22 22 Thailand 22] , where the majority of inhabitants are KNU supporters , and on [23 23 Thai 23] villages and police posts near the border . [24 24 Bangkok 24] has complained to [25 25 Rangoon 25] about the raids but [26 26 Burmese 26] military authorities say they have no control over the faction . [27 27 Thai 27] army commanders reject the explanation , saying they have evidence the [28 28 Burmese 28] army supplies and directs the renegade ethnic minority splinter faction .

[1 1 Egypt 1] hopes jars will reveal secrets of mummies . [2

2 CAIRO 2] 1996-08-25 Archaeologists in [3 3 Egypt 3] have found pots used by ancient [4 4 Egyptians 4] in burial rites that they say may reveal the secrets of mummification . Mohammed Saleh , director of the [5 5 Egyptian 5] Museum , told [6 6 Reuters 6] television a [7 7 U.S. 7] team found the pots , some of which contain human intestines , in a tomb built into the rocks while digging in Dahshour , a village 40 km (25 miles) south of [8 8 Cairo 8] . Dahshour is the site of [9 9 Egypt 9] 's second largest pyramid , built for the pharaoh Seneferu more than 4,500 years ago . Saleh said the team -- from [10 10 New York 10] 's [11 11 Metropolitan Museum 11] -- found four [12 12 Canopic 12] jars and two unguent jars in the tomb , which belongs to an unidentified person who lived during the 12th Dynasty (1991-1786 BC) in the [13 13 Middle Kingdom 13] . " This finding is important because one of the jars still contains substances and materials used in the conservation of mummies and the conservation of the intestines and all the things which were in the cavity of a person we have not identified yet , " Saleh said . " We hope that the analysis of such substances and liquids will reveal some secrets of the mummification process and materials used in this process , " he added .

[1 1 Netanyahu 1] , [2 2 Weizman 2] consult on [3 3 Arafat 3] invitation . [4 4 JERUSALEM 4] 1996-08-25 [5 5 Israeli 5] President [6 6 Ezer Weizman 6] , weighing a possible meeting with [7 7 Yasser Arafat 7] , consulted on Sunday with Prime Minister [8 8 Benjamin Netanyahu 8] , a spokesman said . [9 9 Weizman 9] and [10 10 Netanyahu 10] met at the president 's official [11 11 Jerusalem 11] residence and planned to speak to the media at the end of their talks , the prime minister 's spokesman said . Earlier , the director of the president 's office denied a report in [12 12 Israel 12] 's [13 13 Yedioth Ahronoth 13] newspaper that [14 14 Weizman 14] had already invited [15 15 Arafat 15] to his private home for talks in the coming week on the future of the Israel-PLO peace process . But the official , Aryeh Shumer , said it was only fitting that [16 16 Weizman 16] and [17 17 Arafat 17] should talk after the [18 18 Palestinian 18] leader sent the [19 19 Israeli 19] president a letter which [20 20 Yedioth Ahronoth 20] reported contained an emotional appeal to save the peace proces . The newspaper said [21 21 Netanyahu 21] , who is cool to meeting [22 22 Arafat 22] himself , opposed talks between [23 23 Weizman 23] and the [24 24 Palestinian 24] president . After [25 25 Moslem 25] suicide bombers killed 59 people in [26 26 Israel 26] in February and March , [27 27 Weizman 27] called for peace efforts with the PLO to be suspended . Shumer said his current position was that the peace process must continue .

The [8 8 Yedioth Ahronoth 8] daily reported that Prime Minister [9 9 Benjamin Netanyahu 9] , who has said he has no desire to hold talks with the [10 10 Palestinian 10] president , opposes the meeting due to be held this coming week . The newspaper said [11 11 Weizman 11] scheduled the meeting at his private residence in the central [12 12 Israeli 12] village of [13 13 Caesarea 13] after [14 14 Arafat 14] sent him an emotional appeal " to save the peace process " . [15 15 Netanyahu 15] met [16 16 Weizman 16] last Tuesday and voiced his opposition , [17 17 Yedioth 17] said . " I am prepared to postpone the meeting under one condition -- that you give me a commitment right now to meet [18 18 Arafat 18] yourself within 10 days , " the paper quoted [19 19 Weizman 19] as telling [20 20 Netanyahu 20] . It said [21 21 Ne tanyahu 21] had yet to give [22 22 Weizman 22] an answer .

The office of [23 23 Israeli 23] president is largely ceremonial . But [24 24 Weizman 24] , a former defence minister and an architect of [25 25 Israel 25] 's peace treaty with [26 26 Egypt 26] , has spoken out frequently on the peace process with the [27 27 Palestinians 27] -- at times urging the former [28 28 Labour 28] government to slow it down .

Corporate [1 1 America 1] taking new view on compensation . Anne Murray [2 2 NEW YORK 2] 1996-08-23 Corporate [3 3 America 3] is planning major changes in employee compensation in the next few years , according to a recent study . What it comes down to is this : If you 're highly skilled , you 'll benefit nicely . But if you 're not and cannot contribute to your employer 's goals , you 'll be paid less . The survey , conducted in late 1995 and the early part of this year by management consulting firm [4 4 Towers Perrin 4] , showed that the focus will be on an employee 's overall value to the company 's bottom line -- rather than how well an employee performs a specific task . Presently , for example , if an accountant 's job involves doing five specific tasks , he or she can expect a certain salary , said Sandra O'Neal , a [5 5 Towers Perrin 5] principal . In the future , the accountant will be evaluated solely on " knowledge , skill and abilities , " she said . In addition to using accounting skills , the accountant will also have to be creative , work well in a team , be sensitive to customer needs and set productivity goals . " The good news is , if you 're highly skilled and have many abilities , you 'll be paid more , " said O'Neal . " The bad news is , if you 're not skilled and can't contribute to a team, to customer service and the organisation's goals, you'll be paid less." Of the 750 mid-to-large size corporations surveyed, 81 percent had undergone a major restructuring in the last three years, and more than two-thirds reported that productivity and profits were up as result. Next on the agenda for these firms is developing a new compensation structure, and 78 percent report that they are considering a new, skills-based plan for both management and non-management employees. This coming shift, O'Neal said, "is not just isolated or a fad. It's an inexorable change." After [6 6 World War II 6], corporations adopted a "military model" creating hierarchical organisations where "the concept of defined tasks worked great," she said. But as the economy became global, customers were more demanding and problems became more complex. "Multi-layers kept management at a distance from its customers," O'Neal said. Now organisations must change to stay competitive. O'Neal says firms will place a greater emphasis on teams and team performance in giving raises. If your team does well, you'll do well. If it does n't do well, do n't expect a raise. Is this fair to an employee who can go the distance but is on a team that ca n't keep up? "That's an important question we used to ask a lot," said O'Neal. "It's not a question we ask any more. The more important question is -- 'Do we have results?' " To get those results, 27 percent of the companies surveyed plan to eliminate base pay increases in favour of cash bonuses and incentives, such as employee and team award programmes and education. Companies that can change their culture and view employees as business partners will do well, O'Neal said. For example, the survey rated some participants in the survey as "high-performing" companies, based on their return on equity above 16 percent. Those companies also said they already offer employees variable pay and business education, give their managers more control over pay decisions and celebrate employee and team success. "They respect employees more, they trust employees more and they value their employees more," O'Neal said. "The key to success at high-performance companies is engaging employees in a business partnership. It will improve a company's bottom line."

[1 1 Belgian 1] police arrest detective in [2 2 Dutroux 2] affair . Geert de Clercq NEUFCHATEAU , [3 3 Belgium 3] 1996-08-25 Investigators arrested a senior police detective on Sunday in connection with their inquiries into [4 4 Belgium 4] 's child sex scandal , Public Prosecutor Michel Bourlet said . " Georges Zicot was arrested and will be charged with truck theft , insurance fraud and document forgery , " Bourlet told a news conference . He said there had been searches at three sites on Sunday , including one at the [5 5 Charleroi 5] judicial police headquarters where Zicot worked . Zicot , 45 , is a specialist in tackling vehicle theft . [6 6 Belgian 6] media reported that he had been questioned twice in the past two years about thefts but released both times . He was promoted to chief detective earlier this year . Bourlet said two other people had also been arrested . One was Gerard Pignon , the owner of a warehouse where stolen vehicles were allegedly stored . The other was insurer Thierry Dehaan . Bourlet said the investigation into the vehicle theft ring would be added to the inquiry into the paedophile sex scandal in which five other people have already been arrested . He said the connection was through Bernard Weinstein , an accomplice of convicted child rapist [7 7 Marc Dutroux 7] -- the central figure in the paedophile scandal that has sent shockwaves across [8 8 Europe 8] . Weinstein was found dead last weekend alongside the bodies of eight-year-olds Julie Lejeune and Melissa Russo in a house belonging to Detroux , who said they starved to death earlier this year , nine months after being abducted in June 1995 . Two other girls have been rescued and police are hunting for at least two more who [9 9 Dutroux 9] has admitted kidnapping a year ago . " [10 10 Dutroux 10] has admitted killing Weinstein after a disagreement between the accomplices in an affair of truck theft , " Bourlet said . Another four people were also questioned at the weekend but had not been detained , Bourlet added . Anne Thily , public prosecutor in the eastern city of [11 11 Liege 11] where Julie and Melissa lived , said this was a major case involving some 50 investigators -- including two from the [12 12 U.S. 12] [13 13 Federal Bureau of Investigation 13] .

North Afghan highway opening put off , radio says . [1 1 ISL AMABAD 1] 1996-08-25 The planned reopening of [2 2 Afghanistan 2] 's main northern [3 3 Salang 3] highway as a result of peace talks with an opposition alliance has been put off until Wednesday , official [4 4 Kabul Radio 4] said on Sunday . The embattled [5 5 Afghan 5] government said last week that the Kabul-Salang highway would be opened on Monday or Tuesday following talks with the Supreme Coordination Council alliance led by Jumbish-i-Milli movement of powerful opposition warlord General [6 6 Abdul Rashid Dostum 6] . The radio said on Sunday the postponement of the opening had been made due to " precautions " . It did not elaborate . The [7 7 Salang 7] highway , [8 8 Afghanistan 8] 's main route to [9 9
Central Asia 9] , has been controlled by [10 10 Dostum 10] since he began fighting President [11 11 Burhanuddin Rabbani 1 alliance with [13 13 Hezb-i-Islami 13] party leader [14 14 Gu lbuddin Hekmatyar 14] , then prime minister but rival to the president . [15 15 Hekmatyar 15] rejoined the government as prime minister last June under a peace pact with [16 16 Rabba factions to follow suit . Earlier this month , Jumbish denied a [17 17 Kabul 17] government statement that the two sides had agreed to a ceasefire in the north .

Students burn [1 1 Hasina 1] effigy , battle police . Anis Ahmed [2 2 DHAKA 2] 1996-08-25 Students backed by opposition parties battled police and burned an effigy of Prime Minister Sheikh [3 3 Hasina 3] during a strike in the north [4 4 Bangladeshi 4] town of [5 5 Bogra 5] on Sunday . The strikers barricaded streets , attacked the local office of the ruling [6 6 Awami League 6] , fought running battles with police and set alight hundreds of copies of the popular " [7 7 Janakantha 7] " newspaper , alleging it was pro-government . Police used batons and teargas to try to disperse students who were throwing stones and home-made bombs , witnesses said . The strike , called by the main opposition [8 8 Bangladesh Nationalist Party 8] ([9 9 BNP 9]) , to denounce the deaths of four students killed by police over the last few days , coincided with a visit to the area by [10 10 Hasina 10] . Local officials said one policeman was killed by gunshots during clashes with pro-opposition students on Thursday . [11 11 Hasina 11] told a cross section of people at the [12 12 Bogra 12] police headquarters on Sunday that the government had already suspended three police officers and ordered a judicial probe into the violent incidents . The prime minister offered financial grants to the families of those killed , ordered the best possible medical care for the injured and urged [13 13 Bogra 13] residents to call off the strike . Opposition legislators walked out of parliament in [14 14 Dhaka 14] on Sunday denouncing " unprecedeted police barbarity " against opposition students and supporters . They renewed their call for the resignation of Home (Interior) Minister Rafiqul Islam . Hundreds of police raided the [15 15 Dhaka 15] university on Sunday , arresting nearly 30 outsiders who had been living in student dormitories and seizing weapons , university officials said . Police stormed ten residence halls on the campus , flushed out people at gunpoint and searched their baggage . They seized revolvers , sawn-off rifles , shotguns and knives . The students were later allowed to return . The swoop followed the resignation of the university 's Vice-Chancellor Dr. Emajuddin Ahmed on Saturday over the deteriorating law and order situation on the campus . Authorities closed down the 28,000-student university on Wednesday following gunbattles between students and police . Police said they fought armed activists from the [16 16 BNP 16] , headed by former prime minister [17 17 Begum Khaleda Zia 17] . [18 18 Hasina 18] told police the home ministry had already given a " blanket order " to arrest terrorists and possessors of illegal firearms irrespective of their political identities . Nearly 100 students have been injured in the clashes in [19 19 Dhaka 19] and [20 20 Bogra 20] , police told reporters .

FEATURE - Fertile [1 1 Ukraine 1] faces drought of cash and rain . Irene Marushko BATKIVSHCHYNA COLLECTIVE FARM , [2 2 Ukraine 2] 1996-08-26 Four shiny new green-and-yellow [3 3 John Deere 3] combines parked at this 1,750-hectare (4,325-acre) farm in the grain-growing regions south of [4 4 Kiev 4] don't fill its chief agronomist with enthusiasm . " They did a good job this year , but they need good diesel and good engine oil , " said Ivan Odnosum . " [5 5 God 5] help us if there is a breakdown , " he said of the machinery , loaned to the farm after the [6 6 Ukrainian 6] government bought it earlier this year . The country 's grain harvest this year is forecast to fall by more than 23 percent to only 28 million tonnes and two harsh factors are to blame . A drought scoured the steppes in May and June , stunting the growing wheat . And the farming sector , making the painful transition from [7 7 Soviet 7] central planning to a market economy simply has no money . [8 8 Ukraine 8] 's black soil is so fertile that a diplomat described it as " rich enough to grow rubber boots " . But recently [9 9 Ukraine 9] has been losing its reputation as a breadbasket of [10 10 Europe 10] , earned in the years before brutal forced collectivisation under [11 11 Soviet 11] dictator [12 12 Josef Stalin 12] . " The wheat will not be of a good quality this year , " said Hryhory Borsuk , a scientist at the Mironivka Wheat Institute , run by the Ukrainian Academy of Agrarian Sciences . " The temperature on the ground reached 62 degrees [13 13 Celsius 13] (143.60 Fahrenheit) this summer . We 've never seen anything so bad , " he said in an interview in his office , unlit since the government cut off electricity because of unpaid power bills . The harvest is gathered in the dry areas , but rainfall in Western Ukraine has delayed harvesting there . While Mironivka 's scientists , some unpaid for months , carry on developing new strains of wheat resistant to [14 14 U kraine 14 's extreme continental climate , Borsuk said the lack of cash in [15 15 Ukraine 15] 's agricultural sector is as bad as the drought . Collective farms and [16 16 Ukraine 16] 's nascent private farming sector have no money for fertiliser , no money for herbicides and pesticides , no money to repair old or buy new machinery , no money for fuel , and none to buy good seed . This year 's harvest is down from last year 's 36.5 million tonne harvest , which in turn compares with 50 million tonnes in 1990 , the year before independence . The decline is all the worse for people who recall wasteful [17 17 Soviet 17] times , when the [18 18 Kremlin 18] imported grain but priced bread so cheaply that people bought it to feed their pigs . " Agriculture is very expensive , and there are no solutions to our problems on the horizon , " said Odnosum . He said his farm , its 260 workers now readying the fields for winter wheat sowing , expected the land to yield 5.2 tonnes per hectare (2.5 acres) but ended up with 3.9 tonnes -- still better than the national average of 2.11 tonnes per hectare this year . " We did not have money for fertiliser , we 're in debt for fuel , and we 're borrowing diesel , " Odnosum said . A few kilometres (miles) down the two-lane road which passes Odnosum 's farm , where the occasional horse-drawn buggy passes by , is the 1,700-hectare (4,200-acre) Shevchenko collective farm , built next to a village still neat and tidy despite [19 19 post-Soviet 19] decay . Chief Accountant Natalya Soprun said the collective is strapped for cash , earlier this year bartering 220 tonnes of grain for diesel to fuel six rickety grain combines and tractors badly in need of repairs and basic maintenance . The average family earns 160-200 million karbovanets a year ($ 800 - $ 1,000) -- but many have not been paid in months , Soprun said . " People are working out of their own dedication . " Borsuk said the farm sector has two options : " We can sit down and cry , or we can do something . " He said the government plans to increase the sowing of the winter wheat which will be harvested next year . Planted in late summer and early autumn , the grain is [20 20 Ukraine 20] 's largest export item and traditionally grows better than summer wheat in [21 21 Ukraine 21] 's soil . Further plans , he said , called for full provision of resources like fertiliser and herbicides for 25 percent of [22 22 Ukraine 22] 's arable land next year , for 50 percent in 1998 and 100 percent of the land in 1999 . " If we follow this we 'll be able to sell 10 million tonnes of grain by the year 2000 , " Borkus said . The government has been trying to phase out huge subsidies to the farm sector , and in a move back to pre-Soviet days has given up to 50 hectares (124 acres) of land to some 36,000 private farmers willing to go it alone . Collective farms will last for the next few years , because most private farms now only produce enough to feed themselves with maybe a little extra to sell , said one private farmer : " In the future , maybe , but it 's better not to hurry . " Collectivisation brought us a lot of pain . And it went too fast . Privatising too quickly can also have a negative outcome . "

Gencor swells profit despite setbacks . Melanie Cheary [1 1 J OHANNESBURG 1] 1996-08-26 Gencor Ltd on Monday said it had swelled its year attributable profit and streamlined operations to strengthen it for the current financial year despite a variety of divisional setbacks . Announcing the group 's results for the year ended June 30 , chairman Brian Gilbertson said : " Happily the strong improvement in financial performance is not an illusion arising from the recent weakness of the rand relative to the dollar . " Gencor raised attributable earnings to 1,803 million rand from 1,003 million rand previously - in dollar terms an increase to $ 469 million from $ 279 million - and won despite the group 's Impala Platinum Holdings Ltd posting dismal results . " Not everything has gone well . We 've had substantial production difficulties at a number of our operations . The most obvious one with the greatest effect on the corporation was at Impala where we had the furnace failure , " Gilbertson said . Implats posted year attributable profit of 176 million rand from 281 million previously . Not only did the company lock in 3.92 rand per dollar in February / March , but it suffered output losses due to a furnace shutdown last August . The rand was last bid at 4.5350 against the dollar . Nor was Implats the only operation to fail output targets . Ingwe Coal Corporation Ltd was hit hard by heavy rains . It forfeited nearly one million tonnes of production to flooding at its mines in Mpumulanga province . But Gilbertson said the greatest gloom in the year came from the [2 2 European Commission 2] 's blocking of Implats ' proposed merger with [3 3 Lonrho Plc 3] 's platinum interests . " The big disappointment for the year was the failure of the platinum merger . From Gencor 's perspective we are taking the position that it is not on , " Gilbertson said . Looking ahead to the current financial year , he said that Gencor would boost earnings further . " Gencor is well placed to take up the challenges of the future . The group is soundly structured and prudently financed and is blessed with an excellent portfolio of world-class businesses . I think we can look forward to further growth " . Citing the disposal of Gencor 's stake in industrial holdings group Malbak Ltd for one billion rand among other smaller disposals , Gilbertson said Gencor had pruned its portfolio to concentrate on core assets . " We 've tried to clean up our overall portfolio by disposing of non-core assets . The biggest of those was Malbak . Overall a very substantial pruning ... leaving Gencor clearly structured along commodity lines , " Gilbertson said . He added that the group still had about 85 million rand after tax invested in various shares , which were market for disposal when required . Referring to Gencor 's increased 41.5 percent stake in Ingwe , Gilbertson said the group would wait for coal shares to be cheaper before considering snapping up more . " I think we would have liked to have more of Ingwe but it 's the question of adding value . When we bought the shares we bought ... at quite a bit lower than the price is now ... maybe if we just wait another few years for the next downturn in coal . " Finally , Gilbertson said a growing proportion of Gencor 's income was coming from offshore and unlisted investments . -- [4 4 Johannesburg 4] newsroom +27 11 482-1003

Advanced Medical buying IVAC Medical . [1 1 SAN DIEGO 1] 1996-08-26 Advanced Medical Inc. said Monday it will buy IVAC Medical Systems Inc. , a former Eli Lilly & Co . unit , for about $ 400 million in cash , creating one of the world 's largest makers of intravenous infusion therapy products . Under the agreement , IVAC and Advanced Medical 's wholly owned subsidiary , IMED Corp. , will merge to form a new company that will develop and manufacture infusion pumps that regulate the amount of intravenous fluid being administered to a patient , as well as proprietary disposable products . The combined company will have estimated revenues of $ 353 million . Advanced Medical , through IMED , is already one of the nation 's largest developers and manufacturers of intravenous infusion pumps and proprietary disposable products . It has sales in 38 foreign countries . San Diego-based IVAC is a major provider of infusion systems and related technologies to the health-care industry . It has manufacturing plants in [2 2 San Diego 2] ; [3 3 Creedmoor 3] , N.C. ; [4 4 Hampshire 4] , [5 5 England 5] ; and [6 6 Tijua na 6] , [7 7 Mexico 7] , and distributes its products in more than 120 countries . Eli Lilly sold IVAC on Dec. 31 , 1994 to DLJ Merchant Banking Partners LP , River Medical Inc. and other investors . Advanced Medical said it expects to take an unspecified one-time charge to pay for the merger . It did not say when the charge would be taken . " The addition of IVAC is expected to contribute to financial results in the full second quarter of 1997 , " the companies said . The merger will add to both companies ' historical leadership in infusion therapy and technology-based drug delivery devices , they said . In 1968 , IVAC introduced the world 's first infusion therapy monitoring device . A year later IVAC improved its system with the addition of an IV pump that regulated the flow of liquids through positive pressure . IMED introduced the world 's first volumetric infusion pump in 1974 . IMED had profits of $ 1.7 million , or 6 cents per fully diluted common share , on $ 53.9 million in revenues in the first half of 1996 . Excluding the effect of a one-time restructuring charge of $ 17.4 million , IVAC had net income of $ 4.2 million on net sales of $ 112.8 million for the 1996 first half . Advanced Medical reported profits of $ 8.4 million on sales of $ 29.2 million in the quarter ended June 30 . William J. Mercer , IVAC president and chief executive officer , will become the president and CEO of Advanced Medical . He led the transition of IVAC to a privately held company and was previously senior vice president at Mallinckrodt Group Inc . Joseph Kuhn , Advanced Medical and IMED president , will become the new company 's executive vice president and chief financial officer . The deal is expected to close by the first quarter of 1997 , subject to regulatory approval . It has already been approved by both companies ' boards .

RALLYING - MAKINEN STEPS UP TITLE BID WITH LAKES WIN . [1 1 J YVASKYLA 1] , [2 2 Finland 2] 1996-08-26 Tommi Makinen took a significant step towards becoming world rally champion with a brilliant victory in the 1000 Lakes Rally on Monday . [3 3 Mitsubishi 3] driver Makinen stopped experienced fellow [4 4 Finland 4] [5 5 Juha Kankkunen 5] in his tracks on the final day of the 1,452-km rally , doubling his lead on the first two decisive stages . " This was the most difficult win - three days at 125 percent effort , " said Makinen , whose success completed his 1,000 Lakes hat-trick . [6 6 Kankkunen 6] was runner-up in his [7 7 Toyota 7] as [8 8 Finland 8] 's [9 9 Jarmo Kytolehto 9] produced a remarkable drive to finish third in his [10 10 Ford 10] . [11 11 Swede 11] [12 12 Kenneth Eriksson 12] kept [13 13 Subaru 13] in the hunt for the manufacturers ' title with fifth place in spite of a gearbox problem that nearly forced him off the road close to the end of the event . Maakinen 's and [14 14 Mitsubishi 14] 's positions were strengthened by the late retirement of [15 15 Spain 15] 's [16 16 Carlos Sainz 16] when his [17 17 Ford 17] gearbox failed . Makinen , with 95 points , now leads his nearest championship rival , [18 18 Sainz 18] , by 32 points .

SOCCER - [1 1 SHARPE 1] HITS WINNER TO EASE PRESSURE ON [2 2 LEEDS 2] . [3 3 LEEDS 3] , [4 4 England 4] 1996-08-26 Winger [5 5 Lee Sharpe 5] hit a superb strike from the edge of the penalty area to give [6 6 Leeds 6] their first win of the season on Monday and leave hapless [7 7 Wimbledon 7] anchored at the bottom of the [8 8 England 8] premier league . [9 9 Sharpe 9] repaid a huge slice of the 4.5 million pound ($ 6.98 million) fee [10 10 Leeds 10] handed [11 11 Manchester United 11] for his services with a top-draw second-half goal to hand [12 12 Wimbledon 12] their third successive defeat . [13 13 Ian Rush 13] , the [14 14 Welsh 14] striker signed from [15 15 Liverpool 15] in the close season , set up the goal , feeding [16 16 Sharpe 16] as he galloped forward and the former [17 17 England 17] winger cut inside onto his unfavoured right foot to arc a shot into the right-hand corner of the net . The only goal of the match also brought some relief for under-fire [18 18 Leeds 18] manager [19 19 Howard Wilkinson 19] following the team 's poor start to the season . Home fans frequently booed their own side until [20 20 Sharpe 20] turned the jeers to cheers .

SOCCER - [1 1 SEYCHELLES 1] FAIL IN BID FOR HISTORIC VICTORY . [2 2 Mark Gleeson 2] [3 3 JOHANNESBURG 3] 1996-08-26 The tiny islands of the [4 4 Seychelles 4] failed to make soccer history at the weekend when they bowed out of the preliminary rounds of the [5 5 African Nations Cup 5] .
Trailing fellow Indian Ocean islanders [6 6 Mauritius 6] 1-0 from the first leg , they were held to a 1-1 draw at home on Saturday despite playing against 10 men for most of the match . The 2-1 aggregate took [7 7 Mauritius 7] into the group phase of the qualifiers for the 1998 finals , and kept up the [8 8 Seychelles 8] ' record of never having won an official match in their 10 years of [9 9 FIFA 9] membership .
The [10 10 Seychelles 10] must have thought they were on course for a historic breakthrough when [11 11 Mauritian 11] midfielder Andre Caboche was sent off for a crude tackle in the 19th minute . But the visitors responded to the setback immediately -- veteran striker Ashley Mocude scoring a minute later to give them a two-goal aggregate lead . Although Danny Rose 's 50th-minute equaliser gave the Seychellois renewed hope they could not find the net again and were eliminated . [

[12 12 Mauritius 12] now play in group seven of the qualifiers against [13 13 Malawi 13] , [14 14 Mozambique 14] and favourites [15 15 Zambia 15] . [16 16 Namibia 16] , who drew 0-0 with [17 17 Botswana 17] in their first leg , won the second leg in [18 18 Windhoek 18] 6-0 to stretch their unbeaten run to eight matches and continue their remarkable progress on the [19 19 African 19] soccer stage . They now play in group five with [20 20 Cameroon 20] , [21 21 Gabon 21] and [22 22 Kenya 22] . German-based striker [23 23 Bachirou Salou 23] returned home to [24 24 Togo 24] to score the decisive only goal of their tie against [25 25 Congo 25] . [26 26 Salou 26] , who plays for [27 27 MSV Duisburg 27] in the [28 28 Bundesliga 28] , scored in the 53rd minute of Sunday 's match in [29 29 Lome 29] for a 1-0 aggregate win which takes his side into group six , where they will meet [30 30 Liberia 30] , [31 31 Tanzania 31] and [32 32 Zaire 32] . [33 33 Ethiopia 33] needed a penalty shoot-out in Addis Ababa to overcome [34 34 Uganda 34] after a 2-2 aggregate scoreline . Both legs ended 1-1 before [35 35 Ethiopia 35] won the spot kick decider 4-2 . [36 36 Uganda 36] 's elimination follows their humiliating 5-1 aggregate defeat by [37 37 Angola 37] in June 's [38 38 World Cup 38] qualifying preliminaries . The other preliminary round second leg match , between [39 39 Mauritania 39] and [40 40 Benin 40] in [41 41 Nouakchott 41] , was postponed until Friday . [42 42 Benin 42] won the first leg 4-1 .

SWIMMING - POPOV IN `SERIOUS CONDITION ' AFTER STABBING . [1 1 MOSCOW 1] 1996-08-26 [2 2 Russian 2] double [3 3 Olympic 3] swimming champion [4 4 Alexander Popov 4] was in a serious condition on Monday after being stabbed on a [5 5 Moscow 5] street . A doctor said it was too early to say whether Popov , the only man to retain the [6 6 Olympic 6] 50 and 100 metres freestyle titles , would return to top-level sport . " His condition is serious , " said Rimma Maslova , deputy chief doctor of Hospital No 31 in the [7 7 Russian 7] capital . " But he is conscious and is talking and smiling .
" Maslova told [8 8 Reuters 8] she was not an expert in sports medicine , but said it was too early to judge Popov 's chances of returning to competitive swimming . Popov , who won gold in the 50 and 100 metres freestyle at the recent [9 9] Atlanta Olympics 9] , was stabbed in the abdomen late on Saturday after an argument with a group of roadside watermelon sellers in south-west [10 10 Moscow 10] . Maslova said the wound had affected a lung and a kidney . Doctors operated on Popov , 24 , for three hours . Popov told [11 11 N TV 11] television on Sunday he was in no danger and promised he would be back in the pool shortly . " There 's no need to worry . We 're going to be walking soon -- and swimming , " he insisted cheerfully from his bed in the intensive care unit . [12 12 Interfax 12] news agency said police had detained one of the attackers . It said the row started when Popov and a group of his friends were returning from a party . Vitaly Smirnov , president of the Russian National Olympic Committee , said President [13 13 Boris Yeltsin 13] had given the swimmer [14 14 Russia 14] 's top award for his [ 15 15 Olympic 15] performance . " I am not a doctor but I think he is doing all right , " said 1 Smirnov . 2 Smirnov said the [16 16 Olympic Committee 16] might ask the government to take measures to protect the country 's best athletes , some of whom have already chosen to live abroad for fear of a surge in crime in [17 17 post-Soviet 17] [18 18 Russia 18] .
